

Mary C. Mandel

risking us had a chance of our heads being the same

In my essay Cl. Mandelley.

ED

Richmond Va

August 21st

Gen Breckinridge
Or Sir

Col Brown will see you shortly to get your consent to have Capt Roberts Company of the boys transferred to the 1st for duty. I hope you will do this as they can do more good at ~~home~~ ^{home} than they can where they are now

You have greatly increased your reputation by your conduct at Shiloh & other places
give my respects

to Leabell

May you live long to enjoy the increase reputation you have won on the Battle field

Yours

H. Chieman

You will remember that Robert's Company are filled up with my relations, do this

Chieman

CHRISMAN, J.S. $1\frac{3}{4}$ pp., 8vo. Richmond; Aug. 21, 1862-3. To Gen. J.C. Breckinridge. 8.

Asking the general to see that Captain Roberts' company of Kentucky boys be transferred to Kentucky for duty "as they can do more good at home than they can where they are now." In a postscript Chrisman points out that "Roberts Company are filled up with my relations, do this f(or) Chrisman."