SO. AMERICAN SNAKE GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

Mr. Henry J. Egalite, of the Egalite-Wilson Fruit Company, of this city, has presented to the Zoology Department of the University of Kentucky a fine specimen of a Central American tree snake which was found in a shipment of bananas.

This snake is the first specimen of its kind to be procured for the University collection. It is young, very active and is attracting considerable attention among the zoology students. Dr. Funkhouser will attempt to keep it alive for some time for purposes of study.

The reptile had apparently remained dormant while the fruit was in cold storage in transit, but became active when the bananas were transferred to the ripening room of the fruit company's plant.

PERCY MC KAY WILL SEE HIS PLAY GIVEN HERE

Talented Players Will Present "The Cat Boat" in Chapel.

"The Cat Boat," Percy McKay's most delightful and best known play, will be presented by a notable cast in the University Chapel on the evenings of May 16 and 17, with Mr. McKay as guest of honor. Mr. McKay is making a trip from Miami University, where he is now located, to see the presentation of the play. The cast is composed of the following talented and capable actors: Mrs. Matt Walton, Professor J. T. C. Noe, Miss Mamie Miller Woods, and Mrs. B. F. Van Meter.

Little Theater.

In consideration to the exhibition by the girls' gymnasium class which is to be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on Stoll Field, the afternoon performance of "The Hour Glass," one of the series of matinee teas which have been given this year has been arranged to be held at 2:00 o'clock instead of the usual hour of 4:00. The play is being presented with a capable cast, and is in itself a delightful piece of work. The cast which has been selected for the presentation of "The Hour Glass" is: Eleanor Heath as the Wise Man; Margaret Parrish as the Angel, and James Shouse as the Fool.

THE UNIVERSITY AND ITS EXPENSE BILLS

How Does It "Get By?" is Puzzle of the State Journal.

[Frankfort State Journal.]

"Occasionally," says a bulletin concerning the work of Kentucky University, "a citizen of the state wonders what becomes of the money that is spent by the University of Kentucky. He wonders if the appropriations are not rather large."

The State Journal is troubled by no such speculations. It wonders how the University of Kentucky manages to peg away at its work under present conditions upon the slender means with which it is provided. It knows the character and the calibre of some of the members of the institution's staff because it knows the men personally. It knows enough about the achievements of the University to know that it is highly useful to the State. It knows that the Kentucky Legislature has not been lavish in its bestowals upon the University. If others do not know as much, they should.

The University staff numbers nearly 350 persons. Its plant, buildings and equipment pass the $1,000,000 mark and constitute a good investment for the state because the ground upon which the buildings stand, the Experiment Station farm and the buildings are worth more than they cost.

The Kentucky farmer who does not in some way and at some time draw directly upon the Agricultural Experiment Station for information is a farmer who overlooks an opportunity to help himself. Aid which comes indirectly to farmers through the instrumentality of the Experiment Station as an educator of farmers is of value easily understood which cannot be expressed in figures.

The Experiment Station teaches progressive farmers better, and more profitably, methods of treatment of soil, feeding of livestock, management of poultry, construction and maintenance of buildings. It teaches them to farm up hill—in the direction of the top—instead of farming down hill and making it uphill work. Through the progressive farmer to his less progressive neighbor filters more or less slowly the education the more pro-

KEYS HOLD INITIATION TEN GOATS TAKEN IN

Any one passing along Winslow street between 8 and 9 o'clock last Thursday evening would have been puzzled by the medley of weird sounds, resembling those of wildcats turned loose, issuing from Stoll Field. The occasion was none other than the initiation of the recent pledges of the Keys Fraternity. After the "rough work" on Stoll Field had been finished the initiators and pledges went to the Chapel room of the Sigma Nu Fraternity House, where the pledges were given the ritual and installed as members of the Keys Fraternity. George Rouse was elected president.

The pledges taken into the fraternity are: E. M. Heavrin, James Cammack, Dan Morse, George Rouse, Henry Campbell, Edward Byers, Coleman Hunter, Robert Glownoll, Madison Carwein and John Piley.

WILDCATS LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH THURSDAY

Will Play Tennessee and Vanderbilt—No More Games Here.

With the Vanderbilt game the Wildcat ball team put in their last appearance on Stoll Field this season, as the remaining eight games are scheduled on the road. Thursday night the Cats leave for Knoxville, where they will engage the University of Tennessee team on Friday and Saturday. Sunday the team will journey over to Nashville and play the Commodores on Tuesday and Wednesday, returning to Lexington Thursday morning.

The ball club has experienced one of its most disastrous seasons in years. Of the seven games played at home they have won three and lost four, but have scored only 20 runs while their opponents have piled up 45. The hitting weakness of the club has especially been disappointing, due to the great batting power of the team last year. The boys have erred like sandlotters all season and seem to lack the "punch" necessary to win. Not only fumbles and wobbles have hurt the boys, but poor baseball in the pinches.

Eight more games are on the schedule. After the trip South, Cincinnati, Georgetown, Kentucky Wesleyan and Centre will be played on their home grounds. The boys expect to win over

BATTALION OF CADETS AND BAND ESCORT THE VENEZUELAN MINISTER

South American Comes To Pay Homage To Henry Clay

GOVERNOR SPEAKS

Great Commoner Honored by Visitors and Kentuckians

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the special Venezuelan mission led by Dr. Esaban Gil-Borges, who arrived in Lexington Sunday morning to conduct the memorial services at the grave of Henry Clay, placed a bronze wreath on the tomb of the great statesman in commemoration of his ardent protection and advocacy of Pan-American rights. In the Venezuelan party were Dr. Gil-Borges, Dr. Jose Santiago Rodrigues and Harp C. Plummer as secretary, accompanied by Governor and Mrs. Edwin P. Morrow who were entertained at Ashland with luncheon.

At 2 o'clock the commission joined a parade which was led by the cadet corps and band of the University as an escort to the cemetery where the services attendant to the placing of the wreath were held. The memorial wreath which was brought to Lexington Saturday morning was placed in the care of the Board of Commerce which moved in front of the parade to the cemetery.

The ceremonies at the monument which were exceedingly impressive, with the battalion lined up in review, consisted of an address of welcome by Judge Samuel Wilson, a response by one of the members of the Venezuelan mission and a speech of acceptance in the name of the State of Kentucky by Governor Morrow after Dr. Gil-Borges had placed the wreath on the tomb containing the casket of Henry Clay.

A. A. E. TO GIVE DANCE IN DICKER HALL

Most elaborate plans are being made by the American Association of Engineers for a masquerade dance which this organization is planning to give on Thursday evening, May 26, from 8:00 to 1:00 in Dickier Hall, Engineering Department of the University. At intermission a plate lunch will be served to the guests.

The dance will be the climax of Engineers' Day, which will be held here on that date for the men of the A. A. E. and the alumni of this association. Only the men who belong to this organization will be invited to attend the dance because of the incapacity of the hall to accommodate any more guests. This is the first time in the history of the department that they have entertained in this manner and no expenses or efforts will be spared in making this one of the most brilliant affairs of the social season.

SIGMA ALJSHA EPSILON GIVES HOUSE DANCE

The members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity were hosts at an informal dance given at their house on the corner of Lime and Maxwell streets, Saturday evening and dancing was enjoyed from 9 to 12.

The house was beautifully decorated in purple and gold, the colors of the fraternity, and during the intermission refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. About thirty girls were the guests for the occasion.

REGRET AND CONGRATULATIONS

The announcement of the retirement by resignation of Miss Josephine Simrall from the faculty of the University of Kentucky, who for two years has been Dean of Women has been received with pronounced regret.

Miss Simrall came to the University when it was in the formative process of reconstruction, and with wisdom and understanding, applied herself to the problems always present in woman's education.

The regret caused by the resignation of Miss Simrall is mitigated by the announcement that Miss Frances Jewell, will succeed to the position vacated by Miss Simrall.

Miss Jewel was graduated from Vassar College and later took her Masters degree at the Columbia University, augmenting her marked native ability with that training which has made her one of the outstanding figures in the University faculty.

In this issue of the Kernel is reprinted an editorial clipped from the State Journal which is interesting in that it gives us the view of a typical Kentucky newspaper on the perplexing problem of financing the University.

Such active interest as is manifested by the State Journal is becoming prevalent throughout the state.

Kentuckians everywhere are realizing the plight of the University and representative newspapers in all sections are taking up the appeal through their editorial columns for financial aid from the next session of the Legislature.

The Kernel is well pleased with the rapidity with which the work toward perfecting the Students' Self Government organization is going forward.

We note that the committee appointed by President McVey to draw up articles for the constitution has begun work in earnest and has expressed the belief that the first draft of the document will be subject to the approval or rejection of the student body in a few days.

The work cannot be finished too soon. The sooner the councilmen are sworn into office the better. Kentucky cannot count herself a first-class University until her students are living under some form of self-government.

Kentucky Academy of Science to Meet Here

The eighth annual meeting of the Kentucky Academy of Science will be held at the University of Kentucky, Saturday, May 14, 1921. This institution was founded for the purpose of promoting the diffusion of useful scientific knowledge, to encourage scientific research, and to unify the scientific interests of the state.

THE UNIVERSITY AND ITS EXPENSE BILLS

A progressive man gets directly, deliberately, from the University's farming branch and upon which he sets a high value. Thus Kentucky farming—the largest industry in the state and the feeder of all industries and institutions in the state—is bettered.

There are, roughly, 280,000 farms in Kentucky. If an average of four persons live on each farm more than one million Kentuckians get their living directly from the soil. Let us suppose that improved farming resulting from the work of the Agricultural Experiment Station puts one dollar into the pockets of each Kentuckian who lives from the soil.

Nothing which the State does, nothing for which taxpayers pay is more important than work which causes farmers to institute improved methods and increase their profits. Ask your banker if that is not true. Ask a railroad president. If either says the State Journal is wrong on this point let the State Journal know it and we shall publish the assertion.

We have spoken here of the work of the University as an institution returning hard cash by improving the state's largest industry. That is one of its functions merely. A College of Arts and Sciences, a College of Engineering, a College of Law, a College of Agriculture in which young men are taught to farm better than their fathers—work aside from that of the Experiment Station—physical training of teachers are among the activities of Kentucky University.

Do you wonder what it does with the money it gets? We don't. We wonder how it contrives to get along without the money it does not get. We shall discuss the matter again, and present some figures showing how modest is Kentucky's support of Kentucky University.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS

WORK IS BEGUN ON THE COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

Committee to Draft Document Meets and Perfects Organization.

The first meeting of the committee to draft the constitution for the Students' Self Government system was held in President McVey's office Thursday afternoon. Work was begun on the constitution, which will be submitted to the student body for ratification within two weeks.

M. K. Ehlen, president of the Senior class, was elected permanent chairman, and Berl Boyd secretary of the committee, and four subcommittees were appointed to draft various parts of the constitution. Eligibility of voters and qualifications of candidates for student council positions were the most important phases of the prospective constitution discussed.

It is the hope of the committee that the constitution may be submitted and ratified within two weeks and the council members for next year be elected before the end of the present month.

The committee which is drawing up the provisions of the Students' Self Government constitution were appointed by President McVey and are as follows: M. K. Ehlen, J. H. Taylor, Fred Houston-Shaw, Herndon Evans, Donald Dinning, Berl Boyd, Ed Gregg, J. W. Crenshaw, E. A. Swisshelm, R. L. Ringo, W. S. Anderson and Douglass Vest.

The party will arrive here Monday morning, May 16, and will make a thorough inspection of the entire physical property of the institution, after which it will go on a trip to inspect several northern institutions of learning. The commission will return here Saturday, May 21, and will be entertained by the men's clubs of the city.

WILDCATS LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH

Georgetown and Wesleyan, but Cincinnati proved a fearful opponent in the game here and Centre displayed her dangerous qualities.

Not a little of the poor showing made by the Wildcats has been due to the inclement weather that has been experienced all spring. Cooper is a hot weather pitcher and rarely ever works to advantage on a raw day. It is hoped that the team will encounter some agreeable weather on its southern trip. Ridgeway and Stoner continue to improve in batting, Beam and Propps are near the .300 mark, and Brown should come through with a flock of base hits before long. Some of the other boys are long overdue on their hits.

University Orchestra Will Give Concert in Chapel Sunday.

The Glee Club of the University, under the direction of Professor Carl Lampert, will present a delightful and well selected program before a Richmond audience in the high school auditorium of that city, Tuesday night, May 10. The club is giving its program under the auspices of the Richmond Woman's Club, with Mrs. H. S. Bornham in charge of all arrangements. A dinner, a dance and other entertainment have been planned by the Richmond people for the men in the club during their stay there.

Symphonies by Orchestra.
The University orchestra will present a charming symphonic program to the public in the University Chapel, Sunday afternoon, May 15. The orchestra has made a good showing this year and has given splendid and exceptional concerts. With the rich talent it possesses, the untiring efforts of Professor Lampert and the willingness and ability of the members, the orchestra has done a great work for the University. In connection with its regular concerts and work it has made several trips accompanying the Strollers to surrounding towns with "The Admirable Crichton."

The program Sunday afternoon will be composed mainly of symphonies, especially a part of the Haydn Symphony, which is loved by all who know it. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy the privilege of this unusual occasion.

"You may lead a horse to water
But you cannot make him drink."
So says an ancient proverb.
In those very words, I think,
But as a modern prophet
I unfold this doctrine curt,
"You may lead a dear to moonlight,
But you cannot make her flirt."

In Selecting a University—

For a college education, there are five things to be taken into consideration:

1. The men at the head of the Institution.
2. The scholastic standing and ability of the Teaching Staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All Departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The Government needs trained men and women; college training will bring the result.
