

Amherst
Sept 21

My dear Barkun,

I write in the greatest haste to say that although I have addressed three letters to Mr. Bentley, requesting an answer to each, respecting your Fawkes, I have heard nothing whatever from him.
I will not characterize his conduct now; but I think right to state to you that if Mr. Bentley after my applications, and after the M.D. have given him nothing you and in writing, nothing shall ever induce me to write another line in the Miscellany, or to correct myself in any way.

with him in future. This is my fixed determination. Mr. Bentley will please himself.

I have to apologise to you for troubling you again on this score; but you may rely upon ^{it} I will never annoy you in future with Mr. Bentley or his concerns.

Yours always faithfully
H. Maria Curwen.

Kenil Lodge,

Canow Road.
