SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The design of this department is to afford persons who receive money in small sums, and are desirous of saving it, the means of employing it to advantage without running the risk of losing it. To encourage the industrious and frugal to lay by such part of their earnings as they may be able to spare, and to provide for the safe keeping of money deposited in it. To promote these desirable purposes, the following rules and regulations have been adopted:

1st. Deposits will be received in sums of one dime or more from any person; interest will be computed and allowed from the first day of the month after the deposit is made—(unless the same be made on the first or second day any month, in which case interest will be computed from date of such deposit)—to the first day of the month on which the deposit is withdrawn at the rate of three per cent per annum, on such amounts as shall have been on deposit three calendar months immediately preceding.

2nd. The accrued interest will be placed to the credit of the depositor on the first days of January and July of each year, and if not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest from the date it was computed.

It is not necessary to present Pass Book on the interest days, but may be entered in the Depositor's Pass Books at any time thereafter, at his convenience.

3d. Depositors may be required to give sixty days' notice, before withdrawing their deposits; but as a general rule they will be permitted to withdraw them at pleasure.

4th. Money deposited will be entered on the books of the Bank and also in a book to be given to each depositor. This book will be evidence of the property and as valid as a note-of-hand.

5th. A depositor, wishing to withdraw a part or all of his deposit, MUST BRING THIS PASS BOOK TO THE BANK. If, by reason of sickness or absence, he cannot come in person, his deposit may be withdrawn upon a written order, and in case of death, by his legal representatives, but in any case the pass book must be presented that such payment may be duly entered.

6th. The Bank shall be at liberty to return at any time, to any depositor, any part or the whole amount deposited for which the depositor may have credit; and may at any time decline to receive deposits, and it is hereby provided, that where any account is closed, all books and vouchers pertaining thereto must be returned to the Bank.

7th. In all cases a payment upon presentation of a deposit book shall be a discharge to the Bank for the amount so paid.

8th. All deposits made by minors or married women in their own names will be fully under their control and payable to them or their order without regard to guardian or husband.

9th. The officers of the Bank will use reasonable care to protect a depositor in case of a lost or stolen Pass Book. The depositor should at once give written notice of such loss to the officers of the Bank; but in all cases payments made to the person presenting a Pass Book shall be valid and effectual to discharge the Bank, to the extent of such payment.

10th. Depositors on signing the signature-book, thereby agree and assent to these rules and regulations, and shall be bound by them on receiving the books in which the same are printed.

The Bank may alter and amend the rules and regulations, if deemed necessary, and all such alterations shall be binding on depositors when published.

The purpose of this lesson is to interest the leaguers in mission study and organize a class. We already have a mission study class so of course it would hardly be wise to organize another. What we want to know is how we can make our mission study class a success.

Fortune Telling Game.

AUTOBIOGRAPHIES.

For this game we will take a few liberties with the long-ago custom of drawing the names of the fair ones from a box, and in place of the names will deposit descriptions of the company present, each one written by the person described. The descriptions of young men are dropped into a box from which the young women draw, and vice versa. These "autobiographies" are then read aloud and guessed by acclamation by the listeners. Here are but two to make my meaning clearer: "I have blue eyes, curly brown hair, a small mustache, and a Roman nose. I am five feet seven inches in height, weigh about one hundred and twenty-five pounds; and my common expression is 'My land! Do you know me?' -- "Although I weigh one hundred and forty-five pounds, I am slender. My face is oval, with hazel eyes, and thick, black hair combed in a soft puff around the face; my neck is short. I often remark, 'No! Really?' Do you know me?"

WORD TEST.

The game consists in changing the given sentences into other sentences meaning the same, written in words containing ten letters each. The first six sentences contain, when changed, three ten-letter words, and the last three contain five ten-letter words. Each guest should be given a sheet of paper with the sentences written out, and the hostess or some one selected by her should be the judge to decide whether the sentences submitted by the guests, if not in the words supplied, are as satisfactory in meaning. The sentences to be given to the guests are as follows:

1. The father of his country became afflicted with pains in his joints.
2. The Golden State fulfilled expectations.
3. The hero of Waterloo put down rebellions.
4. Empires keep alive the system of primogeniture.
5. Our dailies and weeklies often stretch the truth.
6. Gossips destroy the ties of love.
7. "Jefferson's party's" speeches wipe out the other party's extra votes.
8. The friendliness of the poet who lived in the South Sea Islands entirely fascinated barbaric tribes.
9. Unrestrained giving in the end greatly increases the love of one's fellows.

The answers are as follows:

1. Washington contracted rheumatism.
2. California vindicated prophecies.
3. Wellington suppressed revolution.
4. Monarchies perpetrate entailment.
5. Newspapers frequently exaggerate.
6. Busybodies extinguish affections.
7. Democratic utterances annihilate Republican majorities.
8. Stevenson's friendship completely enthralled aborigines.
9. Freehanded liberality eventually multiplies popularity.

The first answer might be given as an example.

BUILDING SENTENCES.

The hostess begins by saying one word and announces that each word of the sentence must begin with the initial letter of the given word. The player to her right gives the second word, the next player the third, and so on, until the sentence is complete only when it reaches the hostess. Each player must be careful not to give a word which with the others completes the sentence, as the hostess is the only one who is supposed to finish it - but sometimes it seems as though all the words of that letter have been taken; if this is the case, the player who finishes the sentence must pay a forfeit or drop out of the game. Suppose there are nine players and the number one says "An," number two "Angry," number three "Ape," number four "Ate," number five "Apples," thus number five is out or pays a forfeit as the sentence is completed and there are still four more to play. Thus the sentence might have been "An angry ape ate attractive, audacious, ancient April apples." This sentence is absurd, but the more ridiculous, the greater the fun.

"Safe Counsel" Answers
 All These Questions—and More.

My Dear Friend:

Do you realize that because of the ridiculous false modesty of some parents and their shameful indifference to a subject which is the root of all existence—A GREAT MANY MARRIAGES ARE FAILURES—with nobody to blame but the parents who permit their children to go to the Altar, ignorant of all that marriage does, must and should mean.

Right now there are probably a number of very delicate, vital questions you would like to—and should ask—but won't—and you won't have to—if you will read every word of this letter—and then ACT—for it tells how you can secure "Safe Counsel" an authoritative and reliable book on the Relations of the Sexes and Ethics of the Nuptial Chamber. It is not a book for children—but a book for mature young Men and Women—Husbands and Wives—Fathers and Mothers. Neither is it a Sunday School book, but a book treating on Sexual Truths and Sexual Problems in very plain but in pure, chaste easy-to-understand language.

The study of Self and Sex is now a part of our college education. The need and importance of the study of this subject has become so recognized that the entire nation is aroused in an effort to readjust the once false code of delicacy but just why it has taken so many years to overcome the prevailing false modesty and total ignorance on a subject so vital to health and happiness is beyond sound judgment.

WHY!—DO YOU KNOW that the main cause of unhappiness, ill-health, sickly children, divorce, womb troubles, disease and premature death is admitted by physicians and shown by court records to be ignorance of the laws of Self and Sex? Pick up any newspaper and read the long list of divorces—read of the young bride of only a few months that must undergo a serious surgical operation—read of the nervous, miserable, broken down young men and young women that go to the hospital or sanitarium, etc. AND THE CAUSE? Many and varied are the excuses given but go to the bottom of it all and in about nine times out of ten you will find that it is IGNORANCE—ignorance of the Laws of Nature, of Self and of Sex.

In "Safe Counsel" you will find the needed information to enable you to understand—to master all sexological matters and if it saves you from but one little mistake or one false move, it will pay you dividends a hundred times in excess of your investment.

THERE IS NO RED TAPE to go through. Simply fill out the coupon on the other side—pin a TWO DOLLAR BILL or two ONES to this letter—and MAIL. This is a SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY PRICE and is good for 30 days ONLY.

YOUR MONEY BACK—"Safe Counsel" is always sent on approval and if you are not entirely satisfied you can have your money back any time within ten days—without fuss or parley—if you are willing to return the book. You take no chances—so send YOUR order TODAY and "Safe Counsel" will reach you in plain wrapper by return parcel post.

Yours very truly,

MARION MOORE.
