

1870.
September 23rd

At this the first meeting, there were present Pres. J. N. Catterson (in the chair) Prof. Belash, Herron, Shackelford, Maj. Tibbitts, and Adj. Prof. White.

Mr. H. S. Barker wished to procure the room, which he occupied last session. His case was left to the Pres. and Maj. Tibbitts for decision.

Mr. J. M. Carter applied for a discharge from the A. & M. College; but not having the written request of his guardian to that effect, his request was not granted. The Pres. was authorized to grant the discharge when the written request is presented to him.

Mr. H. Mays applied for a discharge from the A. & M. College, but having no written application of his guardian, a discharge ^{granted} was not granted. Lucy C. R. was reported by Mr. Smith for absenting himself from classes. He was required to attend to his duties promptly.

Roe H. M. applied for a discharge. Being of age his request was granted.

Dorsey H. applied for a discharge; but having no written authority from his guardian, a discharge was not granted.

Shaw E., Fisher J. A., and Norment H. J. applied for permission to move to town as the room which they occupy is not comfortable. Their request was refused and a request was sent to Regent Bowman that he would have all of the rooms on the grounds made comfortable for winter quarters.

Denton R. C. was summoned by Maj. Tibbitts.

He was charged with "Haylaying, attacking and beating his superior officer, the Sergeant of the Guard in the Woodlands 8 & 10 P. M."

Messrs Denton and Ryan were examined in regard to the matter. The hour for Faculty meeting having expired, the meeting adjourned till 9. A. M. on next day (Saturday Sept. 24th).

J. G. White Sec. pro tempore.
