

Hurstpierpoint.

Dec 5 1899

My dear Hervey, I recognized your hand on the address of one my packets this morning, and rejoiced, for I knew there was good reading in store for me.

All your contributions, long and short, are good - but I really think "The Little Miserer of Life is best - No, it is not - "Shattered Idols" is equally good.

A thousand thanks for providing me with such excellent patulum for breakfast.

Always yours
H. Harris Amisworth
