

I do wish you girls knew him. You never saw such a charming fellow. He is the most genial, sunny-tempered kind-hearted boy in all the world. I can't help calling him "boy" though he is a man in years, mind & appearance.

There seems to be something so naive & innocent about him. And yet, strange to say, he is a great flirt — has had half a dozen love-affairs from which he was always the one to haul off. He & May have been perfectly inseparable — he has been making love to her with might & main all the week, but she treats him just like a boy as Cousin Liza does. Liza says that she & Tom have been engaged off & on for seven
