— Backing the Wildcats —

GOVERNOR-ELECT BERT COMBS, graduate of the University of Kentucky and long-time supporter of education in the Commonwealth, is well acquainted with athletics on all levels. He received education at Clay County High and Cumberland College before finishing up at UK with a law degree in 1937. He served four and one-half years on the Kentucky Court of Appeals and has been a practicing attorney for more than 20 years.

PRESIDENT FRANK DICKEY, who became the University of Kentucky's seventh chief executive in 1956, is an outstanding educator and avid follower of UK sports. With an interest dating back to days as a director of intramurals for a junior high school, Dr. Dickey strongly favors the continuance of University athletics on their present high level and in balance with the institution's academic program.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BERNIE SHIVELY, a former All-America footballer at Illinois, is the guiding hand behind the development of UK as a nationally-respected power in the field of inter-collegiate athletics. Serving in a variety of posts at the University since 1927, including terms as coach of football, track and baseball, "Shive" has been Director of Athletics since 1938.

ADOLPH RUPP

'Coach of the Year'

For nearly three decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of meager raw material by a colorful figure in the Bluegrass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

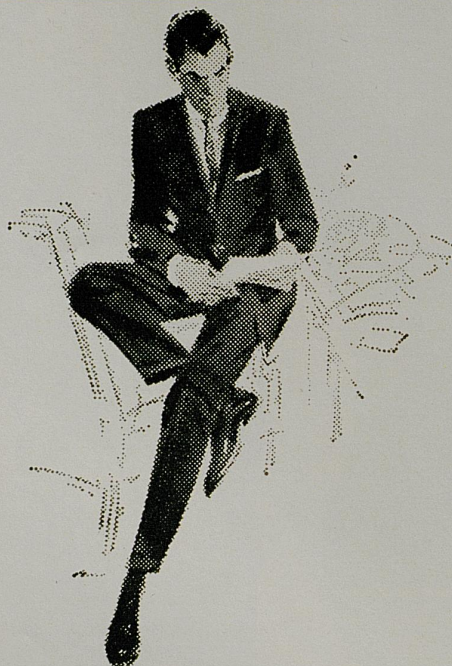

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 29 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 608 victories out of 714 starts for an unparalleled winning percentage of better than 85 percent against major competition.
- Selection as the national "Coach of the Year" in 1959 for the second time in his career as he guided an inexperienced group of sophomores to a 24-3 record. The honor was bestowed by United Press International and the Knute Rockne Clubs of America.
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats who hold the all-time record of 11 appearances in the national classic and can claim more victories in NCAA play (21) than any other team.
- A nominal world's championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the 1948 Olympic Games which included members of Kentucky's NCAA champions.
- A total of 19 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive cage Hall of Fame.
- Election to the Kentucky Hall of Fame (1945), outstanding citizen of Lexington (1949) and twice honorary citizen of the City of New Orleans.
- Development of more All-Americans (21) and more material for the pro ranks (17) than any other coach.
- Four Sugar Bowl Tournament championships, a National Invitation Tournament title and four trophies from the first six UK Invitational Tournaments.

Seventh Annual UK INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Four national basketball powers, all of whom ranked among the top dozen teams in the country last season with a combined won-lost record of 93-19, will be participants in the seventh annual University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament December 18-19. In addition to the host Wildcats, the defending UKIT champion who finished with a 24-3 mark and second place national ranking, the 1959 tourney will include NCAA runner-up West Virginia (29-5), North Carolina (20-5) and St. Louis (20-6).

Pairings made by UK Athletic Director and Tournament Manager Bernie Shively have slotted Kentucky and the team they whipped for the title last December, West Virginia, in opposite brackets. A classic rematch of the two powers may be in the offing, but the high calibre of the tournament is reflected by the fact that all four participants are being touted for high national honors again this season and any one appears capable of winning. As Shively proudly puts it: "I believe this 1959 UKIT field to be the strongest ever assembled for a tournament in advance of the NCAA finals."

Outstanding fields are nothing new to the UK Invitational, however. In the short space of six years, University of Kentucky—a school already internationally respected in basketball circles—has captured the imagination of the cage world with its holiday cage festival that returns big-time basketball to the campus.

Increasingly-important national prestige has become attached to the UKIT as reflected by the fact that in the past two years the winner has valuted to the top position in the wire service polls.

Furthermore, the UK Invitational ranks far ahead of all other tournaments as the most lucrative in the history of the game. According to UKIT policy, all participating teams share equally in the net proceeds and the payoff each year has been of national-record size. Last year, each of the four teams picked up checks for $13,817.35—exceeding by better than $2,000 the previous high dividend paid in 1957.

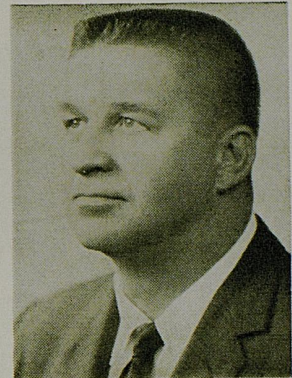

Kentucky's amazing "Fledgling Five" walked off with a fourth UKIT title for Coach Adolph Rupp last December by rolling to a surprise conquest (97-91) of highly-favored West Virginia, who later was to lose the NCAA championship by a single point. Oklahoma State outlasted Ohio State to capture third place. The feat of the Ruppmen was made all the more amazing by virtue of the fact that they measured Ohio State on the first night without the services of two starters—forward Bill Lickert and center Don Mills—and beat the Mountaineers with Lickert still in the hospital.

Previous participants in the UKIT have included La Salle, Utah, Dayton (two appearances each), Minnesota, Illinois, UCLA, Southern California, Duke and Southern Methodist.

The outlook for the 1959 renewal promises no letdown in the calibre of basketball seen since the tournament was organized. All four clubs should rank high in the national cage picture.

Pre-season selections have pinpointed the host Wildcats and the North Carolina Tar Heels, who meet in the nightcap of the opening tournament session, plus the sharpshooting Mountaineers of West Virginia as teams to watch particularly this season. All three rank in the top five nationally in advance estimates. St. Louis, always a good basketball team, is rated as a darkhorse outfit.

HARRY C. LANCASTER
Assistant Coach

When Harry Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a respected position in the basketball world.

An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he was equally successful—with three All-Conference nominations and two team captaincies to his credit—but considered himself a better football player than cager. Experience, however, proved him a good student and teacher of the sport of basketball as he began his coaching career.

Lancaster bosses a promising group of yearling cagers and holds down the position of assistant varsity basketball coach and general right hand man to Adolph Rupp. He was made a full-time assistant by Coach Rupp in 1948. Born in Paris, Ky., Lancaster attended Paris High School, participating for four years in all sports. The UK freshmen, under his guidance, have lost only 13 contests during the past ten seasons. His overall record stands at 91 wins, 13 losses.

Meet A Wildcat —

BILL LICKERT—Junior—Forward-Guard

Lexington, Ky.

Probably the best way to sum up this 6-3 "Jack of All Trades" is to use the reserved words of praise of one nationally-known sports editor: "Lickert is a young man in the preparation for greatness." That's the least you can say about this hometown product whom a lot of people feel already has attained a degree of greatness.

He was great enough last season to be accorded "Sophomore of the Year" honor in the Southeastern Conference and picked on the All-Conference team.

The experts feel Lickert is one of those rare "natural" ball players. He does everything on the court well and with natural ease. Not the least of his cage attributes is that he is an exponent of the lost art of defense. Bill usually is assigned to the opponent high scorer and generally turns in an outstanding job on him. He was cited particularly last season for his work in shackling Notre Dame's All-America Tom Hawkins (who could manage only 13 points while Lickert was picking up 24 himself and collecting 17 rebounds) and Auburn's 6-5 All-SEC ace Rex Frederick (limited to five points).

Used at both guard and forward last season for a total action time of 881:52 in 25 games (he missed the UKIT with a virus infection). Started all but one game, playing 10 full games.
