

George Street
12 Jan'y 1826

Sir

May I take the liberty of again intruding upon you on the subject of the Election for the University of Cambridge.
My engagements both public and professional obliged me in the first instance to have recourse to a circular Letter for the purpose of communicating as expeditiously and as extensively as possible my intention to offer myself as a Candidate. I feel that I owe it to you to make a more particular and in form a more respectful application I am persuaded that we do not differ in our opinions as to what is due to our Establishments in Church or State. Allow me then as a former fellow of one of the Colleges and as a warm and zealous friend to the University to solicit your Support.

I trust that no Individual will be found more ready upon all occasions to promote its Interests and defend its Institutions and privileges than myself
I have the Honor to be
Sir
your faithful Servant
J. S. Copley.
Lord Byngham
