

Alex Campbell
14th July 1847

To Robt Owen

My Dear Social Father

I have heard with much pleasure of your safe arrival again in Old England and rejoice to learn that you are in a good state of health.
Long may you continue so is the ardent prayer of your Apostle in the Work of the Love Spirit. —

I have called twice at St James Hotel in hope of seeing you, and to offer my humble service in any manner they can be made available to promote the noble mission in which you have ^{been} so long and I will say so successfully engaged - This Country as a whole but Ireland in particular requires the Divine Principles you have propounded, to relieve all classes from the perplexing and degraded condition in which they are involved.

and I do hope Her Majesty and Her Ministers may be induced to give you the opportunity of manifesting to the World the Superiority of Divine, Practical, Revelatory

If your other engagements will allow, I shall feel much pleasure of seeing you at such time as may be most convenient for yourself.

I Remain My Dear
Social Father -
Yours - Son
Geo. Campbell

Address - 55, Myddleton St Clerkenwell, London