

Trin. Coll.
March 3^d 1877?

My dear Prof. Westcott, Could you give me the pleasure of coming to an early lunch, at a quarter to six, before the congregation next Thursday, to meet Robert Browning?
I think you are a great student of his poetry, and thought perhaps it would give you pleasure to meet him while he stays with me next week.
He will also be in hall on Friday evening. Believe me Yours very truly
Sidney Colvin
