

If I am interested
to see you, come & repeat the story
as often as you like. I shall soon I hope be able to offer you
a bed.

Aspirately yrs
Louise / ~~of~~ ~~plain~~ ~~home~~

6

189.908.3

major yes

7, PEMBROKE GARDENS,
KENSINGTON. W.

Thursday 20 March 1864

My dear Wheel,
I am I refuse
to do anything?
I shall be down
at my country
estate on the 18th
so that I can

Easily come up for the day.

I should suggest the Witch & Endor
the same subject

as the Academy
Students this year. I called on Mr. Pidgeon
on Sunday. I am so sorry
to see her such an invalid.

JOPLING, Louise, R.B.A., artist; founder of School of Art; b. Manchester, 16 Nov.; 5th c. of T. S. Goode, railway contractor; m. 1st, Frank Romer, Admiralty Registry, Civil Service; 2nd, Joseph M. Jopling, Horse Guards, Civil Service; one s.; 3rd, George W. Rowe, a lawyer; one s. Educ.: Paris, under M. Charles Chaplin. Constant exhibitor at Royal Academy, Grosvenor Gallery, Paris Salon, Champ de Mars, etc.; member of Portrait Society and Pastel Society. Publications: poetry; short tales; newspaper articles; Hints to Amateurs, in one vol. Recreations: music, acting, riding, driving, reading, travelling. Address: 7 Pembroke Gardens, Kensington, W.; Hygeiea, Shoreham Beach. T.: 173 Western. Clubs: Lyceum, Ladies' Athenæum.