They would have reached you long ago, but I heard that you were in Europe, so I waited until you returned; besides, I wanted to read the ^{book,} first - & I am ashamed to say, I have not done so, yet.

The fact is, I have worked furiously on my

Dear Miss Rausser
I am so glad you are coming to Boston -
- remember your promise!
You are going to stay with us. Mr Deland
says he has written you, but I want to add my reminder; - & also my thanks for the ornament novel, & by giving up everything else, I have at last finished it! — Of course, revision comes next; but that is only fun, & I shall have time for many pleasant things — among them L'ornement des roses —
