1981 New Year 5742

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

L' Shana Tova. As we all look forward to a happy, prosperous and healthy New Year, CKJA reflects with pride upon a year of community service and real accomplishment. For the first time our organization has a centrally located, professionally staffed office from which we can coordinate our many programs. We are especially fortunate to have as our first community worker, Judy Saxe, a person who has long demonstrated her commitment to fulfilling the ideals of our Jewish heritage. In addition, at our last meeting the CKJA Board of Directors voted to become a member of the Council of Jewish Federations. We hope that our affiliation with this group of Jewish community organizations across the United States will provide us with the resources to broaden the scope of our programming and to enhance the quality of the services we already offer.

We were especially happy to negotiate a contract with the Louisville Hebrew Home, Four Courts. Five beds have been reserved for our older citizens who require residential care within a traditional Jewish setting. The Forum series, Camp Shalom, our annual Israel Independence Day Celebration, the Israeli dance group, and the Jewish Fellowship Bowling League continue to thrive, attracting the participation of large and varied segments of the Jewish community. This past year CKJA sponsored a second Russian family, the Rozmans. Again you opened your hearts to welcome them and to make them feel that our home is their home. All of these programs depend upon your contributions to the CKJA Annual campaign. This year you have chosen to show your support by increasing your contributions, which support programs in Israel, in Central Kentucky, across the United States and throughout the world, to record levels.

It is not enough, however, to congratulate ourselves for past accomplishments. Too many of us allow our neighbors to write that important letter to our Congressional representatives, to make that contribution to the Annual Campaign, to participate in the planning and hard work that bring our programs to fruition. Creating an active, viable Jewish life is the responsibility of each of us. Our survival as a people is too crucial to leave to someone else. We need to work together during this New Year to make our community a better place for us to live as Jews.

UJA Mission

The wellspring of Judaism. The heart of our heritage. We go to visit and find we've come home.

Make an adventure of self-discovery and join the United Jewish Appeal Leadership Mission led by Mickey and Gerald Baron of Louisville, November 29 - December 9.

On this UJA Mission, you will be joined by other concerned Jews from Kentucky and all over America and, in the spirit and challenge of Israel, you will be touched by the pride and the promise that bind all Jews one to another.

You will walk the land and come to know the people.

You will visit absorption centers, kibbutzim, universities, factories, private homes.

You will talk with Jewish Agency and government officials, farmers and students, heroes and housewives, elderly Jews and young pioneers.

You will see how UJA funds are used by the Jewish Agency and the JDC and find confirmation of your vital role as a partner in one of history's greatest human endeavors.

You will encounter a unique people creating history. And in that encounter, you will discover yourself.

For additional details concerning this trip, call CKJA Israel Missions Chairman, Bob Baumann, 233-1299; or the CKJA office 277-8048.

Community Relations News

The Community Relations Committee has sent a letter to all principals and teachers in the Fayette, Franklin and Madison county public schools informing them when the Jewish Holidays occur this year. Enclosed with the letter was a copy of the holiday calendar which is in this bulletin. If any member of the Central Kentucky Jewish Community lives in another county, please let the Committee know and information will be sent to that county. A similar letter and a calendar was also sent to all of the major organizations in Lexington.

The Committee has available a number of copies of the Anti-Defamation League's publication The Record. This 15 page magazine addresses the topic of Jerusalem, an Undivided City. It is a highly polished and extremely informative production. The Committee will be distributing copies of this to all school and public libraries. If you have places to which you would like to see it distributed, please call either Marilyn Moosnick (277-3040) or David Wekstein (269-4454).

Israeli Folk Dance Group Enters
Third Year

Come have fun, exercise, and most of all enjoy our heritage through dance.

Intermediate Israeli Folk Dancing meets every week at Temple Adath Israel, Wednesday evenings, 8-9p.m.

This is the third year the group has been in existence. It has given crowd pleasing performances for CKJA Israel Independence Day Celebrations as well as other Jewish groups.

The group looks forward to increased participation enabling it to continue its' present activities and expand. A beginners class will also be started if enough people are interested. Call Karen Edelstein, 266-5465, if you have any questions, or else "come on down!"

Have We Got a Deal for YOU! !!

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! C.K.J.A.'s Scholarship Committee has funds available for young people who are interested in participating in an educational program in Israel or who need financial assistance in order to attend a non-profit Jewish summer camp. It's not too early to begin planning for next summer and for next fall.

Israeli Scholarships are available to young Lexingtonians who have been accepted into a study or a work/study program in Israel. Other eligibility criteria are that the student will be returning to this community for at least six months after his or her Israeli experience and will participate in local Jewish youth activities during that time. These scholarships, available in amounts of up to $500.00, are awarded on the basis of personal written applications which detail past participation in the community and plans for using the Israeli experience to the future benefit of this community.

Camperships, in amounts not to exceed one half the total amount needed for camp fees and transportation, are awarded on the basis of need. Any information submitted on the application form is held in confidence by the members of the Scholarship Committee.

In order to obtain additional information, or an application form, call or write Evelyn Geller: 3493 Sutherland Drive, Lexington, Kentucky 40502, 272-8972.

Many young people in our community have benefitted from these scholarships. We hope many more will take advantage of this offer, this year and in the future.

Saudi AWACS deal

As you are well aware by now the Reagan Administration has submitted to the Congress a proposal to sell sophisticated military equipment, including AWACS to Saudi Arabia. A number of people in the community have sent letters to Congressman Hopkins and Senators Ford and Huddleston urging them to vote against the sale of this material. For your information, both Senator Ford and Huddleston signed the Packwood/Jackson letter which urged the Administration not to sell these armaments to the Saudis. Congressman Hopkins has not taken a public position to date. Please write your Senators and Congressman and let them know your thoughts on this matter. For your information, just about every national Jewish organization has gone on record as being against the sale.
