TRAINING AT UK

The winter catalog of training opportunities for UK employees is now available. Courses include time management; setting goals and objectives; interviewing, selecting and hiring new employees; conducting effective meetings; speed reading and comprehension; human relations in the workplace; and decision making and problem solving. Enrollment for each workshop is limited to 25 participants. Approval of, or nomination by the employee's department head is required prior to enrollment. All training programs sponsored by the University of Kentucky Personnel Division/Human Resource Development Department, are offered free of charge to University employees. These programs are designed to provide opportunities for employees to experience on-the-job growth and development, and to increase productivity and job satisfaction. The catalog should be available in each department. If additional copies are needed please call 7-1851.

SEMINAR ON THIRD WORLD DEVELOPMENT

February 8 - Joe Willet, Department of Agricultural Economics, "Feast or Famine: Food in the Developing Countries." Comments by Wayne Davis, T.H. Morgan School of Biological Sciences, and Sharon Webster, Occidental Petroleum.

February 15 - John Hunter, Departments of Geography and Community Medicine, Michigan State University, "Traditional and Modern Medicine in Less Developed Countries." Comments by Kathleen DeWalt, Department of Behavioral Science, and H. Thomas Wiegert, Chairperson, Department of Family Practice. All sessions are in room 115, College of Nursing and Health Sciences Building from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The Staff Development Committee will sponsor a program on developments in communications and how they will affect libraries. The program will be held on Tuesday, February 16, from 2:00-3:00 p.m. in the Gallery in King North. The speaker will be Mr. Bahman Maghadam, General Telephone's planning director for an eight-state area. The future of telecommunications is a fascinating topic, and the expected impact of the changes on libraries should be interesting to us all. Please make a note on your calendar to attend.

BOOKSTORE DISCOUNT

I said at the faculty meeting on 29 January that Kennedy's gives a 20% discount to full-time faculty. Well, I was misinformed -- it's only 10%, just like University Bookstore's -- but maybe you'll get the same clerk I did.
