

We beg you pardon that we left Harrodsburg without telling you to say by but the weather was dead and no time was to spare for the train, we reached Shelbyville all right. Let us express you and Mrs Abby our most sincere gratitude for all the kindness with which you assisted us during our stay in Harrodsburg. It is our earnest hope that you will pray us a visit at the first opportunity and give us occasion to reciprocate.

We are sorry that the two photo plates of your residence did not give satisfaction they did not turn down right and the view was spoiled. The other plates are
