

Elliott & Fry

MASTER'S HOUSE,
TEMPLE. E. C.

June 15. 1903

Dear Sir Spencer

I mean to say that there is no chance of my joining you & Mr Arthur (lay tomorrow afternoon. I have been ailing much for a week past, & my doctor who saw me this morning says I have beyond doubt had a touch of Influenza, & that I must keep the house for some days yet -

I know you will judge me mercifully - & I know that you two will make an admirable choice - Yours sincerely
Alfred Ainger.
