KITTENS OBTAIN REVENGE FROM CENTRE FROSH BY GRAND SCORE OF 19 TO 0

Win First Victory Over Centre Eleven Since 1916; 3,000 See Game.

GOOD TEAM WORK SHOWN

Both Elevens Fight on Even Terms in First Half; Tide Turns in Second

Last Saturday was the first time that a football team representing Centre College has been defeated on Stoll Field since 1916. This occurred when the Kentucky Kittens defeated the Centre College Lieutenants by a score of 19 to 0. The game was more than ordinarily interesting as it was not until the third quarter that the Kittens made their first touchdown. During the entire game the team worked as a unit and this fact more than anything else spelled defeat for the Lieutenants. This is how the Kittens did it:

First Quarter

The Kittens kicked off to the Lieutenants who brought the ball back to the 30 yard line. Centre was then penalized five yards and 15 yards for being off side and for holding. Centre kicked to the Kittens. A series of line plunges by Evans and Kirwan gained ground for Kentucky. The Freshmen were forced to kick, and on the next play Summers made a 20 yard gain. Centre then fumbled and King recovered but due to penalties the Kittens did not make first down. The Freshmen then kicked to Centre who tried a series of line plunges that failed to gain. They then kicked to the Kittens. Evans then made a 35 yard run around left end. A pass from Evans to Kirwan gained 10 more yards. A series of plunges by Tracy, Kirwan and Evans netted only nine yards. The ball went over to Centre. End of first quarter. Score, Kentucky 0, Centre 0.

Second Quarter

Centre made 12 yards thru the line and was then held for downs and forced to kick to the Kittens who failed to gain. The Lieutenants then gained 35 yards on a forward pass and then tried to place kick a goal but failed. The Kittens kicked to Centre who returned the ball after failing to gain through the line. A pass from Kirwan to Evans gained 30 yards. Three other passes failed, and the ball went over to Centre, who could not gain through the line. End of the first half. Score, Kentucky 0, Centre 0.

Third Quarter

Centre kicked to the Kittens. Evans received the ball and ran 50 yards before he was tackled. Centre then intercepted a forward pass, but failed to gain. As a result the ball changed hands. Two line plunges by Evans netted 23 yards. A series of line plunges by Captain Kirwan made the first touchdown. Score, Kentucky 0, Centre 0.

The Kittens kicked to the Lieutenants. A fumble on the second down was recovered by King who ran 20 yards and made the extra point from placement. Score Kentucky 13, Centre 0.

The Kittens again kicked to the Lieutenants who were held for downs. End of the third quarter.

Evans made 30 yards around left end. A series of line bucks by Captain Kirwan netted 21 yards, but lack-

KIRWAN

Al Kirwan, product of Louisville Male High, is captain and fullback of the Freshman eleven. He is a player of great ability, hitting the line, skirting the ends and passing with equal effectiveness. He was one of the outstanding performers in last week's Yearling battle with Centre and was one of the main cogs in the Kitten machine.

M'VEY CHOSEN HEAD OF UNIVERSITY ASSOCIATION

Educational Body Confers High Honor on President of University

President Frank L. McVey, of the University, was elected president of the National Association of State Universities at a meeting of that body in Washington last Tuesday. Other officers chosen were David Kinsly, president of the University of Illinois, vice-president; Harry W. Chase, president of the University of North Carolina, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. McVey before his election to the presidency was secretary-treasurer of the organization, and his promotion is undoubtedly the result of his ability and standing among the leading educators of the country. His selection as the head of America's leading educational body, besides adding additional laurels to Dr. McVey, bestows upon the University great honor.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT NOTES

The members of the Men's Glee Club met last Sunday afternoon to discuss their plans for this year. Another meeting will be held Sunday, November 18, when Professor Lampert will outline in full the work for the year. Competition among the members is high since only 16 will be taken on the trips which are being planned.

Last year the girls of Patterson Hall and the other dormitories made $80, by dressing Christmas dolls for sale at the Y. W. bazaar, which they gave to the Near East fund for the support of an orphan. This year sandwich sales are being held in each of the dormitories every Thursday night at 10 o'clock for the benefit of the Near East. Eat that they may eat.

CRIMSONS OF ALABAMA MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE AGAINST CATS SATURDAY

Dope Favors Kentucky to Win by Touchdown in Week-End Scrap

TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION

Hollowell Will Again Hold Down End Position, While Brewer May Be in Backfield.

The Crimson Tide of the University of Alabama will make its initial appearance on Stoll Field Saturday when the Crimson eleven will furnish opposition for the Cats. As this is the first showing of the southerners on the local field no past scores can be avenged and the scrap will hinge on the desires of each team to win the opening contest between the two institutions.

To those who predict the results of gridiron battles by advance dope the Cats will enter the scrap as favorites to win by one touchdown. As Sewanee and Alabama fought a 7-7 tie and the Cats handed the Tigers a 7-0 trouncing; but the initiated who do not entirely depend on the previous scores of the scrap seem more complicated. Alabama defeated Penn. 9-7, after the Quakers had defeated the Purples 27-0. The Wildcats, however, are not paying any attention to dope and while not overconfident will enter the scrap with solid determination to win and with the fighting Kentucky spirit that is not to be denied.

Chuck Rice, who was expected not to play against the Crimson, will not be able to don the moleskins for the contest, and Hollowell who has filled his position admirably will again get the call for the end position.

With the exception of Russell, who suffered an injured hand in the Vandy scrap, but will play Saturday, the

GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP CLASS TO BE HELD SOON

Principles of Directing Local Clubs to Be Taught by Miss Haney.

Plans are being completed for a course in training for Girl Scout leadership to be given on the campus November 27 to December 9 under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association and the direction of Physical Education Department. Miss Elizabeth Haney, national community and educational worker, will have charge of the work here.

This movement opens to the college girl a new and steadily growing profession in the part-time or whole-time career of a Girl Scout director or assistant. Leaders in charge of the local organizations are needed in growing numbers. These positions pay good salaries and compare favorably with teaching and other lines of social service in the advantages and interest of the work.

In addition the course will be found of benefit itself to girls intending to enter constructive community work in any of its phases. Credit in the Physical Education Department will probably be given to the University girls completing the course.

EVANS

John Evans, hailing from Martin's Ferry, Ohio, and picked as All-Ohio High School quarter last year, is the Yearling pilot. His speed in action gives some foundation for the term flash. Evans is a wonder in snagging passes and rarely ever misses any forwards that come his way.

'DAD'S DAY' WILL BE SET ASIDE AT U OF K CAMPUS

Fathers of Every Student is Urged to be Present November 25.

In honor of the fathers of the University of Kentucky students, November 25, the day of the University of Tennessee-Kentucky Freshman clash on Stoll Field, has been set aside as "Dad's Day." In all the large Universities it is customary to appoint one day in the year when the fathers of all students who can find it possible come to the college where their son or daughter is in school and there, celebrate the day.

It is well to hold "Dad's Day" at the time of some athletic contest because in every man there is the love of prowess and strength and a certain amount of hero worship. The Tennessee-Kentucky Freshman game promises to be the most interesting of the year. Volunteer Freshmen have defeated both the Baby Tigers and the infant Commodores. This game will undoubtedly settle the question of the championship of the South and we are looking to our Kittens to bring home the victory.

This is the first time that the University has recognized the custom of observing "Dad's Day" and it is the purpose of the promoters of the movement to make it a success and have the "dad" of every student who can possibly come to be present for the day and for the game. Many of the fraternities will entertain and they are planning to make it a one hundred per cent "Dad's Day."

W. D. Funkhouser, head of the department of Zoology, happened to a very painful accident Monday afternoon while practicing with the Rotary Club for the inter-club football game to be played Friday afternoon. An x-ray picture of the injury showed split cartilage and torn ligaments at the knee.

MEETING OF AMERICAN ENGINEER ASSOCIATION HELD HERE NOVEMBER 8

Great Aid Shown Toward Engineering Graduates in Obtaining Good Positions.

MEMBERSHIP OVER 20,000

Big Get-together Meeting Planned for Thursday Night, Nov. 23, Refreshments Served

The University of Kentucky Chapter of the American Association of Engineers held its initial meeting of the year on Wednesday, Nov. 8.

The following officers were elected for the year 1922-23: H. L. Royden '23, president; R. E. Clark, '24, vice-president; M. Alperin '23, secretary. C. S. Tucker, '25, was appointed by the president to be chairman of the refreshment committee. The other necessary committees will be named later.

The attention of the new men in the College of Engineering is called particularly to the following explanation of what the A. A. E. really represents and stands for: The American Association of Engineers is an all-inclusive non-technical engineering society. Its membership to date is well over the 20,000 mark. The reason for its rapid growth is because it stands for everything that will benefit engineers. At the present time the society has chapters in every state in the Union, Alaska and Honolulu. A. A. E. stands for higher ideals in engineering, creates opportunities for the individual, and makes engineers professional men.

Membership in the A. A. E. insures an engineer a position at any time. The employment bureau is placing on the average 300 men a month in well-paying positions. An outstanding feature of the society is the fact that it is inducing engineers to enter public life. It advocates engineers for public office and gains universal recognition of the valuable services an engineer can render in public affairs.

It is planned by the officers to have a big get-together meeting for engineers on Thursday night, Nov. 23. Refreshments will be served, a good program is assured and all engineering students are invited to attend and partake of the hospitality of the A. A. E. Further notice of this event will be given later.

CALENDAR

Lexington, Nov. 24—Supper at 6 p. m., Phoenix Hotel, joint meeting with Transylvania alumni.

Somerset, Dec. 1—Organization meeting, dinner, 6 p. m.

New York, Dec. 8—Dinner at 6:30 p. m., Harvard Club.

The successful work of boosters of the freshman football team is significant. Alumni who are very busy, gave, in most instances, all their time for ten days to insure in the Freshman game with Centre the results they wanted. They got them.

About $3,500 was raised for an athletic clubhouse. It is doubtful whether this sum represents more than the combined value of the services given by the alumni but the result is more than that. Former students, friends and friendly enemies came thus to have a new interest in the University and a greater respect for it. This interest is limited by no means to athletics. There is admiration for the demonstrated supremacy of the Blue and White but there is a greater allegiance to the spirit which made possible the victory in the face of discouraging odds.

The Lexington alumni committee in charge of this campaign won a great moral victory. To the group and each individual we doff the hat. Kentucky stands foremost. With such backing she will never falter.

TRAVEL TO SEE

Blue and White Followers Show up in Great Numbers at Nashville

The presence of a large band of alumni in Nashville last Saturday when the Wildcat put up such a notable fight against the Commodore won enthusiastic comments from the coaches of the team. In this number there were many new "associate members" of the Alumni Association, parents of students and former students. Many of these loyal supporters dropped business and traveled from 100 to 300 miles to be there.

The Home Coming game in Lexington brought former students from distances twice as great. Those who came went away with a greater loyalty to the Alma Mater and to her activities.

In the last week the secretary has received numerous letters, telegrams and telephone messages, enthusiastic ones, from individuals and organizations that once were luke warm at best. Ask yourself the reason why.

o-o-o

The prompt delivery of the Kernel has caused the Alumni Office considerable concern. With each issue several blank forms have been sent to isolated subscribers for a report by which to check this delivery. Such co-operation will make possible a placing of responsibility for delay. When positive evidence of unnecessary delay is obtained it will be taken up with local postal authorities and followed up until these papers reach the alumni subscribers on time.

STUDY COACHING PROGRAM Alumni Praise Juneau; System is Being Developed.

Immediately after the close of the football season the Athletic Council will take action on the employment of a coach for next year. The three-year contract of Mr. Juneau expires with this season. His work during the entire period has not been satisfactory, but this season results have met with the approval of the alumni, faculty and students alike.

Experiences of the last three years have demonstrated the fact that the material that shows up on Stoll Field in September is too much for one coach or for two. A definite system is being worked out. The employment of Assistant Coach Winn is a departure. It is due to the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association and through it to all the alumni thus represented. Alumni contributions are providing funds. Not all of the money has been received yet, however.

One of Kentucky's greatest needs is suitable training for athletes in high schools and prep schools of the State. A great number of young alumni who have played on Blue and White teams and have studied coaching are being added to the staff of the secondary schools. The development and continuance of this plan is one of the problems confronting the Alumni Executive Committee.

WEAVER HAS BOBBY

Plans are Studied for Patterson College of Diplomacy

Mr. Rufus L. Weaver, '95, of New York city, has evinced much interest in the provisions of President Patterson's will providing for the establishment of a College to train men for diplomatic and consular service. He went to the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching and had a talk with the secretary on the subject of the need and probable patronage of such a course. He then began correspondence and had an interview with Dr. Glen L. Swiggett, specialist in commercial education of the Federal Bureau of Education, the best posted man in the country on the subject.

Some bulletins and other pamphlets written by Dr. Swiggett have been obtained by Mr. Weaver and will be placed in the University library.

SEE TENNESSEE GAME

Alumni Parties Will Go to Knoxville Thanksgiving Day.

A Kentucky section of 200 seats has been reserved by the University of Tennessee Athletic Council for the Wildcat-Volunteer game on Thanksgiving Day.

Parties for this trip are being organized throughout southern and southeastern Kentucky. The usual delegation will go from Lexington. The Tennessee team has been making considerable improvement in the last four years and this season has one of the strongest elevens in the South. Their showing against Vanderbilt earlier in the season was much like the great fight put up by the Wildcats in Nashville last week.

Alumni may write for reservations in care of Professor N. W. Daugherty, chairman of the Athletic Council, University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Information regarding the price of seats has been requested by the Alumni Secretary and will be published as soon as available.

ONLY WOMAN S. A. E. MEMBER DIES AT THE AGE OF EIGHTY

Members of Kentucky Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity went to Frankfort Thursday to attend the funeral of Miss Lucy Pattie, an employee of the State Department of Education, that afternoon.

The trip was actually a pilgrimage for the active members of the fraternity to pay their last respects to this splendid woman who, for 12 years, had been connected with the office of the State Superintendent of Instruction, and at the time of her death was eighty years old. Miss Pattie enjoyed the high distinction of being the only woman member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, that honor having been bestowed upon her because of the fact that she kept in a high state of preservation the records of the Fraternity throughout the period of the Civil War.

Her death Monday night resulted from a stroke of apoplexy after an illness of six weeks.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY

Every Student is Urged to Become A Member

The Y. M. C. A. membership campaign started last Tuesday. About 36 of the leading students of the University met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms for the working out of the plans to enlist the student in the only Christian organization of the men on the campus.

Every student is eligible to become a member and the "Y" wants you. You can get something for yourself, and you can be of service to others through this organization. There are no membership dues as the University of Kentucky Association is one on the service basis. If the student subscribes to the following purposes of the "Student Y," he can be an active voting member:

1. To lead men into and develop them in the Christian life.
2. To co-operate with the Christian Church and train men for service in it.
3. To promote a program of unselfish service.
4. To unite the students of this University in promoting the highest good of the University and the individuals who compose it.
5. To unite the Christian students of this University with the worldwide student Christian brotherhood.

JUDGE LAFFERTY

The passing of Judge William Thornton Lafferty, dean of the College of Law, of the University of Kentucky, whose death occurred almost within the hour that the Kernel went to press with its last week's issue, caused widespread regret and a sense of personal loss to faculty and students alike.

Entering the University of Kentucky faculty in 1908 after a term of years on its board of trustees, Judge Lafferty devoted the best years of his maturer life to development of this institution. These were years when it needed both friendly counsel and sagacious leadership; these he gave in unstinted measure. Among the emphatic results of his enthusiasm, the Kernel was reminded only yesterday by a former member of the board of trustees, that the establishment of Agriculture and Education buildings were owing almost entirely to Judge Lafferty's efforts, both in the board and in the Legislature.

Frail of stature, suffering grievously for many years, sometimes unable to attend classes, the eminent jurist nevertheless was faithful to his duty and nothing perturbed him more than when sickness prevented attendance upon classes. He loved young men and young women; he believed the welfare of the state, thence of the nation, rested in their keeping, and he brought to the divine task of their education full measure of mature ability and marked enthusiasm.

The Kernel seeks not to pay tribute at this moment, but it desires to testify to the esteem in which the students uniformly held the subject of these lines; to congratulate his comrades and his charges upon his leadership and to felicitate itself that it had his confidence and kindly counsel.

Youth approaches death always with awe. To it the last enemy is forever cruel; and yet in the finer sense the Kernel and its comrades can not but feel that when the end comes to friends who have met duty with courage and devotion; to whom indeed has been extended the lofty privilege of entering the night in the midst of service and panoplied for further fray, they are blessed indeed.

We are sure Judge Lafferty's influence will live, and enable those who come after him to carry on. Verily we believe that when he passed into the presence of his Creator, well might be repeated the beautiful words of the poet:

"Master I've filled my contract wrought in Thy lands,
Not by my sins wilt Thou judge me,

but by the work of my hands.
Master I've done Thy bidding, and the light is low in the west;
And the long, long shift is over. Master I've earned it!—Rest."

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Senate, University of Kentucky, on the Death of Dean W. T. Lafferty

Although Dean Lafferty's frail health was known to all members of the University community, his sudden passing came as a profound shock and filled our hearts with sorrow. For so long had he been our comrade in the work of building a University worthy of the name she bears; so unflinching have been his ambitions and his efforts and his loyalty, not only for the College of Law which he founded, but for the entire University of which he was a trustee before a professor; so near to our hearts had he made a place for himself by his friendliness, his high-mindedness, his freedom from rancor, his unselfishness, his devotion to whatever tasks fell upon him.

We grieve over his going, yet we are glad beyond expression for his life and his service. A good man, a true friend, a scholar, an inspiring teacher, a believer counselor to all his students, a staunch fighter for better civic conditions, he presented to us and to the world the fine combination of manhood and scholarship and citizenship. We feel deeply the loss that has come to us, his colleagues, and to the student body, and to the city and State.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to his family, and especially to the beloved wife, who has so ably and devotedly supported him in his work, and who has for many years enriched the University life and worked for its advancement. May divine comfort be hers in her bereavement.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, It has been the will of the Divine Creator to take from our midst our beloved Dean, W. T. Lafferty, we the students of the Law College, desire to pay this tribute of our appreciation, love and honor to his memory.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the students of the College of Law, desire to place on record our profound appreciation of his Christian character, his life-long service in the cause of legal education in Kentucky, his self-sacrificing devotion to the up-building of the College of Law, and his never-failing friendship and sympathy for the students under his direction.

Be it further resolved, That the State of Kentucky has lost an able jurist, the University of Kentucky a learned teacher and the students of the College of Law their best friend.

Be it further resolved, That copies tend to the members of his household our profound sympathy in this their hour of sorrow.

Be it further resolved, That copies of these resolutions be transmitted to the press of the city and state.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas the Omnipotent Father has removed from our midst our beloved brother, W. T. Lafferty, Phi Alpha Delta adopts these resolutions in his memory:

First: As students in the College of Law, we deplore the death of Judge Lafferty, feeling that in his passing the students have lost the leadership of a wise counsellor and firm friend. His christian character, scholarly leadership, and fatherly solicitude, will be greatly missed.

Second: As brother in Phi Alpha Delta we shall be deprived of one, whose influence has always been intimately fraternal and helpful.

Third: In common sorrow, we commend his family to the care of One, who has even been the solace of the bereaved.

The Foolish Ones

Of all girls, the least intelligent is the so-called "sensible" girl. As the natural occupation of women is their pursuit of men, so is their most penetrating ammunition a careful incognito of their intelligence in the guise of irresponsibility. Their most appealing pose is ever an attitude of pretty innocence. In shorter words, the most intelligent woman is the one who best conceals her intelligence.

This theory is by no means new, but it may be iterated with special force in a college dominated by female Roman Senators.

The Critic on the Hearth

"Produce me your best critic" says Shaw, "and I will criticize his head off." G. B. S. could do it, too, for he is a super-critic. Critics are as vulnerable to criticism as their subjects. They enjoy the advantage, however, of being able to point their differences with more acetic than any others of the artistic tribe. It is only when critics attack their fellows that we have an even battle.

Yet, the reviewer has more complaints from actors than any other source. The place of acting in drama is always provocative of disagreement in any discussion of aesthetic values. For one critic to state that acting is not an art is to have himself set upon by half his brethren. Acting is no more an art, of course, than criticism. Neither are creative; both exist on arts indispensably antecedent to them. Acting is a profession that requires the same temperamental make-up that is characteristic of artists. The exterior semblance confuses the pundits. Acting itself is but a trade that requires, generally, unusual skill. The skill consists in duplicating as nearly as possible the author's conception of the character. The greatest actor is the one who most nearly approaches the author's idea.

Criticism of acting is always secondary and usually negligible. Press reviewing is concerned with acting; criticism is concerned with the primary arts. Yet, let the writer neglect a mention of the numbers in a show in the process of analysis, and they have at his throat. Disparagement, even abuse, is permissible, but let him not ignore them in his relations with the clowns the critic is continually on the defensive. He is lucky to continue friends with any of them.

W. T. LAFFERTY, DEAN OF COLLEGE OF LAW, DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Attack of Lesion of the Brain Causes Death of Eminent Jurist.

TAUGHT FOURTEEN YEARS

Body Taken to Cynthiana For Burial in Battle Grove Cemetery

Judge William Thornton Lafferty, dean of the College of Law at the University of Kentucky for the past fourteen years, died at his home, 127 Woodland avenue, at 4:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon from lesion of the brain.

The death of this eminent jurist and instructor was the result of an attack which came Sunday afternoon and from which he suffered a partial loss of eyesight and slightly impaired speech. Judge Lafferty attended the Centre football game in company with his wife on Saturday, November 4, but before the game was over he complained of a feeling of nervousness and weakness and was forced to go home and retire immediately.

During his illness he was attended by his mother, Mrs. Andrew Ward, and by his wife, Mrs. Maud Ward Lafferty, his only daughter, Mrs. Helen Lafferty Nisbet, of Madisonville. Other relatives who came to be with him and who survive him are: his brothers, James Lafferty, of Illinois; John Lafferty, Illinois; and his sisters, Mrs. Harvey Martin, Louisville; Mrs. Frank McMurtry, Mrs. J. T. Chamberlain, and Mrs. Joseph E. Ewalt, all of Cynthiana.

Judge Lafferty was born in Cynthiana in 1856 and attended Cynthiana Academy and Smith Classical Institution in that city. He received his A. B. degree from State A. & M. College at Lexington and in 1918 received his Master's degree from the University of Kentucky. He was admitted to the bar in 1879 and was an attorney in Harrison county at the age of 27 from 1886 and from that date was county judge until 1894. He practiced law with the firm of Ward and Lafferty and was the senior member of the firm of Lafferty and King until 1908, when he was made dean of the College of Law. He was controller of the University until 1915. He was a very prominent member of the Kentucky bar association, a Mason and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Judge Lafferty served as trustee of both Transylvania and the University for a period of five years. He was a member of the National Educational Association and promoter of the Kentucky Law Journal. He was the first instructor to institute a mock court for the practice of would-be lawyers.

He was always a staunch advocate of anything that was for the good of the University and was a pioneer in the movement to remove saloons and gambling houses from the vicinity of the school. He was beloved by students and faculty particularly those with whom he was closely associated.

In a literary field Judge Lafferty also distinguished himself and is the author of some very fine books and treatises of a legal nature. He was a member of the American Association of University Professors. In the latest edition of Who's Who in America, there is a lengthy notice of the achievements of the late friend and instructor.

Funeral services were held from the Central Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock and the burial took place in the Battle Grove Cemetery at Cynthiana, the former home of the Judge. Active pallbearers were the deans of the other colleges, Dr. P. P. Boyd of the College of Arts and Sciences; Dr. T. P. Cooper, of the College of Agriculture, Judge Lyman Chalkey, Professors Harry Scarborough, George Roberts, W. E. Freeman and Glanville Terrill.

The honorary pall-bearers were the members of the Board of Trustees, Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University, Nathan Elliott, member of the Board of Curators of Transylvania, and Dr. T. B. McCartney.

Judge Lafferty's successor has not been chosen and Judge Chalkley is acting chairman of the faculty until the return of Dr. McVey, when the dean of the College of Law will be selected.

GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP

The popularity of the idea is shown by the classes held at Smith College in 1921 and 1922, each of which was attended by more than 100 girls. This was in spite of unusual conditions at Smith where only something with a fundamental appeal to the college girl could thus succeed. Similarly popular courses have been held at Vassar, Holyoke, Simmons and other colleges, and thirty colleges and schools in eleven states offer regular term Girl Scout training courses through the school year.

The Scout movement for girls 10 to 18 years of age is now nationally known. A rapid growth has brought its membership to 115,000 since its organization in 1912. The Association is non-sectarian and non-partisan; it seeks to teach girls community responsibility through group experience.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover is president of the Girl Scout movement, and Mrs. Warren Harding and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson honorary president and vice-president.

The quality of leadership is of central importance in the movement, as in other social work. The college woman offers the best type of leader because she brings youth and enthusiasm, as well as a background of experience and education which she can apply directly. Scouting gratifies in a wholesome fashion the desire, nearly universal now in college circles, for paying back to society some of the debt on account of privileges and benefits received.

DO YOU KNOW THAT HE WHO HESITATES IS LOST

Subscribe For Your Kentuckian at once or You Will Fail to Get One.

"Do you know that he who hesitates is lost?"

The red and yellow stickers which have appeared on the campus for the past week have proclaimed this until you know it by heart. But it's really true. He who hesitates about subscribing for an annual is surely lost and loses all chance of getting one.

The contest is now on and will continue until Saturday, November 25, and until that time an annual may be ordered for the price of $4.00 down or a deposit of $2.00 and the remaining $2.50 paid the 15th of February. However, after November 25, a subscription price will be $5.00. All students who wish to have a 1923 Kentuckian are asked by the staff to subscribe as soon as possible because of the change in printing rates it will be impossible to order more annuals than have been subscribed for as was the case last year.

You may order your annual from any member of the Su-Ky Circle, which is in charge officially of the sales. Any member of the Circle can give you information as to the persons on the campus who are selling annuals.

The annual "K" dance given for the benefit of the Kentuckian will be held this year on Saturday evening, December 2, in the Armory. The subscription price for the dance will be $1.50 and the tickets will be put on sale in the bookstore of the University November 27. The music for the dance will be furnished by the Blue and White Six, a University orchestra. All students are urged to come.

Any persons who are late getting in a junior or senior information card may turn it in yet at the Kentuckian office in the basement of the Education building. The closing date for these to be in will be Monday, November 20. Don't fail to turn yours in.

THIRTEENTH CHAIR GIVEN AT ADA MEADE THURSDAY

Will Be Repeated Friday Night For Benefit of Townspeople Who Wish to See It.

"The Thirteenth Chair," the magnificent success of the Stroller organization, was presented at the Ada Meade Theater Thursday night known as "Freshman night" and will be repeated Friday night.

The cast with only four new members, presented the play last Friday night at Cynthiana. Troy Perkins, a successor to Tom Brooks, handled the parts of Wales with marked skill, and J. H. Layman as Mr. Trent, showed great ability. The part of Sergeant Doolin will be taken this season by J. C. Warren, freshman football star, and that of Pollock is handled by William Tate. Mary Lyons, as Rosie LaGrange, is at her best this year and appeared with greater ability than previously shown.

Others in the cast are Frances Smith, Dan Morse, Eleanor Morse, William Finn, Mary Peterson, Ann Hickman, Nan Chenault, Kitty Conroy, Edgar Gans, Earl Heavrin and John Albright.

The stage setting and lighting cabinet is the work and property of the Stroller organization. Possessing these properties enables the Strollers to present "The Thirteenth Chair" in any theatre in the state independently of any property belonging to the theatre itself.

Y. M. & Y. W. NOTES

Mrs. Hazel Smith, Y. W. Secretary, sent out by the Presbyterian Church to the colleges of the South, spoke at the regular meeting of the association in Patterson Hall Sunday evening. According to Mrs. Smith, the greatest hindrance to religious work among college students is lack of time. In the mad rush of student activities on the campus, social life and studies, it is easy to save only the ragged edges of the day for prayer and God's business.

DOCTOR M'VEY RETURNS FROM WESTERN SURVEY

Served on Committee to Represent Oklahoma State Educational Institution

After three weeks' absence, which was spent in survey work in Oklahoma, Dr. Frank L. McVey has returned to assume his duties as president of the University.

The staff, of which Dr. McVey was a member, was appointed according to an enactment of the Oklahoma legislature of 1921, providing for the selection of a committee to conduct a survey of the 16 state educational institutions. Its purpose being the co-ordination and adjusting of the work of these institutions to the general educational plan of the state, the staff included in its personnel nine members of the National Bureau of Education, ten nationally recognized educational leaders from outside the state and six of the leading educators of Oklahoma.

Their work was of a nature that demanded the inspection of the plants and the educational systems of the various schools, and reports given at the end of the week at conferences where a general discussion of the findings was held.

An official report of the survey will be published in December and will be brought before the Oklahoma legislature with the hope that its recommendations be enacted as laws.

MEETING OF PATTERSON LITERARY SOCIETY HELD

First Program of Year Given in New Room in Administration Building.

The Patterson Literary Society met last Friday night in the society's new room in the Administration Building and held the first literary program of the year. Thomas Baird, president, addressed the society upon the subject of the plans for this semester. H. L. Johnson favored the audience with a reading and Arthur Hodges outlined the history and traditions of the Patterson in a brief summary.

The Patterson Literary Society was organized in 1889 at the suggestion of President Patterson and named in his honor. It is thus one of the oldest organizations on the campus and in past years has always been recognized as one of the most popular and useful.

Two annual events, traditional to the society, are the declamatory contest for the Crum medal, held the first semester, and the oratorical contest held on President Patterson's birthday, the twenty-sixth of March. The declamatory contest will be held soon and all members of the society are urged to compete for this honor. Freshmen are invited to attend the next meeting of the society and will be allowed to enter the contest.

SCORES IN FIRST HALF

Kentucky Comes Back in Last Half But Fails to Make Marker

Outplayed during the first half of the game, but coming back strong during the last two periods, the Wildcats held the Vanderbilt University eleven to a 9-0 tally, last Saturday, in the new Dudley Stadium, at Nashville. Going into the contest against a team that had held Michigan to a 0-0 tie and defeated Texas 20-10, and Tennessee 14-6, the Cats after a bad start, started an offensive drive that was only stopped by all the efforts Vandy could put out.

The outstanding stars for the Cats were Sanders and Brewer. "Sandy" was the main cog in the Wildcat defense until he was forced to leave the contest at the end of the first half. He counted for the majority of the Kentucky gains during the first two periods. Ted Brewer, given his first real chance of the year showed that he is a star of the first magnitude when he ran through the Commodore team for repeated gains of five yards or more.

The luminaries for the Commodores were Reece at half, Kuhn at quarter, Neil at end, and Kelly at guard. The punting of Neil and the running of Reece and Meiers were in the main responsible for the Vandy victory.

Vandy Gets Field Goal.

The Vandy gridders showed a straight attack that was not to be denied and after Wakefield had booted the oval between the uprights for the first three epoints of the game, the Vandy backs started a march down the field for 79 yards and a touchdown. Wakefield missed the try for goal.

Kentucky's great opportunity came in the first period when Fuller's put bounced over Kuhn's head and he fumbled as he tried to scoop up the ball. After scrambling with Hollowell for the oval he recovered the ball. Had Hollowell gained the oval the result might have been different. The Cats carried the ball to the Vandy 30 yard line by a series of line plays in the same period and after three vain attempts to pierce the Commodore line Gregg attempted a 35-yard drop kick, missing the posts by a scant foot.

The Cats showed alertness in recovering fumbles and took advantage of all the Commodore's mistakes. During the third period the Vandy backs fumbled frequently and the Cats recovered each time. Then using Rice and Brewer mostly the Cats showed an improved offensive.

Twice during the contest the Vandy backs, when with in the Kentucky 25 yard marker, failed to gain the required 10 yards in four attempts, and the ball went over. Vandy held the Cats for downs only once.

The Game in Detail.

Pribble won the toss and elected to defend the south goal. Bomar kicked off to Gregg who returned 15 yards. Ferguson made two thru the line. Sanders made seven yards in two attempts at the Vandy forwards. Fuller punted twenty-five yards out of bounds on 50 yard marker. Kuhn lost four on an attempted end run. Meiers made eight, Kuhn seven in two line plunges. Meiers made two and Wakefield gained four yards for first down. Kuhn made one around left end. Meiers made five and Kuhn sneaked through center for six and first down. Wakefield made two. Vandy was off sides on the next play and was penalized five yards. Kuhn was downed by Colpitts for no gain. On a fake kick play Bomar made five around right end. Wakefield then dropped back to the 18 yard line and booted a perfect field goal. Bomar kicked off to Fuller who returned 22 yards. The Cats worked the ball to Vandy's 20 yard marker and after three unfruitful attempts to make the required yardage, Gregg attempted a 35 yard drop kick, but missed by about two feet. The ball remained in Kentucky's possession the greater part of the remainder of the period and the quarter ended with the ball in Vandy's possession on their own 21 yard line. Score, Vanderbilt 3, Kentucky 0.

Second Period

The second period was the Commodore's best quarter, the Orange and Black plunging their way to Kentucky's one yard line and then bucked it over. Kuhn, Meiers and Neely carried the ball to Kentucky's 35 yard line and were held for downs. Kentucky failed to gain and Fuller kicked 30 yards. Vanderbilt then started a march down the field and were held only momentarily by the Cat forwards on Kentucky's one yard marker. Meiers bucked over for a touchdown after three attempts had failed to gain an inch. Wakefield missed an attempted drop kick in the try for goal. Fuller kicked to Kuhn who returned 43 yards before he was tackled by Gregg, the only man between him and the goal. The half ended with the ball in Vanderbilt's possession. Score, Vanderbilt 9, Kentucky 0.

Third Period.

The Cats showed better form during the last half than in the first two periods, making seven first downs to Vandy's five. Sanders, Cat fullback, was injured in the head and removed from the game. Rice too his place and made gain after gain through the Commodore forward wall. Brewer went in at left half. Fuller kicked off to Kuhn who returned 12 yards. Meiers fumbled and Pribble recovered for Kentucky. Vandy offside five yard penalty and first down for Kentucky. After Brewer lost three yards on an end run, Fuller attempted a pass which was intercepted by Bomar. After gaining 29 yards in five plays the Commodores again fumbled. Colpitts recovering. The Cats failed to make their allotted 10 in four tries and the ball went over. The Cats slowly advanced down the field and the quarter ended with the ball in the Cats' hands on Vandy's 31 yard line. Score, Vanderbilt 9, Kentucky 0.

Fourth Period.

In the last period Gregg opened up a desperate passing game but was unable to complete but one forward, Fuller to Hollowell which netted the Cats 30 yards. Reece, speedy Vandy half, was sent into the game during this quarter and rarely failed to gain. One time after a 35 yard run he was clear of everyone and with an open field before him. Brewer made a superhuman attempt from the rear and succeeded only by a fraction in stopping his flight. When Gregg saw his passing game was not gaining he turned Brewer loose play after play and the Mayfield youth responded every time.

The contest was played before about 12,000 gridiron fans who well received their money's worth. The game was fast, with but few penalties and all of the punishments were for offside.

"SCRAPS"

By E. B. Moore.

The rumor current in local papers regarding the selection of Aubrey Devine, All-American quarter last year, as head coach of the University of Kentucky next year, is rather premature. The Athletic Council has made no definite steps toward the securing of a new coach and although several well known mentors have been under consideration, no final action has been taken.

The contract of the present coaching staff runs out this year and as usual, there is widespread rumors as to next year's selection. The Council is still considering the present system and it would not prove surprising to find no change next year. However, there is a possibility that there might be a change and should one occur, efforts will be made to secure a gridiron mentor of well known ability.

Speaking of the score of last Saturday's game, Hollowell says he doesn't know where Vandy got the score but at any rate they didn't get that 9 off his jersey.

DISPENSARY NOTES

The "common cold" is one of the most annoying and disabling of small ailments. It is often distressing and students might bear in mind further that it is the fore-runner many times of conditions more serious. Careful attention and prompt treatment in the beginning will prevent absenteeism and that "peevish" feeling. Now that "the melancholy days have come" students are urged to stop at the dispensary. By the way, and contrary to the idea of many, iodine externally, Epsom salts internally, and excuses eternally are not the only things for which the dispensary stands.

Typhoid vaccine is looked upon as one of the achievements of modern scientific medicine; its use is strongly urged, its danger amounts to nothing; the simple fear of a "sore arm" should not deter students in a state in which typhoid fever claims victims year by year. The protection afforded lasts from three and one-half to four years and consists of three injections at intervals of seven to fourteen days. In the Yanko-Spanish War the typhoid rate was 14 per cent; in the Great War it was 38 per cent. The vast difference cannot be explained merely by improved sanitation; typhoid vaccine deserves most of the credit.

Will the man who wants an excuse just because of a headache every carry "a message to Garcia;" will the man who wants an excuse from drill purely on the diagnosis of "bad weather outside" do more in this life than run a peanut stand in an office building lobby? What is needed sometimes is the spirit of the Kentucky team. A man was "knocked out" recently—could not be roused for a minute or two. His first words on being helped up were, "Let's go, Gang." That is the spirit we want—that is the average desired of all. Your excuse will be granted for genuine illness or injury—as for minor things, think it over.

Resident Physician.

Extension courses in History and Political Science, in Paris, begun in the fall of 1921, are continuing this year. The History of the United States, conducted by Doctor Tuthill, has proven especially interesting to a class of teachers and citizens.

The Department of History and Political Science has undertaken, at the request of the State League of Women Voters, the preparation of a pamphlet on the nomination and election laws of Kentucky, for the guidance of new voters.

A previous pamphlet on "Citizenship" was in large demand, and the edition was quickly exhausted. The subject of elections is to be treated in a simple, non-technical manner, following the laws and court decisions.

Professor McHenry Rhoads delivered the principal address at the laying of the cornerstone of the new $300,000 High School at Owensboro, Wednesday, November 8.

Dr. John L. Patterson, president of the University of Louisville, will make an address in chapel Tuesday. His subject will be "Background/ Sources of the English Bible."

An inter-departmental society to be known as the William James Club has been organized by the departments of Education, Philosophy, Psychology and Vocational Teacher Training. The first meeting will be held Monday afternoon, November 20, at 3:45 in the psychological laboratory, room 206, Neville Hall. Professor Glanville Terrell will discuss "The Mind in the Making," the recent book by Prof. James Harvey Robinson of the New School for Social Research.

Dr. Terrill has been made chairman of the club and Professor L. J. Sindell secretary. It is the intention to meet on the third Monday of each month.
