

The Daily Bushwa.

VOL. 1.

MARCH 30th, 1908.

NO. 4.

JOHN M. WHAYNE, Editor;

HARRY BLOOM, Ass't. and German Editor

WALLACE B. OUEBACKER, Bus., Mgr.

Price, one cent per copy, five cents per week.

Prof. R. E. Hill Faculty's Representative.

| | |
|----------------|------------------|
| Willie Osborne | Senior Reporter. |
| Clarence Vogt | Junior “ |
| Charlie Morris | Soph. “ |
| A. Whayne | Fresh. “ |

Henry and George are in town.
Ask Ryan for an introduction.

Ignorance makes the heart grow fonder.

They say that Allie Combs Head
in order to prevent the Windy Breed.

Tubby, Norman, Duffy, Irish,
Had a little Scrap,
When, Tubby, Norman, gave Duffy,
Irish, quite a little rap.
But Duffy, Irish, — Irish risen,
Rose up with all his might.
Now all are looking, even wondering,
When Tubby will a-light.

Buy your weiners and hamburgers from A. Barth at the dog wagon
Patronize our advertisers

For sale: A Latin jack, 2 answer books, 4 signed excuse-blanks, and a pair of ballet slippers.

JULIAN BADBURY.

A beer in hand is worth two in the keg.

A certain young 'fessor named May,
Had a scrap with some Freshmen one day.

His rule they defied, and 42 died,
The rest won't get well, but May may

How is it the biggest grafter in school is nearest Heaven? Ask Ryan, 31.50

The Goodman joke grew stale,
The Sigo joke grew rank,
But the Lazarus joke grew worst of all,

In fact, it actually stank,

Did you get your funny supplement yesterday?

A little money goes a long way,
if you don't spend it.

LOST: A package of Home Runs.

IRWIN ROEDERER.