U-High Carnival Held

The first U-High carnival was held on Saturday, May 18, 1957, at the University High School from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Various games and booths were operated by the classes, school clubs, and organizations. In conjunction with the carnival, Masque and Gavel held its annual talent show beginning at 7:30. Individuals and groups participated.

The following booths were sponsored by the classes and school organizations: Ring the Goosey and Catch the Cat by the 8th grade; Dunk the Girl by the Seniors; Ring Toss and Pony Ride by the Juniors; Spook House by the Sophomores; food sale by the Beta Club; cake walk by the U-Hi Lights staff; balloon shaving, pictures, squirt gun games, squirting candles, and dart game by the 7th grade; fortune telling by Y-Teens; sponge throwing by the Freshmen; balloon game and stock sale by the Pep Club.

Betty Maxson was crowned queen of the 1957 Junior Prom by Ernest Clark, president of the junior class, at the annual Junior Prom which was held in the U-Hi Gym on April 27. The queen's court included eight juniors and eight seniors.

The Juniors included: Rae Reed, Betty Evans, Lady Greenslit, Shelia Hargett, Charlie Turnbull, Chuck Maxson, Lanny Cox, and Bradley Switzer.

Senior court members were: Martha Marr, Carolyn Stroud, Nancy Davis, Nancy Harding, Billy Alexander, Bobby Griffin, John Melzer, and Bobby Fain. Becky Strub was crown bearer, and Charlie Lisle was the scroll bearer.

The theme of the dance was "The Emerald City of Oz." A flowing fountain was placed in front of the steps leading to Oz. The side walls of the floor were lined with white picket

Seniors Say Thanks and Good-bye

The time has now come for the seniors to say good-bye to our Alma Mater. As we look back over the years, we remember the unhappy times as well as the gay times. We think of the many times we caused the teachers to be displeased with us and of the times we did wrong. We realize that we could have taken better advantage of our opportunities; however, we are greatly indebted to our school and to our teachers for their guidance and patience. Some of us do not realize the hard work required of our faculty. Each one has played a definite part in molding our lives, and on behalf of the entire student body I would like to take this opportunity to express to the teachers our appreciation and gratitude for all they have done. We, the seniors, would like to thank them for giving us an excellent background so that we may continue in college in fields we choose and so that we can assume graciously and effectively the responsibilities of citizenship.

As we graduate, we must realize that we have a great future ahead and that we want to work to the best of our abilities to make our school proud of us. We will be making new friends and facing new problems; however, we want to remember how much our high school and our teachers have done to help us! To the underclassmen, we, the seniors, would like to wish you successful school years ahead, and to the faculty, thank you again.

PERSONALITY PARADE

BETTY LOGAN LEHMAN

JAYNE LOGAN BISHOP

Perhaps Betty Logan could be tabbed as the busiest girl in the senior class. She was initiated into the National Honor Society in her junior year. She is editor of the U-Hi Lights, secretary of the senior class, secretary-treasurer of Student Council, vice president of the Glee Club, and 2nd vice president of Beta Club, and a member of Little Choir and Pep Club. She is the recipient of the DAR Good Citizenship award, and last year was U-Hi's representative to Girl's State.

Although Betty Logan is always swamped with work, she is still willing to do more. Yet she can always find time for fun, and when tickled, she just cannot stop laughing. Betty Logan plans to go away to college.

As for romance, Tommy Ginger seems to be the number one man. She is frequently seen sporting an attractive I.D. bracelet of his.

A leader possessed with skill and kindness, we know she will go far in whatever she does.

Jayne Logan Bishop, known to all of us as Jay, entered University School at a very tender age.

Jay's constantly pleasing attitude has helped us through many a crisis and cheered us on numerous gloomy days.

From grade school, Jay has been active in all aspects of school life. She is a member of the Beta Club, the Social Committee, the Convocation Committee, Student Government, Glee Club, and is Service Chairman of Y-Teens. Her contributions to the Pep Club have been unrelenting. She enjoyed her part in the Senior Play, but not quite as much as she cherishes her job as assistant-editor of the U-Hi Lights.

Her enjoyment of the U-Hi Lights assignment is perfectly understandable since she plans to major in creative writing at college next year.

The man in her life is a fellow from Frankfort.

Jay will attend Randolph Macon.

Peek-A-Boo

Jay Bishop shocked everyone out of a year's growth when she came back from the Y-Teens Convention with a ring as big as a goose egg!

It looked as though Ann Rodgers had a fabulous time at the Prom. Betty Evans and Malinda are still watching the mailbox for news from Exeter.

Martha Marr is never at home on week-ends. UK keeps her too busy.

We've heard rumors of something between an illustrious Senior and R. G. Have you?

Ask Pegsie Lisle if she had a good time at All State Chorus.

Helen Hamilton is keeping everything a secret. However, we have an idea his name is Tom.

Is Lanny Cox making up with a certain sophomore?

Congratulations are in order here for Ann Woodward and Johnny O'Dear.

Margie Briggs has us baffled. We can't figure out which boy is the one.

We heard Rae Reed has been taking a course in Spanish since last November! It's an interesting subject.

From the happy expression on her face, we know Betty Logan has had a visitor.

Charlie Turnbull has decided to give up all his Southern prejudices and lower himself, by falling for a Yankee.

That is the last of the nasty slander for this year. Be back in September with more libel.

Y-Teens

Y-Teens elected their officers for next year on Monday, April 29. Officers elected were as follows: president—Perry Patterson; vice president—Betty Evans; secretary—Helen Hamilton; treasurer—Pegsie Lisle; inter-club council representative—Tay Maxson.

The new officers were sworn in on May 16 at the last Y-Teen meeting of the year. The newly elected officers and the old officers met on May 14 to discuss next year's plans for Y-Teens.

Perry and Tay will attend the Y-Teen camp in Tennessee from June 6 through the 10th. There they will learn new ideas about running the club and how to improve it.

Personality Parade

MOLLY PHELPS

Molly has been at U-High for four years and has contributed much to the school's morale and spirit. She is a true and faithful friend to all. Molly's pleasing personality is constant and her warm smile always makes you feel welcome.

In her years here, she has done a lot for the Pep Club. Last year she received the "best old member award," and this year she was elected president. Molly is also an active member of Y-Teens and was on the Y-Teen basketball team. Some of Molly's other school activities include Glee Club, senior play, and Masque and Gavel Talent Show.

Other interests in order are: A tall good-looking SAE, riding, reading, and Ella Fitzgerald's music. Molly's pet peeve is insincerity.

The cute brunette's most flattering color is blue, all shades. Her plans for the future are to attend the University of Kentucky.

The general feeling is that Molly is "darling," "tops," and just "terrific."

Student Government Proposes Amendment To Constitution

At its last meeting the Student Government voted to amend the article of its constitution concerning its floating membership. As the article now stands, the number of floating members to attend the Student Government meetings from the various classes is stated as one from each class. The article, as amended, will fix the floating membership so that there will be two rotating members from each of the home rooms at each meeting.

Lanny Cox, Student Government president, gave this amendment its first reading before the entire student body at the last convocation, and it will be voted on by the student body at the next convocation program.

Junior High News

Fashions

Have you noticed the unusual bracelets that are popular now? The ones with the different colored stones add just the right touch to a new spring outfit. Cultured pearl ones are rapidly becoming popular, almost everyone has at least two or three. Plastic bangle bracelets are a new rage; they are worn by the arm load in varied colors.

Also seen sailing around the halls are ever popular skirts and blouses to match, especially those of varied colored khaki. Nancy Cowden has a very good looking blazer, skirt and blouse to match. Carolyn Stivers has a most stunning pale candy-striped blouse and green skirt to match.

Straight skirts are in vogue now instead of the fuller, swisher ones. It may be predicted that by next summer straight skirts will have come completely into fashion, replacing the fuller ones. Also a few other predictions are: hair styles will become slightly more gamin-like; yellow will become a very popular color; fashions will continue on their way to becoming more feminine; formals will become more be-ribboned and be-bowed and shorter; hem lines will come up; sleeves will be shorter; and fashions will, on the whole, be lighter and prettier and more suitable to the girl of tomorrow.

U-Hi Students Attend State Youth Assembly

Delegates from U-Hi attending the annual three day Youth Assembly in Frankfort on April 24th were: Helen Hamilton, Jayne Bishop, Puddin Newbury, Betty Evans, Mary Lynne Davis, Perry Patterson, Linda Lutes, Margie Biggs, and Pegsie Lisle.

This annual event affords outstanding teen-agers a chance to run the state government and to see just what goes on in the capitol. The governorship, the Lt. governorship and other state positions are held and run by teen-agers during the assembly.

During the second day the assembly was addressed by Kentucky's Governor A. B. Chandler.

On the third day the assembly elected and installed new officers and made the presentation of awards.

Len—"Tell Sherry hello!"
Bunny—"I'm not ready yet, Mary"
Bucky—"See my new gun catalog?"
Libby—"Love is strange"
Johnny H.—"What did I say?"
Carolyn M.—"He came over last night!"
Rufus—"Let's dance!"
Dill—"Let's go to Woodberry Forest!"
Billy—"Hey, Judy, wait!"
Winnie—"I can't get this make-up off."
Don—"Cincinnati won again!"
Mary F.—"I just like 'em all!"
Bobby—"Please listen to the Student Government report."
Louise—"Did he do that?"
Jack—"Hey look, Johnny! Wow."
Jeanie R.—"I'm sorry"

Peep-Eye

War and Peace is over but War'ren and Stivers is just beginning.

Everyone, especially Betsy, is sorry to hear that Jimmy is leaving.

Lynne seems to like Dean. Good luck, Lynne!

Barbara still has a twinkle in her eye. Take a guess why?

Frances Jewell seems to have more boys than she knows what to do with.

Special to all boys: Patty Whitt is unattached. By the way, Patty, what became of that Freshman?

We hear that Lee DeJoe and Dick Chamberlain are an item now!

There is one very lucky Freshman girl who doesn't give a "Boo" about other boys these days. Way to go, Linda!

Isn't it great that Nancy and Hugh finally tied that "ever-loving knot" and are going steady?

Why doesn't someone grab Jack; he's free!

Since Mary Frances and Chuck have called it quits, she seems to have an eye out for Charley now.

All we can say is how does Bunny do it? Only four on that string now!

Of course, this column wouldn't be complete without a mention of Web and Carolyn, Judy and Billy, Louise and Johnny, and Rufus, Jeanie and Clay, and Len and Sherry.

Best of luck to Mary and Joe C.!

Sports

Baseball's In The Air

At Athens the University Purples were beaten by only one run. The score was only 7-1 (in favor of the Athens Tigers, we might add) when the U-Hi team began to hustle in the top of the 7th inning. Still the Purples couldn't quite make it and found themselves being squeezed by 8-7.

The game with Lafayette was not so close and was a quite decisive victory for the Generals. Final score? 25-0!

The excellent pitching by lanky Herky Rupp paced the Purples to their first win of the season, revenging the Athens Tigers by a score of 6-5. Behind the Purples offensive was William Wenneker who hit both a single and a double.

The Purples were then beaten by Garth and Lexington Catholic. Next they were ousted from the District Tournament by Nicholasville.

One might say that the Purples have been beaten all year, but we know they have won all year. They have fought with a will even though they could not find the way. Perhaps this brings to mind a very famous quotation — "No matter whether we win or lose, it's the way we play the game." So congratulations for a job well done, U-Hi!

Teachers Receive Honors From P.T.A.

Several weeks ago a convocation program was presented in honor of the University High School faculty in observance of Teacher Appreciation Week.

Mrs. Irving Gail contributed greatly to the success of the program by writing and directing a play for the occasion. Masque and Gavel members, parents, and children of the University School participated in the play, which was entitled C.P.A.—Children-Parent Association. It was a take-off on the P.T.A. (Parent-Teacher Association).

At the program's close, each teacher was presented with a desk pen set by Dr. Stanley Wall, P.T.A. president.

Jeanne Shaver Receives NOMA Typing Award

Jeanne Shaver was the second-place winner in the annual typing contest which was sponsored by the Lexington Chapter of the National Office Management Association on April 20. Typing students from more than 20 Central Kentucky high schools participated in the typewriting, shorthand, and bookkeeping contests.

For her achievement Jeanne was awarded a pen and pencil set by the Lexington NOMA president, John Yellman, on May 2. All of the contest winners and their teachers were guests of honor at the organization's annual education night dinner which was held in the U-High Cafeteria.

U-Hi Lights' Editors Get Journalism Awards

Betty Logan Lehman and Jayne Bishop will receive the Enoch Grehan journalism awards for their outstanding service in scholastic journalism at the annual Honor's Day Convocation. Dr. Niel Plummer, director of the University of Kentucky School of Journalism, announced their winning of this award in an April news release.

Polio Vaccine Contest

The upper three grades at U-Hi are in competition with six local schools to see which school can get 100% of its students to have received at least two polio shots.

The schools entered in the race are U-Hi, Lafayette, Henry Clay, Dunbar, Douglass, Lexington Catholic, and Athens. U-Hi is ahead so far with 100% with one shot. Only six more people are left to have their second shot.

The school that wins will receive a $50 cash prize and the homeroom in each school that has 100% first receives $12.

U-Hi Lighters Attend Press Conference

The U-Hi Lights was represented by its editor, Betty Logan Lehman, and its assistant makeup editor, Elsie Barr, at the Kentucky High School Press Clinic on the University of Kentucky campus on March 21.

Also there were lectures for the students representing each high school's yearbook or annual. University School students attending the annual sessions were Margie Biggs, Carolyn Stroud, Ernie Clark, Nancy Davis, and Linda Kaufman.

Band Receives Superior Rating

Guignol Theatre Play Features U-Hi Actors

Four U-Hi students were cast in the Guignol Theatre's latest production, "Teahouse of the August Moon." Carolyn Stroud had one of the lead roles by being cast as Lotus Blossom, a part which displayed her dancing ability. Two sophomores were also in the play—Freda Miller and Joe Curry—as was a fifth grader, Ken Barrett. Mrs. Robinson in her "Green Room Gossip" compliments these U-Hi actors quite highly.

U-Highers Score Well In Speech Contests

Several U-Hi students won superior ratings in the annual speech contests on both the state and regional levels. Carolyn Stroud, Bobby Griffin, and Jeanie Rich received superior ratings in the State Festival which was held on the UK campus on April 10-11; Freda Miller received an excellent rating. Lindsay Nunn was eligible to participate in the state contest also; however she did not compete this year because she was out of the state at that time.

The state contestants also received superior ratings in their respective categories at Richmond on March 22 in the Regional Speech Festival: Freda Miller for her humorous monologue; Jeanie Rich, poetry reading; Lindsay Nunn, dramatic reading; Carolyn Stroud, dramatic reading; and Bobby Griffin, discussion.
