

To Mr. Samuel Preble Printer
of Newbury
London

Dear Sir ^{Dr. Caselle has written to Sir John} ^{the delay owing to the shipping}

My book has been in London near a month & yet not published though this is the exact time for it. I wish some & otherwise may not have happened that I was not informed of. I gave it to the Council of Cedit. Will on a debt of account made up by them allow for 200 L. half to you

If these terms do not please you sell it on Commission for me as you do to others. But in any case I may you to take care that some body or other published it. It has long been published here, & I am afraid from that circumstance that the first Edition may come to London before yours is published

Be so good as send this Letter to Mr Cuddell as soon as you receive it

I hope to see you soon and am Dear Sir

Yours always sincerely

John Delany

16 July 1742

I may you to deliver Mr Cuddell to send a paper of the book to Mr Chamber of the new board of trade for me for me
