

Duke of Wellington.

Private T. Saxe

18 Aug 1889

Dear Mr Yates

In the conclusion
of your letter of
assures to me you
allude to my not
writing down the
stories about my Father. Among
other pieces of
history I hate
mystery. I do not

Duke of Wellington.

leave them to
posting in a book
on concentrated
focus, because they
are mostly oddities
or ridicule and
if badly told, might
be abusive and
as all have been told 100 times, they must all be in
the possession of

I recollect the words
of the letter; it was thus

"I M presents his
compliments to Mr
Reuben

The Field Marshal
is not the Marquis
Down, nor the collector of Mr Reuben's
bad debts."

Yours faithfully

Wellington
The Cadet of the Debt
in Court

Duke of Wellington.

many people and
cannot be lost.

Did you ever
read Joe Miller
how stupid it is!
it is next to
impossible to write
a story as it should be told.

your anecdotes
are literally true
and word for word.

Duke of Wellington.

Mr Jones (young)
who flattered me
was Warren of 10000 a year.

The trades man
was Beuben who kept a baggans at Dover. Had paid
him 3 times, but he said he would not take 10 for my Father's letter - I was the hero
with my brother.

No. 143

Lord Randolph Churchill.

Private

April 7 1884

2 CONNAUGHT PLACE,
W.

Dear Mr. Gates

Many thanks for your letter. I wish I could have been of more use than I was.

Mr. James both before & since the judgement has been very friendly. I think you have been very badly & unfairly treated. If I can be of any service it will be a pleasure to me
Yours very truly
Randolph Churchill

870.

Lord Randolph Churchill.

There is a general opinion that Coleridge as usual made an ass of himself

No. 144