Sir C. Russell, B.C.

14 May 1886.

Dear Sir,

Most willingly I will do what I can in re Escott. I am very sorry to hear (what he) accounts of him. I hope to go see him on an early day but I've not lately had time to bless myself.

Let me thank you for your very kind note of congratulation on my appointment as a J.P. - & tho' I am not sure it is a matter of congratulation.

Yours faithfully

C. Russell
