

Edward Duncan

1841-1842

London

Henry Pickwell Esq
 Bedford Hotel
 Brighton
 Sussex

Edmund

1891.38R.4

April 16^h - 1873

36, Upper Park Road,
Haberstock Hill.
A. M.

My dear Sir -

I am always
willing to make myself
useful - If you think my artistic judgment, in conjunction with our friend Sir John Gilbert and Mr. Wells, will be efficient to award the prizes
to the Art-Competitors

Dunbar

I shall be willing to comply with your request and act as
one of the judges -

The Crystal Palace
is a large establishment,
please to let me know
in what part of the Building I shall find my Coadjutors on Tuesday the 27

Yours

Believe me

Dear Sir -
Yours faithfully

E. Duncan

Henry Bucknell Esq

March 20th 1872

36, Upper Park Road,
Waberstock Hill.
N. W.

My dear Gilbert -

I think it is almost certain that I shall be from London at the time of the dinner of the 'Artist's' General Benevolent Institution, but I will give you my annual subscription - I spoke to Krieger, one of our

Duncker

Candidates this year,
and I think he will be one of your party
at the dinner table.

I see by the "Times"
that you are now
Sir John Gilbert.

No one of your old
friends will be better
pleased than I am
at the distinction
you have acquired

and which you so justly merit.

I most sincerely
congratulate you
and remain
Dear Gilbert
yours ever faithfully
E. Duncan.

Sir John Gilbert.