PREFACE

The Historical Records Survey of Tennessee, in the course of its inventories of manuscripts, early American imprints, and county, municipal, and church archives, and through its survey of public libraries in cooperation with the Tennessee Library Association, has as a by-product, prepared what we believe is the most nearly complete and recent listing of public and institutional libraries in this state. The absence of a similar listing and the belief that such a directory would be of value to librarians throughout the state have resulted in the decision to issue for general distribution a directory of public libraries, those of higher institutions of learning, and of high and other secondary schools, showing the name of the library or institution, its location, and the name or title of the librarian or other person in charge.

This directory is divided into two sections, one a listing of public and higher institutional libraries, the other a listing of high and other secondary school libraries. The arrangement of each listing is by counties and alphabetically thereunder by name of the library or institution. Except in the few instances where otherwise noted, the person listed as librarian may be so addressed. The abbreviation "HS" means "High School."

We do not assume, of course, that this listing is complete and free of error. It is the nature of a directory to defy completion. Much of this directory was compiled in the winter of 1939, and many changes, particularly in the matter of librarians, have no doubt occurred since that time; we shall feel that one objective in publishing this listing has been achieved if it elicits corrections and further information.

Drawn on in the compilation of this directory were the listings previously issued by the Library of Congress, the Tennessee Library Association, and the State Department of Education, supplemented by the Survey's own mailing list.

For their cooperation, we are indebted to Miss Martha Parks, director of the library division of the State Department of Education; Mrs. Garth W. Benepe, former secretary-treasurer of the Tennessee Library Association; and Dr. A. F. Kuhlman, librarian of the Joint University Libraries, of Nashville. This directory was prepared for publication under the supervision of Robert Cassell, assistant project supervisor.

Corrections and additions to the listing are solicited and should be addressed to the State Director, 305 Davidson County Courthouse, Nashville.
