GENESIS 1-11
In the Beginning God Created the Heavens and the Earth

And the earth was without form and void.
And darkness was upon the face of the deep.
And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
And God said, Let there be light, and there was light:
And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night.
And the evening and the morning were the first day.
And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.
And let them have dominion over all the earth.
And God said, Behold I have given you every herb bearing seed, and every tree, in which is the fruit of the tree yielding seed, to you it shall be for meat: Also every beast and fowl and creeping thing upon the earth wherein is life.
And God saw everything he had made, and it was very good.

And the Lord God said:
It is not good that the man should be alone:
I will make him a help-meet for him.
And from a rib in Adam's side, the woman was formed, who, by the name of Eve, is known as the mother of the human race.
