

My dear friend, I must decline having anything further to do with the advertisements. The time is past when they could have been of service. In reference to the advertising acct., I must again beg that you inform Mr. Morgan with the full particulars that it may be settled without delay.

Yours faithfully

W. Garrison Cresswell.

Renwal Manor House,
Harrod Road.

November Sixteen. 1871.

5 — 1 p., 8vo, Harrow Rd., Nov. 16, 1841, to GEORGE CRUIKSHANK, “ I must decline having anything further to do with the advertisments,” with portrait, newspaper cuttings, etc. £2 10s (Ainsworth's “ Guy Fawkes ” published in 1841 was illustrated by Cruikshank).