Leicester Street

London Feb 6th 1798

Sir

As there is Eleven thousand pounds still unpaid me, on out of the agreement entered between the Plate Glass Company and me, and as Money will soon be needed to pay the Expenses and penalty, perhaps attending the late appeal on the part of Mr. Thos. Blane - I therefore wish to have your Aid in drawing up and extending such Deeds as may be proper for me to sign, to secure to the Plate Glass Company, the Privilege of making alkaline Salts for the use of their Works under my Patents, until such Deeds are executed, I neither could ask from the Company any further Advance of Money, nor would the Governor Mayor Grant, although my particular Friend, be warranted in recommending me. No Doubt the Serial of any Deeds drawn up by you with all the necessary Vouchers and Evidence of Facts must be laid before the

the Gentlemen of the Law employed by Major Grant or the Company for their Services in Connection of necessary and appropriate in still much unnecessary delay may be saved by my furnishing you with the Information requisite at any time you will please to appoint a meeting with me our conversation need not be a long one as you will soon be made to understand the Business

I am Sir
your most obedt. Servt.
Dundonald
