Dear Sir Baldwin

Very many thanks for your letter. I am so sorry I am not able to stay a day or two with you as I was back from here, but I am engaged to be at Abercrombie on Monday.

Your letter of the 1st August.

Which you refer never came I hand, and curiously enough I receive today a letter from another gentleman which shows me that I missed a somewhat important communication dated the 4th August. This is not pleasant as one does not know how many other letters may have gone wrong. You will see that I dealt at some length with the Church

question yesterday
Yours sincerely
James A. Churchhill
