To Our Comrades and Friends.

IN presenting to the members of this Association the Fifth and probably the last edition of its Constitution, By-Laws, etc., that will ever be compiled, it is the wish of the author, without any attempt to bring himself into prominence, or to assume a virtue he does not own, that whatever of good or ill there may be in the work, all should know that he has done the best he could.

Almost entirely unaided, he has gathered up the faces and scattered records of more than a hundred of our precious dead, and the same hand has compiled and completed the work in all its detail.

It is hoped that those who may be unkind enough to criticise adversely its imperfections, will remember the many neglected opportunities offered them to correct these errors, and that all will accept the effort as a crude and simple tablet to the memory of the living and the dead Confederate soldiers whose names are here recorded and alas! are "too soon forgotten when they are gone."

The blessings and guidance of a merciful Father has directed and controlled the efforts that have been used to bind in one common bond the frosted veterans of another day and year, who followed the flag of a withered hope and a dead cause, until all was laid away in the grave with the brave in misfortune who fell. The Officers of the various Counties where Camps are established have been, as a rule, untiring in their efforts to gather in the fold all those who were eligible to membership, and for their zeal, the thanks of the Association are due them and they are deserving of the highest praise. The good people have been kind and generous in their offerings to the needy of our ranks. Conspicuous and most prominent stands out the name of Colonel H. B. Morehead, of Cincinnati, Ohio, the President of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette Company. While he has protested against any publicity of his benefactions, the Association feels so deeply grateful to him, that a plain duty compels it to express here the sense of obligation resting upon every Confederate soldier for his kindness and generosity to them and all will bless and honor his name.

LIBRARY

A glance at the list of those of our members who have died since the organization of the Association must forcibly remind us all that our lives are held only by the frailest tenure; that time has not been idle in our ranks, and all should be greatly impressed with the importance of preserving and perpetuating their records of those years of warfare, hallowed and made glorious by the blood and treasure of our own Sunnyland. To the living Confederate Soldiers we come, beseeching them in the name of the dead Cause for which they fought, in the name of the gallant spirits who laid down their lives upon their Country's altar, in the name and memory of the wives and children of all who wore the Gray, to not, for a day longer, neglect the opportunity to enroll their names once more beside their comrades who stood shoulder to shoulder with them in the hours of peril.

In submitting this work of hands illy fitted for the duty, of brain inexperienced and incompetent to perfect so sacred a charge, it is hoped that all will accept it as a simple offering of a heart whose every beat goes out in love and tenderness for those who followed as he did—the flag of Dixie until it went down forever.

“Beyond these chilling winds and gloomy skies,
 Beyond death's cloudy portal,
 There is a land where beauty never dies,
 And love becomes immortal.
 A land, whose light is never dimmed by shade,
 Whose fields are ever vernal,
 Where nothing beautiful can ever fade,
 But blooms for aye—eternal.
 We may not know how sweet its balmy air,
 How bright and fair its flowers;
 We may not hear the songs that echo there

Through those enchanted bowers,
The city's shining towers we may not see
With our dim earthly vision,
For death, the silent warder, keeps the key
That opes those gates Elysian.
But sometimes when adown the western sky
The fiery sunset lingers.
Its golden gates swing inward, noiselessly,
Unlocked by unseen fingers.
And while they stand a moment half ajar,

Gleams from the inner glory
Stream brightly through the azure vault afar,
And half reveal the story.
Oh, land unknown! Oh, land of the divine!
Father, All-wise Eternal,
Guide, guide these wandering, wayworn feet of mine
Into those pastures vernal."

Articles of Incorporation.

BE IT KNOWN, That we, John Boyd, Robert S. Bullock, Thomas S. Logwood, O. L. Bradley, Wm. H. Cassell, G. A. DeLong, John M. Montague, L. P. Young, Joseph B. Simrall, Will Ev. Spencer, John H. Carter, O. F. Redd, Hart Gibson, and Wm. R. Jones, have formed ourselves together for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the Confederate soldiers, and hereby form an Association.

2. The name and style of said Association shall be the "Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky." By that name it shall have perpetual succession, with power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded.

3. Said Association shall have the power to acquire and hold real estate and personal property, stocks, bonds, etc., and to sell, transfer and dispose of the same at their pleasure, possessing the same right that private individuals now enjoy.

4. The officers of said Association shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and a Treasurer, and an Executive Committee, and such other officers as the Association or the Executive Committee may deem necessary, or may provide.

5. Said Association shall have the power to make a Constitution, pass rules and regulations and by-laws, and amend the same, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State, as the interests of the Association may require.

6. The capital stock, admission fee, dues, etc., shall be provided for in the Constitution.

7. The private property of the members shall be exempt for the debts of said Association.

Witness our hands this second day of April, 1891.

Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky.

Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

THIS Association shall be known as the "Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky," with headquarters at Lexington, Kentucky.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association shall be the cultivation of social relations among those who were honorably engaged in the service of the Confederate State of America; to preserve the fraternal ties of comradeship; to aid and assist those of its members who, from disease, misfortune, or the infirmities of age, may become incapable of supporting themselves or families; to pay a decent respect to the remains and to the memory of those who die, and to see that no worthy member shall ever become an object of public charity.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1. Members shall be elected by ballot by the Executive Committee, and no one shall be balloted for unless recommended by two members of the Association, who shall certify, to the best of their belief, to his honorable record in the Confederate service, and that he has brought no dishonor on the service since. Any member objecting to any person elected by the Executive Committee, shall have the right of appeal to the Association, the decision of which shall be final. But two members of said Committee voting in the negative, the applicant for membership shall be rejected.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. Each member of this Association shall pay an initiation fee of five dollars, and the further sum of four dollars a year as dues, and payable quarterly in advance on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year.

SEC. 2. Any member failing for two consecutive meetings to pay his dues shall, after due notice from the secretary, be reported as delinquent and stricken from the roll: Provided, That the Executive Committee shall have power to remit the dues of any applicant or member when they are satisfied that he is unable to pay them.

ARTICLE V.

Officers.

SEC. 1. The officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Chaplain and Executive Committee, to be composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and ten members, who shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified; all of them may, after the present year, be annually elected by ballot on the first Saturday in April of each year. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee who reside in the city of Lexington, Kentucky, shall constitute a quorum. The officers shall conduct the business of the Association as provided in the by-laws.

SEC. 2. There shall be, in addition to the regular officers mentioned in section one of this article, one Vice-President from each county in the State represented by a membership in the Association of not less than six members, and shall be known as Second Vice-President of the county so represented, and shall be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. Each Second Vice-President, himself as Chairman ex-officio, shall appoint an Adjutant, whose duties shall be the same as a secretary, and an Executive Committee to consist of two members of his county, whose duties shall be the same as, and subject to the approval of, the Executive Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE VI.

Meetings.

There shall be two stated meetings of the Association annually, to wit: On the first Saturdays in April and October; also such called meetings as may be ordered by the President or provided for in the by-laws.

ARTICLE VII.

Funds.

SEC. 1. The funds of this Association shall be deposited in bank to the credit of the Association, and shall be drawn only on the order of the President, Secretary and Treasurer. All claims shall be approved by the Executive Committee before payment.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEC. 1. This Constitution shall not be altered or amended except by motion made in writing at a regular meeting of the Association; such motion shall lie over until the next stated meeting, when every member entitled to a vote shall be notified in writing to attend; and if the proposed alteration or amendment shall receive a majority of two-thirds of those present, it shall then be come a part of this Constitution, except as otherwise provided for in article XV.

SEC. 2. The Association shall adopt such by-laws for its government as may be deemed necessary, not to conflict with the provisions of this Constitution. The influence or sympathy of this Association as a body shall never be enlisted or used in favor of any political or religious organization whatever, nor shall any political or religious discussions be permitted in its meetings.

ARTICLE IX.

This Association shall have power to receive and hold any property, real, personal or mixed, that may be donated by any person for the use of the relief fund or for other purposes of the Association.

ARTICLE X.

Every member of this Association shall make the following pledge:

"I hereby solemnly promise to observe, obey and support the Constitution and By-laws of the Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky so long as I remain a member thereof. I will not divert any of its funds from the legitimate purpose of the Association, nor suffer it to be done if I can prevent.

"I will be a true and faithful Comrade to every member of the same.

"I will defend his honor, vindicate his good name, and assist his family according to my ability and opportunity, so long as the member reports himself as a good citizen, and does not forfeit his claim upon the Association by his own acts, and in the manner prescribed by the By-laws."

ARTICLE XI.

Any person, either male or female, whose sympathies were with the Southern arms, or the wives or sons or daughters of soldiers or sailors who were faithful to the Confederate States Government, can become honorary members of this Association.

ARTICLE XII.

Only persons of good moral character can become honorary members of this Association, and must be elected members in the manner provided in article III of the Constitution, upon the payment of a membership fee of five dollars. No dues or other expense.

ARTICLE XIII.

No person can ever become an honorary member who was at any time an officer or soldier in either the army or navy of the Confederate States.

ARTICLE XIV.

The insignia of the ladies who become honorary members shall be a design in gold of a Confederate flag in enamel colors, which shall be given free; but the male members will not be furnished with any insignia, or allowed to wear any mark of membership, unless otherwise ordered by the Association or the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee have directed that a silver button of same design as provided for the ladies be furnished free to the male members.

ARTICLE XV.

No honorary member shall be allowed to vote upon any question, and no section pertaining to honorary members shall ever be altered or amended, except upon seven-eighths of the veteran members voting in the affirmative.

By-Laws.

I.

THE Executive Committee shall be charged with the duty of investigating and reporting upon any case of distress among the members which may come to its knowledge, and which requires aid of any sort on the part of the Association. This aid shall be extended to these members and their families, and the Executive Committee is further charged to render such aid.

II.

The Executive Committee shall meet at the Secretary's office as often as they may be called by the President or five members of said Committee. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, and shall recommend to the President any member who, in their judgment, should receive aid from the Association, stating in said recommendation the amount they deem proper to be paid.

III.

The President shall draw his check, countersigned by the Secretary and Treasurer, in favor of persons recommended by the Executive Committee in any amount not exceeding that recommended.

IV.

The Executive Committee may fill all vacancies which may occur in their own body by death or resignation.

V.

The Secretary shall be charged with the duty of collecting the moneys due the Association by members, and may employ and pay a collector for that purpose.

VI.

The Secretary shall report to each stated meeting all members in arrears, and members so reported shall be dealt with as provided in section 2, article IV of the Constitution.

VII.

Upon the death of any member of the Association the commanding officer of the county where in said death occurs shall notify all surviving comrades of his county to meet and attend the funeral in such a manner, as, after consultation with the family and friends, he may deem best.

VIII.

The insignia of this Association shall be worn at all times, and must be "A circular design five-eighths of an inch in diameter, with the medallion head of R. E. Lee thereon, surrounded by an enamel belt, on which are oxidized stars; on the reverse, across the center, the owner's name, and around the circumference the name of the Association." The badge of the Association shall be furnished free to each member, to be held by him as long as he is in good standing in the Association, subject to recall for cause. At a member's death the badge goes as an heirloom to his family.

Burial Service
of the Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky.

IN the absence of the Chaplain the commanding officer shall select some other member to perform the duty.

When all are assembled at the grave, the Chaplain shall say :

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hast formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to dust; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as asleep; in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down and withereth. Amen.

And all the members shall respond—Amen.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Amen.

And all the members shall respond—Amen.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name forever and ever.

I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness.

They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

The Lord is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all his works.

All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. Amen.

And all the members shall respond—Amen.

Let us pray.

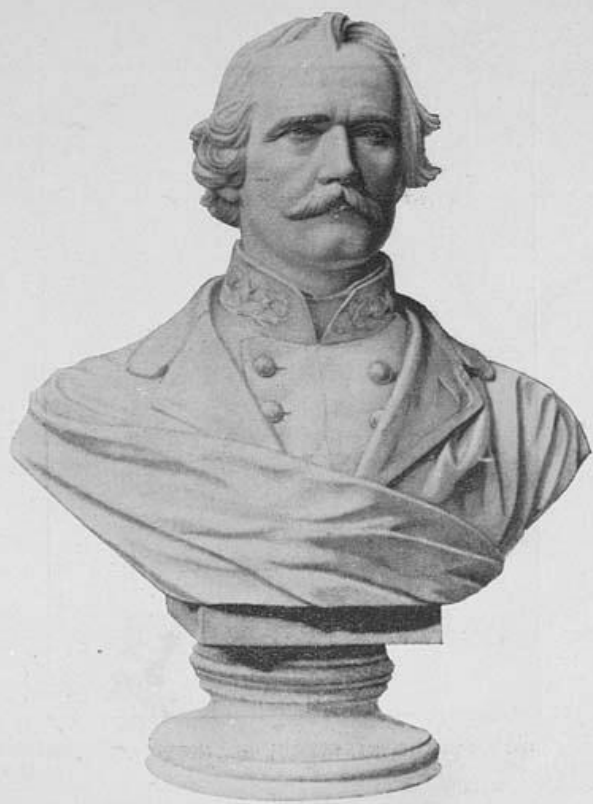

Almighty God, we give thee thanks for the good example of all those thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors. We give thee thanks for every example of courage and devotion to truth and duty. And we pray that we, with all who are departed in the true faith of thy holy name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory: through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the members repeat the Lord's Prayer with the Chaplain.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

And now we commit the body of our comrade to the grave, and his spirit to God who gave it; and we pray that the blessings of Almighty God may attend the family of our dead comrade and rest upon our Association and upon its members. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE SOUTH.

My brow is bent beneath a heavy rod!
 My face is wan and white with many woes,
 But I will lift my poor, chained hands to God,
 And for my children pray, and for my foes,
 Beside the graves were thousands lowly lie,
 I kneel—and, weeping for each slaughtered son,
 I turn my gaze to my own sunny sky,
 And pray, O Father! may Thy will be done.

My heart is filled with anguish deep and vast;
 My hopes are buried with my children's dust;
 My joys have fled—my tears are flowing fast;
 In whom, save Thee, our Father, shall I trust?
 Ah! I forgot Thee, Father, long and oft,
 When I was happy, rich, and proud, and free;
 But conquered now, and crushed I look aloft,
 And sorrow leads me, Father, back to Thee.

Amid the wrecks that mark the foeman's path,
 I kneel—and, wailing o'er my glories gone,
 I still each thought of hate, each throbb
 of wrath,
 And whisper—Father! let Thy will be done.
 Pity me, Father of the De-olate!
 Alas! my burdens are so hard to bear;
 Look down in mercy on my wretched fate,
 And keep me, guard me with Thy loving care.

Pity me, Father! for His holy sake
 Whose broken Heart bled at the feet of Grief,
 That hearts of earth, wherever they should break,
 Might go to His and find a sure relief.
 Ah, me! how dark! Is this a brief eclipse?
 Or is it Night with no To-morrow Sun?
 O Father! Father! with my pale, sad lips,
 And sadder heart, I pray—Thy will be done.

My homes are joyless, and a million mourn
 Where many met in joys forever flown;
 Whose hearts were light, are burdened now,
 and lorn.
 Where many smiled, but one is left to mourn,
 And ah! the widows' wails, the orphans' cries,
 Are morning hymn and vesper chant to me;
 And groans of men and sounds of women's sighs
 Commingle, Father, with my prayer to Thee.

Beneath my feet—ten thousand children dead—
 Oh! how I loved each known and nameless one!
 Above their dust I bow my crownless head,
 And murmur—Father! still—Thy will be done.

ABRAM J. RYAN.

REV. FATHER A. J. RYAN.
 Born May 12, 1840; Died April 22, 1886.

Ah! Father! Thou didst deck my own loved land
 With all bright charms, and beautiful and fair;
 But foemen came, and with a ruthless hand
 Spread ruin, wreck and desolation there,
 Girdled with gloom—of all my brightness shorn,
 And garmented with grief, I kiss Thy rod;
 And turn my face, with tears all wet, and worn,
 To catch one smile of pity from my God.
 Around me blight, where all before was bloom!
 And so much lost! alas! and nothing won!
 Save this—that I can lean on wreck and tomb,
 And weep—and weeping pray—Thy will be done.

And Oh! 'tis hard to say—but said, 'tis sweet—
 The words are bitter, but they hold a balm;
 A balm that heals the wounds of my defeat,
 And lulls my sorrows into holy calm.
 It is the Prayer of prayers—and how it brings,
 When heard in heaven, peace and hope to me;
 When Jesus prayed it, did not angels' wings
 Gleam 'mid the darkness of Gethsemane?

My children, Father, Thy forgiveness need!
 Alas! their hearts have only place for tears;
 Forgive them, Father, every wrongful deed
 And every sin, of those four bloody years.
 And give them strength to bear their boundless loss,
 And from their hearts take every thought of hate;
 And while they climb their Calvary with their Cross,
 Oh! help them, Father, to endure its weight.

And for my Dead, my Father, may I pray?
 Ah! sighs may soothe, but prayer shall soothe me more!
 I keep eternal watch above their clay—
 Oh! rest their souls, my Father, I implore!
 Forgive my foes—they know not what they do—
 Forgive them all the tears they made me shed;
 Forgive them—though my noblest sons they slew—
 And bless them—though they curse my poor,
 dear Dead.

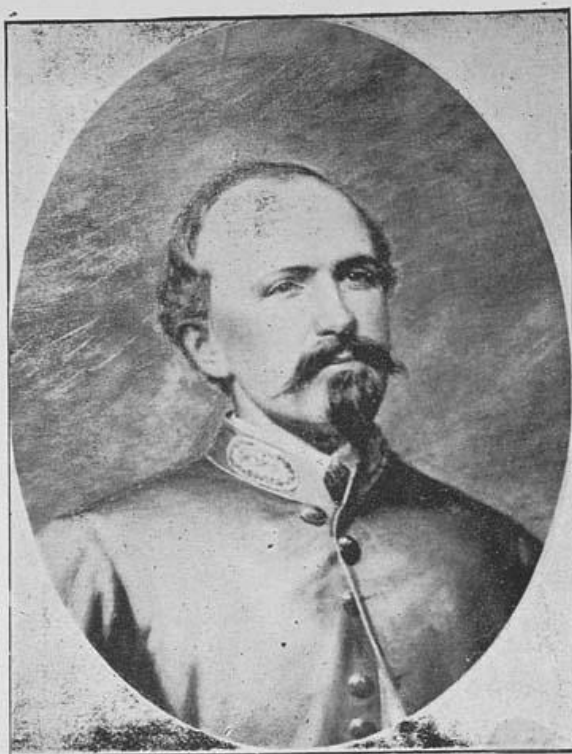

Oh! may my woes be each a carrier-dove
 With swift, white wings, that, bathing in my tears,
 Will bear Thee, Father, all my prayers of love,
 And bring me peace in all my doubts and fears.

Father! I kneel 'mid ruin, wreck, and grave,
 A desert-waste—where all was erst so fair;
 And for my children and my foes I crave
 Pity and pardon—Father! hear my prayer!

Born in Huntsville, Ala., June 1, 1825.

Raised a company of cavalry and joined the Army of the Confederate States in July 1861.

He rose rapidly from the rank of Captain to the grade of Major-General of Cavalry.

He led his command through many perilous engagements; was captured on the Ohio raid; escaped from the Ohio penitentiary, and was killed at Greenville, Tenn., September 4, 1864, and is buried at Lexington, Ky.

Versalles, Ky.

Loring's Division, Pemberton's Corps, Army of the Mississippi. In March, 1864, he was assigned to the command of a Division in General Forrest's Cavalry, which position he held until near the close of the War. He participated in all of the battles in which his command was engaged, and was severely wounded in the thigh on the retreat of General Hood's Army from Nashville, in December, 1864. He surrendered at Gainesville, Alabama, May, 1865, and died at Danville, Indiana, June 9th, 1884, and is buried at Lexington, Kentucky.

Born near Georgetown, Ky., May 27th, 1811. In September, 1861, he left his home with Gen. Breckinridge and others and went to Bowling Green, Ky., at which place he organized the provisional Confederate Government for the State, which was effected by a Convention at Russellville, Ky., and a Constitution adopted, and he was chosen Governor, and by formal act of the Confederate Congress the State of which he was the head was admitted as a member of the Confederacy. He was the companion and friend of General Albert Sidney Johnston, and in death they were not divided. At the battle of Shiloh where he fell fighting as a private soldier in Co. E, 4th Kentucky Infantry, is better described by a letter from his son, which is appended: "My father was wounded on second day of the battle of Shiloh, Monday, April 7th, 1862. He remained on battle-field until following day, when he was found by Gen. McCook, of the United States Army, and recognized by Gen. J. S. Jackson, U. S. A., about 2 o'clock P. M., April 8th. By order of Gen. Nelson, U. S. A., he was taken aboard a U. S. Transport and received marked attention and kindness until his death—which occurred at an early hour on Wednesday morning, April 9th, 1862. The U. S. Chaplain, Rev. J. F. Jaques, gave my father every attention and kindly wrote my mother fully as to the last sad details. Gen. J. S. Jackson attended to the shipment of the body to Louisville, Ky., where his friends took charge. He was buried in the cemetery at Georgetown, Kentucky, on April 17th, 1862."

EPITAPH OF
Albert Sidney Johnston.

[Written by J. B. S. Dimity, of New Orleans, La., who served with him at Shiloh. Copied and transmitted by a lady unknown, who is said to have found the lines written in pencil, and tacked on the head-board of the temporary resting place at New Orleans.

"Beneath this stone is laid for a season Albert Sidney Johnston, a General in the Army of the Confederate States, who fell at Shiloh, Tennessee, on the 6th day of April, 1862. A man tried in many high offices and critical enterprises, and found faithful in all. His life was one long sacrifice of interest to conscience, and even that life on a woeful Sabbath did he yield as a holocaust at his country's need. Not wholly understood was he while he lived; but in his death his greatness stands confessed in a people's tears. Resolute, moderately clear of envy, yet not wanting in that finer ambition which makes men great and pure. In his honor impregnable; in his simplicity sublime; no country ever had a truer son, no cause a nobler champion, no people a bolder defender, no principle a purer victim, than the dead soldier who sleeps here. The cause for which he perished is lost; the people for whom he fought are crushed; the hopes in which he trusted are shattered; the flag he loved guides no more the charging lines. But his fame, consigned to the keeping of that time which happily is not so much the tomb of virtue as its shrine, shall in years to come fire modest worth to nobler ends. In honor now our great Captain rests; a bereaved people mourn him three commonwealths proudly claim him, and history shall cherish him among those choicer spirits who, holding their consciences unmixed with blame, have been in all conjectures true to themselves, their country and their God."

Born in Madison County, Kentucky, October 4th, 1842. Enlisted in the Army of the Confederate States at Cumberland Ford, October 8th, 1861, as a private in Captain Baker's Company of Major Brazelton's Battalion. Serving under General Zollicoffer in Eastern Kentucky, and later with General E. Kirby Smith, and on September 10th, 1862, joined the 11th Kentucky Cavalry and was afterward promoted to Captain, Company F, of that Regiment. He was in the battles of Hartsville, Tenn., Milton, Ky., Lebanon, Ky., Cynthiana twice, Greasy Creek, and wounded there, Muldrough's Hill, Ky., Rolling Fork, Monticello, Christmas Raid, Elizabethtown, was cut off from his command at the last fight at Cynthiana, escaped to Canada, and was in the Saint Albans Raid, and afterward went to Paris, France, where he died, April 12th, 1869.

THOMAS B. COLLINS, RICHMOND, KY.

The "Battle Flag" was designed by General Beauregard and adopted by General Joseph E. Johnston, after the first battle of Bull Run, and afterwards adopted by the Confederate Congress. The reason for the adoption of said "Battle Flag" was, that in the first battle of Bull Run the "Stars and Bars" was, in the smoke of battle, several times mistaken for the "Stars and Stripes," and vice versa. This remained the "Battle Flag" until the close of the war.

Born near Carthage, Campbell county, Kentucky in 1833. Enlisted in the Army of the Confederate States September 25th, 1862, and was commissioned a Captain without command, but served as a private in Company D, 4th Kentucky Cavalry Morgan's Command, Army of Tennessee. Early in March, 1863, he was detailed to return to Kentucky to recruit a Company and after spending some weeks in the State, he started back to join his regiment, and while on the way with Jefferson McGraw, a comrade, they were captured and taken to Cincinnati, Ohio and later to Johnson's Island, where they were tried by court martial under order Number 28 of the U. S. Commander and sentenced to be shot as spies.

WILLIAM F. CORBIN, CALIFORNIA, KY.

Every effort was made upon the part of the friends of these two Confederate soldiers to save their lives, but all to no purpose, and on May 15th, 1863, they were marched out between files of U. S. soldiers on the green sward by the lake front to the place of execution, each supporting his ball and chain, and took their seats on their coffins and were blindfolded and bound. The file of soldiers quickly did the rest, and the warfare of these two gallant soldiers was ended and all that was mortal was returned to their homes and loved ones in Kentucky, where they peacefully sleep in not forgotten nor unhonored graves.

JUSTICE WEBB, GEORGETOWN, KY

On March 4, 1865, the Confederate Congress adopted this design as the "National Flag" of the Confederate States, for the reason that when the flag adopted May 1, 1863, fell limp around the staff it looked like a flag of truce—the white only showing; therefore the red bar was put across the end so that it could never be mistaken for a flag of truce.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Henrietta Hunt Morgan.

BORN IN LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, DECEMBER, 5, 1805; DIED SEPTEMBER 7, 1891.

MARRIED CALVIN C. MORGAN, 1823, WHO WAS BORN DECEMBER 16, 1801,
AND DIED MAY 1, 1854.

SHE WAS THE MOTHER OF THE FOLLOWING SONS AND DAUGHTERS:

JOHN H. MORGAN, Major-General Division Cavalry, Born June 1, 1825, and Killed at Greenville, Tennessee, September 4, 1864.

THOMAS H. MORGAN, Lieutenant Company I. Second Kentucky Cavalry, Born May 7, 1844.
Killed at Lebanon, Kentucky, July 5, 1863.

FRANCIS KEY MORGAN, Private Company A., Second Kentucky Cavalry, Born August 23, 1845.
Died October 6, 1878.

CALVIN C. MORGAN, Captain Staff General Morgan, Born June 4, 1827; Died July 19, 1882.
MRS. KITTY G. FORSYTHE, Widow of Lieut. Gen. A. P. Hill, Killed at Petersburg, April 2

MRS. HENRIETTA H. DUKE, Wife of Brig.-Gen. Basil W. Duke.

RICHARD C. MORGAN, Colonel Fourteenth Kentucky Cavalry.

CHARLTON H. MORGAN, Captain Staff Gen. Morgan.

Her life was embittered by many sorrows, but rewarded by the blessings which are given those who find happiness in good done to others. Unselfish, charitable, self-sacrificing, heroic in devotion to duty, untiring in the offices of affection, her name and memory are sanctified.

She gave all her life to her family and friends. She gave her children to her country. She ministered unceasingly to the poor and helpless, and she loved the Lord her God, with all her heart, and all her soul, and all her mind, and has "crossed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees."

SACRED TO THE MEMORY OF Issa Desha Breckinridge,

WIFE OF

COL. WM. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE,

AND MOTHER OF

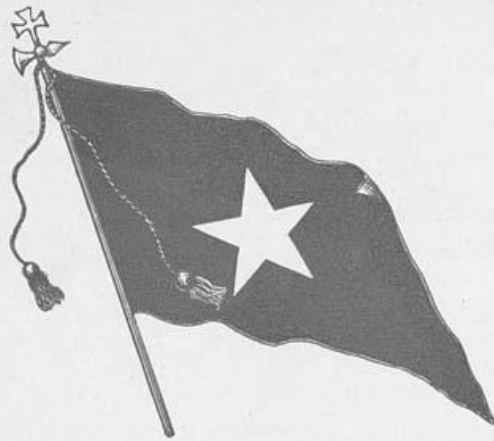

Ella Desha Chalkley, Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge, Desha Breckinridge, Robert Jefferson Breckinridge, and Curry Desha Breckinridge.

SHE WAS BORN AT GEORGETOWN, KENTUCKY, APRIL 18, 1843, AND DIED
AT WASHINGTON, D. C., ON THE 13th DAY OF JULY, 1892.

She was President of the Honorary Confederate Veteran Association from its Organization until her death.

She was brave, and true, and gentle; in all things faithful, wanting in nothing that honored the name of woman; a friend to every comrade, a benefactor to every human being who came to her in need. First in our work, she is first also in our hearts, and to her cause she carries the unforgetting love of men who never faltered in the battle's front, nor knew dishonor in the days of peace. Her death bereaves us deeply, but her memory shall be a sweet and lasting inspiration to a better life.

Forgotten shall not be her memory
By us, who long since wore the threadbare gray.
The night has passed, and now, eternal day
Comes beaming with the truth of history;
Since clouds of prejudice are blown away,
And skies are clear, and, such as she Shine, like soft stars; from where immortals be

The Bonnie Blue Flag.
