Johnson, Chism and Fielder to Affirm the Subject of Immigration

MIKESELL IS COACH

Large Number of Students and Friends Expected

Kentucky will debate the University of Cincinnati in chapel Friday evening, March 18, at 8:00 o'clock. The debate is on the immigration question which is uppermost in the minds of many American statesmen today.

Kentucky, represented by R. T. Johnson, William Chism and L. C. Fielder, will uphold the affirmative side of the question. Prof. W. H. Mike-sell is coach of the Kentucky team. Cincinnati will be represented by J. W. Dalsell, H. E. Metzger and H. G. Gardner. Doctor McVey will preside at the debate. The judges are: Superintendent J. H. Risley, president of the K. E. A., Dr. B. J. Bush, Second Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Frank Duncan.

This promises to be a lively and interesting debate and students are urged to attend. The University orchestra will furnish the music.

Doctor McVey Addresses Members of Kentucky Chapter on Professional Duties

P. M. Perkinson, civil engineer, and president of the student chapter of the American Association of Engineers, was selected to represent Kentucky at the national convention of the organization at Buffalo. The election took place Thursday evening at Dicker Hall. Perkinson is prominent in his department and in the University, having not only organized the A. A. E., but also the Triangle Engineering Fraternity.

Doctor McVey addressed the meeting on the duty of the engineering profession in the present world problems of reconstruction. His speech was followed by refreshments and a smoker. About sixty members were present.

"Try it again," testily.

In strained silences all the cast stop whispering to listen and stare critically. The erring Stroller speaks the line, the phrase or the word, again and again, until the stage manager is satisfied. No nerve-racking tedium of repetition is spared and anything but the strict business of rehearsals is frowned upon for the play comes first, even before the attractions of a basketball tournament or a performance of "Irene." For a month "Crichton" is king.

THE PLAY—I am forced into "caps" by my enthusiasm—is already good, although a Stroller will groan invariably "Oh, its rotten." Interpret if you are he, this despair as real art realizing its limitations, expressing a noble humility. "The Admirable Crichton," the 1921 offering of the organization, will surpass easily all past Stroller plays. Though the high merit of Stroller plays has long been recognized; each year the critics com-

CINCINNATI GIRLS DEFEAT KENTUCKY QUINTET, 16 to 6

Kentucky Schedule Ended in Game Thursday Night in Cincinnati

The Kittens ended their 1921 basketball season in Cincinnati, Thursday night, with a defeat at the hands of the University of Cincinnati quintet, despite a game fight on the part of the Kentuckians, the score being 16 to 6.

Cincinnati gained an early lead and the Kentucky girls were never able to overhaul them. Composing the Kentucky team were Young and Cromwell, forwards; Porter and Jameson, centers; Henry and Morris, guards; Booth and Black, substitutes.

FRENCH PROFESSOR ENTERTAINS ROMANCE LANGUAGE CLUB

The Romance Language Club was entertained with a most delightful program, Monday evening, in the Little Theatre, when Prof. Hubert de Waeganaere, Lexington, sang a number of French folk-songs. His program was composed of charming selections, varying from the pathos expressed in French lyrics to the light, airy songs which were equally as beautiful. Professor de Waeganaere was ably accompanied at the piano by Mary Elizabeth Lyons, and the program proved to be one of the most interesting of the year. The rendition of "Au 'Ir de la Lune" was exceptionally fine.

MANUAL TRAINING HIGH SCHOOL QUINTET WINS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Louisville Boys Take Finals From Strong Union Academy Team, 32 to 12

MONTICELLO IS GOOD

First and Second Championship Cups Awarded

Manual Training High School of Louisville, won the Kentucky High School basketball tournament, Saturday afternoon, by defeating Union College Academy, of Barbourville, 32 to 12. Manual virtually won the honors when she defeated the strong Monticello team, 21 to 19, Saturday at 9:00 o'clock.

In the finals, Union fought hard in the first half, it ending 12 to 11 in Manual's favor, but in the second half was completely unable to penetrate Manual's five man defense and was forced to resort to long shots which were hurried and inaccurate. Manual played a fast and aggressive game throughout and deserved to win. Baer, at forward and Glugiano, at guard, starred for the Crimsons and Dunbar, forward, played best for Union.

The semi-finals were played Saturday morning at 9:00 and 10:00 o'clock. In the first game Manual won over Monticello, a strong favorite at the start, 21 to 19, in a hard fought and exciting game. In the 10:00 o'clock game Union smothered Pikesville to the tune of 43 to 12. The odd game of the series was played at 9:00 o'clock Friday night, Monticello triumphing

CHI BEATS KAPPA IN FIRST SORORITY GAME

University "Lodges" Stage Desperate Struggle, Ending With 12 to 11 Score.

In one of the hardest fought and most exciting girls' basket ball games ever staged on the local court, the Chi Omega quintet defeated the Kappa Kappa Gamma five, Wednesday night, by the score of 12 to 11. The game was close throughout and the outcome was in doubt until the final moment of play.

The Chi Omega team had a lead of several points all during the game until the last few moments of play when the Kappa's obtained a lead of one point, only to be overcome by a most sensational goal caged by a Chi Omega, and the game was over. Margaret Smith and Lucy Kavanaugh carried off the honors for the victors, who were also the challengers, and Henrietta Rogers played the stellar role for the Kappa quintette.

Last night the Alpha Xi Delta and Alpha Gamma Delta teams locked horns in the second game of the inter-sorority series. The winner of this contest will be matched with the winner of the Kappa Delta-Chi Omega game, which is to take place within the week.

The line-up:

KENTUCKY HEADS ALL COLLEGES IN MEET AT LOUISVILLE ARMORY

University Track Team Nosed Out of First Place By Cincy "Y," 17 to 16

HELD SATURDAY NIGHT

Wildcats Meet Loomis, of Chicago, Louzle, Princeton

The University of Kentucky track team finished second in the annual Carnival of Athletics held under the auspices of the Louisville Amateur Athletic Federation at the Louisville Armory last Saturday night. The Wildcats were nosed out of first place by the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. team which scored 17 points to Kentucky's 16. Centre College finished third with a score of 13 points.

The showing of the Kentucky team was excellent, considering that this was the first meet of the year and that some of the best athletes in the country were entered in the meet. Kentucky placed in three events and captured the college relay with ease. In the 60 yard hurdles Warren Clark, of the Kentucky team, holder of the S. I. A. A. record forced Frank Loomis, of the Chicago Athletic Club, holder of the Olympic record, to exert himself to the utmost. The finish was most spectacular, and the judges decided that Loomis had won by inches. Don Lourie, the All-American quarterback from Princeton, finished third in this event.

Dave Thornton, winner of the half mile in the S. I. A. A. meet last year annexed that event without difficulty, in the fast time of 2:05 3/5. In the one mile handicap R. L. Porter finished a close second to Dewey Kimball, the Centre College star.

The college relay was easily disposed of by the Kentucky outfit composed of Wilhelm, Thornton, Boyd and Snider. Coach Buchert was very well pleased with the showing made by the Kentucky boys and with such a start the prospects are very bright for a championship track team for 1921.

CHORAL CLUB TO MEET

All members of "Robin Hood" are members of the newly organized choral club. This club meets every Wednesday in Professor Lampert's music room at 3:40. All members are urged to be present Wednesday, March 16, as important matters are to be discussed.

A BIG QUESTION

The debate with Cincinnati next Friday evening on the immigration question makes us take cognizance of the fact that this country is in the throes of a great immigration problem.

At the present time two million men are out of employment in this country, the great majority, our own native stock.

If we are to admit one and one-fourth million immigrants a year, our unemployment problem will be increasingly serious.

over the Owensboro squad, 26 to 18. The tournament started at 2:00 p. m. Friday with Owensboro and La Grange in the opening tilt.

The quality of basketball displayed by the teams in the tournament was very gratifying to the large numbers of spectators who attended the games.

The tournament was held under the auspices of the Athletic Department of the University as an encouragement to high school basketball in the state.

Especial mention should be made of the Clark County High, of Winchester, Carrollton and Owensboro teams, though none of them got into the semi-finals.

The Manual team was presented with a beautiful silver loving cup, donated by the University, and the Union College Academy team was awarded a silver cup as the runner-up.

Manual has an excellent team and there is no question about her superiority. The argument is over and the best team won.

mend the achievement superior to predecessors.

Barrie's play affords the Strollers room to exhibit their extraordinary ability. The play is one of difficult characterizations, exquisitely delineated in those small human details that make Barrie a master, rich in dramatic strength and permeated by the fine philosophy expressed thus by Bill Crichton, the incomparable butler of Loam House.

"The divisions into classes, my Lord, are not artificial, but the natural outcome of a civilized society. There must always be a master and servants in all civilized communities; for it is natural and whatever is natural is right."

Crichton's statement held true in the haughty English house where he was servant and the testy old peer, Lord Loam, master; it did not change after the shipwreck on the South Seas island, but there was an amazing change in the positions of the two and the classes they at first represented.

Milton Revill will satisfy the requirements of voice, bearing and interpretation in the role of Crichton, who believes himself the "happiest of all combinations, the son of a butler and a lady's maid," who considers "a haughty, aristocratic English house, with every one kept in his place" the most beautiful in the world, and who worships Lady Mary, his fair young mistress, for her lofty disdain of her inferiors. Revill's record in University dramatics is enviable, his talent remarkable. He insures the success of the play in his masterful visualization of the title role.

Mary Elizabeth Downing, will portray Lady Mary Lasenby, the arrogant young beauty Crichton first adores from afar, but whom he later allows to become his humble worshipping slave on the island. Miss Downing made the Stroller lead last year when only a freshman and scored a decisive hit as Blanche Sterling in "The Climbers." She is favored not only in the possession of histrionic talent, but also in personal charm and a remarkably rich voice.

In rehearsals, Herndon Evans as Ernest, is showing up particularly well. Ernest finds "the great moment in his life when he wakes in the morning and realizes that he is really Ernest, for we must all wish to be that which is our ideal." Evans will be given an opportunity to receive his well-earned applause this year behind the foot-lights, not only as an actor, but as actor-manager.

Another member of the cast who should be commended is Kitty Conroy, who as the wistful-eyed adoring Tweenie, will capture other hearts besides Ernest's. Miss Conroy is deft in the little arts that make for attraction on stage and off. The two sisters, Ladies Agatha and Catherine, very indolent, catty young things, at first, are portrayed by Margaret Smith and Carlisle Chenault, who have appeared in the two preceding Stroller plays. Preston-Cherry avails himself of all the rich humor of his role, Lord Loam, and is a strong contestant for honors. John Albright is proving himself capable as Treherne, the young clergyman.

The tentative dates of the Stroller play are March 31 and April 1.

LOCAL PLAYWRIGHTS

Under the supervision and stage management of Miss Marguerite McLaughlin the second number of the plays to be given by the College Club was given at the Little Theatre, Friday and Saturday evening. The play opened with an informal talk by Miss Simrall in which she asked the audience to view the plays, not from a critical or literary standpoint, but to "pretend" or "playlike" everybody had come for a good time and they would find just what they put into it. After the plays were presented, even the dramatic critics could not find fault with any part of the program.

The first play "Heritage," written by Mrs. E. S. Good and presented by Miss Mary Wood Brown and Miss Pauline Wherry. Mrs. Good developed an interesting plot, giving descriptions of Italy and presenting the Italian girl played by Miss Wherry, in a realistic interpretation of that country.

"The Fool and His Money," written by Miss Josephine Simrall, was the only play of the evening enacted by a cast in which none of the players were members of the College Club. It was a dainty romance and the love scenes were enacted with such "talent" as would make the audience forget that the cast was composed of amateurs instead of professionals. Miss Kitty Conroy took the lead as the lady whose love had been bought, with costly gifts by Preston Cherry. Raymond Connell, as the "Fool," changed the mind of Pierrette when he made her realize for the first time that true love was measured not by rubies and precious stones. Miss Conroy was charming as the care-free dancing girl and lady of luxury. Preston Cherry, wealthy banker and eager for more wealth, enacted that role exactly as the writer of the play had intended it to be.

The lighting effects were in charge of James Molloy and Billy Williams, who made the storm and lightning in the "Fool and His Money" appear real.

Much credit is given to Miss McLaughlin, who managed and coached the plays and made them the success that they were.

The serious problem of the University's proposed entrance into a new Southern athletic association was discussed at a meeting of the Athletic Council in President McVey's office, Wednesday evening, March 9. All sides of the proposition were considered, but no definite conclusion was reached.

The new association plans to begin operations in January, 1922, leaving all existing contracts intact. It favors the three year term for athletic players, eliminating all Freshmen, and contemplates an association for Freshmen teams only.

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser represented the University of Kentucky at a convention held at Atlanta for the purpose of promoting the new organization. Sixteen of the leading Colleges and Universities of the South were invited to send delegates to draw up tentative plans and rules for the new association.

Dr. Funkhouser made a report on the Atlanta meeting to the Athletic Council, Wednesday. Action on this proposition must be taken within thirty days, the time allowed the colleges to notify the new association of their entrance.

COMPETITION LIVELY

Propps, Sauer, Zerfoss, Meguilar and Heber Missing

Coach Andy Gill, pilot of successful Kentucky baseball artists for the last two seasons, arrived Thursday morning to take charge of the present squad of sixty candidates. Coach Gill, who successfully coached the football team of Oregon Agriculture College last Fall, is a baseball mentor of high calibre and was formerly a professional ball player in one of the minor leagues.

The Kentucky baseball team of 1920 was one of the most successful the University has ever had, losing only two games in the season. Several of the men played high class independent ball last summer and Tom Grubbs, star mound artist, landed on the staff of the New York Giants. Some of the stars of yesteryear will be missing. Propps signed with Nashville Volunteers, in the Southern Association; Sauer did not return to school until this semester, and Heber, sterling backstop has left school. George Zerfoss has played four years and Meguilar, freshman star, did not return to school.

Captain Brown is back cavorting around the initial sack in old time style and Cooper is here with a world of stuff, fifty per cent better than last year, and good enough for AA class ball. Burnham is expected to be out in a few days, as are Slomer and Muth. Jones, Williams, Ridgeway and other good second string men of last year are back in uniform and will make someone hustle for a berth.

Perhaps the most complex problem to face Coach Gill will be the catching quandary. With Heber gone, Ridgeway will have Rogers and Gillespie, promising freshmen, to beat. It will take a good backstop to hold Cooper's and Slomer's shoots this year. Weatherholt shows promise as a pitcher and Barte, who was once mighty good, is coming out.

"Daddy" Boles urges everyone who thinks he can play ball to come out and try for the team.

Semi-Finals

FINALS TO BE SOON

The strong Delta Chi basketball team earned the right to meet the Sigma Nu team in the final game of the interfraternity basketball tournament, to be played soon, by handing the Pi Kappa Alpha clan a defeat, 18 to 15, Thursday night.

The Delta Chi first defeated the A. T. O.'s in a postponed game, which was courteously deferred by the Delta Chi after the injury of Walter Morris, A. T. O. guard.

The Sigma Nu's have a powerful team and if they should defeat the Delta Chi will have permanent possession of the silver loving cup, which is awarded to a fraternity only after two consecutive championships. The Delta Chi have an excellent, well-coached team and the Sigma Nu's will have to stretch to the utmost to beat them.
