To Charles Kent

My dear Friend. I have directed Chapman & Hall to send you the earliest copy of "The Spanish Match," and I hope you have received it - you will find the book an old friend with a new name - a better name, I think, than the "House of Seven Chimneys".
You liked the commencement.

of the story, and I like the conclusion very much.

With kindest

remembrance

Believe me

Very dear friend

Always truly yours

W. Garrison Lincoln

Ainsworth (William Harrison). A.L.S. to Charles Kent Esq., 5 Arundel Terrace, Brighton, July 17, 1865. 2 pages 8vo., with stamped addressed envelope. 7.00

A literary letter relating to his novel "House of Seven Chimneys"
He gives the name of the new title and his opinion of it.
