Dear Sir,

It was only on last Friday that Mr. Sturges resolved to publish no more volumes of his Annals, & I am therefore unable to make use of the very clearances which you had the goodness to send me. The proprietor changed his mind so often that after three alterations and a fourth one resolved on I finally gave in my resignation and he succeeded from the painful situation of Editor leaving my pen to other shoulders. The work will go on in the shape of an embellished magazine and be published monthly. I beg you will accept my best acknowl-edgments for your kindness; and to say that I will be glad to see you should you come to London. I have returned your names amongst my papers.

I am, my dear Sir
Yours very truly
Allen Cunningham
