Your intelligence about dear
Mr Hunt is truly delightful to us all here. - The journey place appears too charming for it not to be accepted. -

We have spent our holidays very pleasantly by at Brighton. Mrs Burney continued well, during the whole of the time.

We were sorry to lose Robert so soon.
He is a nice excellent fellow; & well worth to be to the Master, with whom he is placed.
Do not remove my remaining Pupil sooner than can be helped. He is a good Boy;— may make a Churchman in due time. — You formerly expressed a wish, that one of them might show talents and dispositions, which might suit
the Ministry. —

Pray, remember us most affectionately to Mrs Hunt, & to all the Family — by no means omitting the Peter, if they are in your part of the Island.

Then we are all full of expectation, that this French visit will not be delayed
any longer. — Devonshire will be a good quiet place for Mrs Hunt to wait the issue of the Day. — Your Birmingham men are all,
I trust, loyal & stout in the good cause. —

Do you ever see Charles Carter, The Rev. — any more days? — If you do, remember me, I have particular regard to him.

Yours always, my dear friend,
Yours most faithfully
Charles Burney.
