

George Dunlop Leslie, R.A., born 1835, ^{189.73v.3} the son of a distinguished artist, is pre-eminent in the portrayal of the tender and unconscious grace of English girlhood. His pictures have a subtle charm in subject and treatment, being soft and subdued in colour and careful in drawing. Since 1859 he has not failed to contribute to the exhibitions

189.73V.2

ARTS CLUB
HANOVER SQUARE

July 4th

Dear Schwabe

I have to acknowledge your kind note & the cheque.
a debt

ARTS CLUB
HANOVER SQUARE

excuse me and make my excuses
to Mrs Schmale

Trueman yours very truly

G.D. Lusk -

The picture will go this week -

2 Elgin Road
Edgware Road.
Wednesday.

My Dear Mrs Redgrave

I could not leave today
as my picture is ⁱⁿ a crisis which demands the utmost care - but I shall be able to come tomorrow by the same train, I hope you will excuse my frequent changes and with kind regards believe me
ever yours sincerely

G.D. Leslie.

Summer 1857
G. D. Leslie

R. Moggford. Esq
Crystal Palace

"The Evening Star"

by G. D. Leslie
2 Abercorn Pl.
St Johnswood

Price 4 Guineas.

The

Leslie (No. 40)
Ret.
July 150

2 Abercorn Place
St John's Wood
July 19th 1850

Dear Sir/ I have handed the written cheque to Mr Chalmers, for Mr Stamp; & therefore return you
the printed one,
you sent to day. —

I have promised to show the drawings
that remain with me,
to a gentleman who
will take, probably,
20 or 30 of them;
and after he has done so I have no

Doubt but that Mr Stamp will be glad to receive you & the
for the remainder. —

I am, dear Sir,

Yours very truly

W. L. G.

Mr Stoughton. —

Mr Chalson will show
you the other books
whenever you wish all as his. —