31st Dec. 1828.

My dear Sir -

The Bishop of London having stated yesterday to the Provisional Committee of King's College, London, that you had presented a copy of your Hexaglot edition of the Georgics of Virgil to the future library of the College, and that he had engaged to take care of it in the mean time, - it was immediately resolved that the thanks of the Committee should be presented to you for your donation, and that I should communicate the same to you :-

which I have great pleasure in doing accordingly, and remain, my dear Sir, yours very faithfully H. N. Coleridge.

William Poltheby Esq.
