Dear Mr. Pickens,

I shall have much pleasure in dining with you on Saturday at 7. and will be with you as near 5 o'clock as I can manage.
I wish I could get to you earlier but I cannot manage it. Believe me with kind regards yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Mickels

I am exceedingly sorry that by order of my commanding officer I am obliged to attend drills and a meeting tomorrow evening in connection with a march out for which we start on Friday. I have done all in my power to get off and have been into town this morning to try and arrange to do so, but I find it is impossible.
Therefore I am very sorry I shall be unable to come to you tomorrow with my Father and Mother.
With sincere regrets believe me

Yours sincerely

Walter C. Horsley.
