Dear Sir,

I am surprised
and pleased to find
such an encomium
in the Athenaeum on my little publication,
and since I presume that I am indebted to yourself for the article, I cordially
thank you for it—

My. Ashworth
1794-1857
opponent of arm laws
friend of Cobden
Ainslie

Believe me
Yours very truly

My dear Sir.

As I have not been able to make you out in the crowd of the ass^{ns} I must now take the chance of discovery of your whereabouts for the purpose of requesting

Jhy. Ashworth
owner

the pleasure, already under promise of a visit during your stay in March?

Sunday being a
dies non in the section may I request that you will favour me
with your company
for the day and

return to Manchester
on Monday morning?
