The Historical Records Survey program is one of the many valuable and permanent undertakings of the Work Projects Administration. One division of this work is the Church Records Survey. The Federal Government has recognized that in the field of history churches and their organizations occupy an important place. Under the program as planned the work will extend to every religious body of every creed in all the states in the Union.

Of particular interest to Baptists is that part of the program which concerns the Baptist associations and churches of North Carolina. This work is already in progress and will be pressed toward completion. Under the direction of an able supervisory staff, located in Raleigh, one or more workers is assigned to each association. These workers make a careful and industrious search for all church records, printed or in manuscript, minutes of associations, and any other materials that may serve the purpose of the Survey. With this material in hand the editorial staff prepares a short sketch of the association and its constituent churches, which is published in a separate volume.

Those who are interested in church history will find these volumes most valuable. For both the association and each local church is given a complete list of all records that have been discovered and from which the sketches have been constructed, with a statement of where they may be found. For the association, the time and place of its organization are given with a list of its charter churches. Some account is also given of the officers, especially the first and those of the present time. For each church a like care is exercised in giving essential historical data, such as the time and place of constitution, the constituting officers, the location and character of the houses of worship, and the growth or decrease in number of members.

This work is comprehensive and will be invaluable. It preserves from loss essential facts about our churches. Every one who is interested in our religious history will greatly appreciate it. It will be most helpful also in creating an interest in preserving church records, as emphasis is placed on locating and inventorying the old and rapidly disappearing records of the churches. No reader of these sketches can fail to recognize the great significance of organized religious bodies in the life of the nation.

The first section of the report discusses the general situation of the country and the progress of the war. It mentions the military operations and the political events that have taken place since the beginning of the conflict. The author notes the challenges faced by the government and the impact of the war on the civilian population.

The second section provides a detailed account of the military operations. It describes the movements of the troops, the battles fought, and the strategic decisions made by the command. The author highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the forces involved and the overall progress of the campaign.

The third section focuses on the political and administrative aspects of the war. It discusses the role of the government, the policies implemented, and the challenges of maintaining order and providing for the needs of the population. The author also touches upon the international relations and the support received from other countries.

The fourth section concludes the report by summarizing the key findings and providing recommendations for the future. The author emphasizes the importance of continued military efforts and the need for political stability to achieve a lasting peace. The report ends with a final assessment of the current situation and the outlook for the future.

PREFACE

The Historical Records Survey was created in the winter of 1935-36 as a nation-wide Works Progress Administration project for the "discovery, preservation and listing of basic materials for research in the history of the United States."¹ Under the direction of Dr. Luther H. Evans, the Survey undertook an extensive program for the inventory of state and local archives, early American imprints, church archives, and collections of manuscripts. Pursuant to the provisions of the Emergency Relief Act passed June 30, 1939, the existence of the Survey as a single nation-wide project sponsored by WPA itself was terminated August 31, 1939; and the work of the Survey was continued within the individual States by locally sponsored projects operating within the national WPA Historical Records Survey Program which continued under the direction of Dr. Evans until his resignation and the subsequent appointment of Sargent B. Child on March 1, 1940.

The North Carolina Project of the national Historical Records Survey was established February 1, 1936, with Dr. C. C. Crittenden, Secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, as Director. Until November 1936 the Survey operated as an autonomous unit of the Federal Writers' Project directed in North Carolina by Edwin Bjorkman. Dr. Crittenden resigned as State Director June 30, 1937, and was succeeded by Dan Lacy, who had previously served as Assistant State Director. Mr. Lacy resigned April 2, 1940, to accept the position of Assistant to the Director of Historical Records Survey Projects in Washington, and was succeeded by Colbert F. Crutchfield as State Supervisor. The work of the North Carolina unit of the Historical Records Survey has been continued by the North Carolina Historical Records Survey Project established September 1, 1939, and sponsored by the North Carolina Historical Commission.

The Inventory of the Church Archives of North Carolina is one of a number of bibliographies of historical materials being prepared throughout the United States by workers on the Historical Records Survey Program. A separate section of the inventory will be devoted to each denomination, or to each subdivision of a denomination which affords a publishable unit within itself. The publication herewith presented, an inventory of the records of the Stanly Association, is such a unit of the Southern Baptist Convention, with which denominational body the Stanly Association is affiliated. Field work for the inventory was done by Charles M. Dry. Entries were written by Mrs. Lucy F. Hartsfield. The inventory was prepared under the supervision of Joseph T. Chesnutt and was read for the sponsor by Dr. C. C. Crittenden, Secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission. Editorial comments and criticism have been furnished by Donald A. Thompson, Assistant Archivist in charge of Church Archives Inventories. The Survey is indebted to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention for supplies used in this publication; to M. A. Huggins, Secretary-Treasurer of that body, for his interest in and support of the work; to Dr. G. W. Paschal, of Wake Forest College, who read and criticized the inventory; and to officials and members of the Stanly Association, who generously co-operated in the work.

The Survey gratefully acknowledges the co-operation and support of Miss Charlie Huss, State Supervisor of the Research and Records Program of the Division of Community Service Programs, and members of her staff.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. The Wake Forest College Library, Wake Forest, N. C., has been designated as the official depository for non-current records of the associations and churches affiliated with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.
2. The full names of persons mentioned in this inventory are given if this information was available.
3. The information appearing in this publication has been obtained chiefly by Survey workers through personal interviews with pastors and church clerks. It has been supplemented when possible by research in available printed and manuscript sources. Computations of membership and dates of constitution of churches have been obtained when possible from printed minutes of this and other associations to which the particular church has belonged.
4. Occasional references may be made in the entries to churches not included in the inventory. In such cases an entry for the church mentioned normally will be found in the forthcoming volume for the denomination or denominational unit to which that church at present belongs.
5. Gaps in the records listed for some churches are due either to the fact that they were not kept, were destroyed, or were simply not found after a careful search by workers.
6. No particular effort has been made to locate all Sunday School records as they are usually of temporary character. If easily available, they have been listed.
7. Associations referred to are affiliated with the North Carolina State Baptist Convention unless otherwise indicated.
8. A dash (--) placed after a date indicates continuance to present date or to time of survey.

STANLY ASSOCIATION

On October 25, 1885, the Rocky River Association passed a motion which provided that all churches to the east of Rocky River were to meet at Poplin's Grove Baptist Church on Friday before the 3rd Sabbath in November 1885 for the purpose of organizing a Stanly Association.¹ Apparently this meeting was not held, or the organization was not completed, as the association proper was organized at Silver Springs Church December 5, 1885, "pursuant to a resolution of the Stanly Baptist Union."² It is not known when this union meeting was held; but as Baptist union meetings were usually held on the fifth Sunday, it is probable that it was held at some other date than that provided for in the action of the Rocky River Association.

At the organizational meeting four churches from the Rocky River Association (Silver Springs, which was dismissed in 1884;³ and Barbee's Grove, Pleasant Grove, and Canton, all of which withdrew in 1885⁴) united with Poplin's Grove and Mount Olive (both of which withdrew from the Pee Dee Association in 1885⁵) and two probably newly constituted churches, Union Grove and Locust,⁶ to form the Stanly Association.

Since its organization the association has grown rapidly. Newly constituted churches accepted in the association have included First Church of Albemarle, China Grove, Cottonville, and Zion Hill in 1889;⁷ Philadelphia and New London (old) in 1891;⁸ West Albemarle in 1903;⁹ New London (new) in 1905;¹⁰ Plyler and Smyrna in 1908;¹¹ Mt. Pleasant and Wyatt's Grove in 1911;¹² Antioch in 1912;¹³ Miami in 1913;¹⁴ Bethel and Porter in 1915;¹⁵ Oakboro in 1916;¹⁶ North Albemarle and Aquadale in 1919;¹⁷ Grace and Yadkin in 1921;¹⁸ Richfield in 1925;¹⁹ Stanfield and West Oakboro in 1926;²⁰ Paul's Crossing in 1935;²¹ Oak Grove in 1936;²² Fairview in 1937;²³ and Poplin's Grove in 1939.²⁴ Other additions came from adjoining associations. Prospect Church was received from Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Association in 1894,²⁵ and Chancey's Hill in 1903.²⁶ From Pee Dee Association came Anderson Grove, Kendall's, and Palmerville in 1888;²⁷ Badin and Gold Hill in 1889;²⁸ and Norwood in 1900.²⁹ Elizabeth, Corinth, and Mineral Springs in 1886³⁰ and Mount Zion in 1887³¹ were received from Rocky River Association. Mission Church appears in the minutes for the first time in 1895 with no mention regarding its being received from another association or being newly constituted.³²

Since its organization the association has lost fifteen churches. Mt. Pleasant, Wyatts Grove, and Corinth were dismissed in 1927 to unite with Rowan Association;³³ Midland in 1936 to unite with Cabarrus Association;³⁴ and Miami in 1914 to unite with Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Association.³⁵ Other churches have simply ceased to be reported as members of the association and probably became defunct near the date last mentioned. These churches, with the dates of the last minutes in which they were reported, are: Mt. Zion, 1888; China Grove, 1889; Elizabeth, 1893; Zion Hill, 1897; New London (old), 1898; Poplin's Grove, 1904; Gold Hill, 1907; Yadkin, 1925; and Smyrna, 1929. An effort to revive Smyrna during the next 2 or 3 years failed.

The membership of the association has increased rapidly. In 1885 the constituent churches reported a total membership of 417; in 1895 this had increased to 1,447; in 1903 to 2,259; in 1913 to 3,624; in 1923 to 5,001; in 1933 to 5,962; and in 1938 to 6,624.³⁶

The organization of the Stanly Association is simple. Its working body is composed of all ordained ministers serving its churches, and three or more messengers elected annually from each church. No courtesy seats are extended except to these persons. The ministers and messengers meet in annual sessions for worship and the transaction of business. The elected officers of the association are a moderator, vice-moderator, historian, clerk, and treasurer. It is the duty of the moderator to preside at meetings, appoint committees, and perform such other duties as are required of presiding officers. The duty of the vice-moderator is to preside in the absence of the moderator. It is the duty of the historian to submit at each annual meeting a historical sketch of one of the constituent churches. The clerk is to keep a record of the proceedings of the association and see that the minutes are printed and distributed among the churches. The treasurer has charge of all funds of the association and may pay them out only under the direction of the association. He must submit annual reports to the association of all receipts and disbursements.³⁷ Committees are usually appointed to encourage subscriptions to religious periodicals; to solicit support for missions and for various denominational institutions; to encourage attendance at denominational schools; to stimulate Sunday Schools; and to select the date, place, and preacher for the next annual meeting. An executive committee supervises the general affairs of the association and devotes itself especially to the provision of adequate ministerial and missionary service in the area of the association. A promotion committee works in connection with the State Mission Board in matters pertaining to general denominational interests within the association.³⁸

The records of the association are kept only in the form of printed minutes of the annual sessions, which include lists of delegates, ministers, and committee members; a record of proceedings; reports of committees; financial reports; and statistical reports covering membership, Sunday School, property, and finances of the constituent churches.

Since the organization of the association the following men have served as moderators:³⁹
