TRAPPIST KENTUCKY 40073

Dear Jonathan

Thanks for letting me see the Pemble poems. I'll keep them in mind for Pond iii (Fall) Are they in a book that will be out before then? (Probably October). Let me know as that will affect the decision. II is about full. I haven't quite organized it yet, not sure just what of yours I'm using but I think the Chinese poems. Maybe Desnos too -- or leave that til 3.

Parra was here and may come again. Laughlin says he will be back in the country this summer. I hope so, and will let you know.

Best always,

Tam.
