

Shenstone,
Nailsworth.

March, 5, 1929.

Dear Mr Hoppe,

It may be a very long time before I am in London again. As you see by my address, I am now more than a hundred miles away. But if you are ever down this way on pleasure or business, you will always be welcome to a cup of tea, and the use of your camera.

Yours very truly;

W. B. Davis.