

17 March 1828

My dear Sir

I had intended to have delivered in person my acknowledgments and also permitted acceptance of your kind invitation for Tuesday next - but I found myself a little exhausted, having talked a good while beyond my morning hours at Lady B's - & likely to miss the stage. With sincere respect,

Dear Sir,

Yours obliged

J. T. Coleridge