Dear Sir I am very grateful for your courteous
response to my request - I hope the full text of the letter will be printed in the biography of Allston - and I am very glad to hear that there are three of Coleridge to be printed.

I am sorry I cannot make <sup>out</sup> anything of notation as regards the names of what you are so
kind

as to send me tracings
— one looks most like
'Migliorus', and the other begins with a 'T' and has a 'j' in the middle — but that is all I can make out.

I shall send the tracings to my friend Ernest Hartley Colvins (the grand son of S. T. C.) & he may have some clue.
(if so, I shall advise you)
but I suspect the names

are of temporary acquaintances in Rome
and that all trace is lost — unless you
find something in Allston's diaries or letters.

I shall look carefully into the complete letter you are so kind as to send me if I find anything of great interest I shall write a paragraph in the Athenaeum about it.

With regards

Thanks
