SIX PRETTIEST GIRLS SELECTED IN ANNUAL KENTUCKIAN CONTEST

Ann Shropshire First, Pate, Arthur, Cowgell, Smith and Hall Follow

RACE HOTLY CONTESTED

Beauty, Not Popularity as Formerly, Requisite in This Year's Race.

Six of the fairest and most beautiful of the six hundred co-eds of the University of Kentucky were chosen Tuesday in the annual contest, held on the campus by the Kentuckian staff. Enthusiasm reached its highest degree when the report was made Tuesday night that the pictures of the following winners would adorn the beauty section of the 1924 annual: Ann Shropshire, of Versailles, Martha Pate, of Hartford; Madelyn Arthur, of Ashland; Mildred Cowgell, of Owensboro; Frances Smith, of Lexington, and Zelma Hall, of Georgetown.

Heretofore the annual contests, held for members of the fairer sex, were to determine the popularity of the six chosen. As this is the first beauty contest held in many years, a great deal of interest has been stimulated from the result.

Miss Shropshire, who received the largest number of votes, is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is a member of Chi Omega fraternity and a sponsor in company D, third platoon of the cadet battalion.

Miss Pate, a senior in the College of Agriculture, ran second. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity and has been sponsor for the band for two years. She was voted the second most popular girl in the contest of last year and was chosen the most popular girl of the sophomore class two years ago.

ENGINEERING STUDENTS HEAR NEVADA GOVERNOR

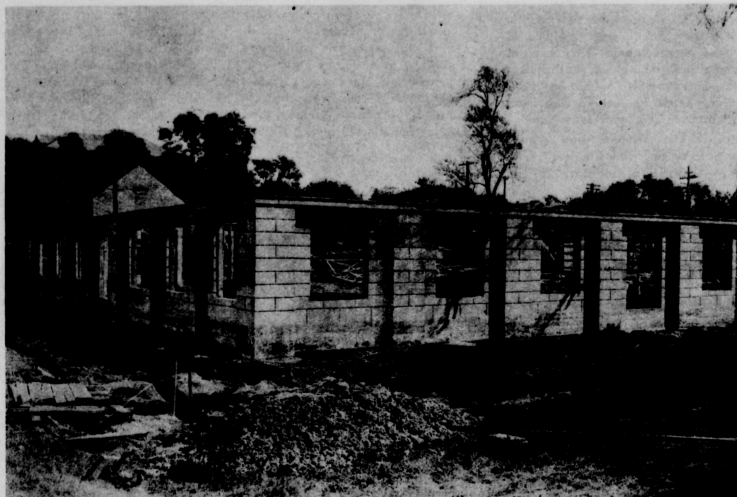

J. G. Scrugham Formerly A Student of University to Speak

Governor J. G. Scrugham, of Nevada, a former student of the University of Kentucky, will speak to the entire engineering student body in Dicker Hall, at 11 o'clock, Thursday morning, October 25.

Gov. Scrugham was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1900. From here he went to the University of Nevada, where he was a professor of mechanical engineering and later became Dean of the College of Engineering of that school. He was afterward State engineer of Nevada, until he was made governor of Nevada, January, 1923. During the World War he was a colonel in the heavy artillery.

The College of Engineering is extremely fortunate in having a man of this calibre to visit it and all engineers are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to hear Governor Scrugham Thursday.

Foundation of Basketball Building Finished

TUG OF WAR

The annual tug of war will be held Friday, November 2, at Clifton Pond. Teams of equal numbers will be selected from the freshman and sophomore classes.

FRESH CLASS PLEDGES $4,000 TO STADIUM

Forty Freshmen Leaders Make Pledge at Luncheon Saturday

Four thousand dollars in four years is the quota set for the freshman class of the University in contribution to the stadium fund. Forty leaders of the freshman class, representing both fraternity and non-fraternity groups, pledged themselves at a luncheon meeting Saturday to work among the other 800 members to raise the quota in order to give the class of 1927 credit for the erection of the basketball building now under construction.

Professor W. S. Webb, chairman of the clean-up committee of the $200,000 drive for a stadium, basketball building, student loan fund and Patterson memoria, presided at the luncheon which was held at the Lafayette Hotel. Dr. W. D. Funkhouser and nearly all of the 40 freshmen present spoke.

A full meeting of the freshman class will be held October 23 at 12:45 o'clock to vote on the proposition. Those who were present at the luncheon Saturday will work among their fellow classmates to arouse enthusiasm in the interval.

Enthusiasm and spirit at the luncheon were splendid, every student who spoke pledged himself to raise $40 or $50 during the four years of his collegiate career.

CONCRETE WORK ON NEW BASKETBALL BUILDING BE FINISHED SATURDAY

Twenty Bricklayers to Begin Work When Others Finish

WORK IS TO BE PUSHED Foundation of Concrete and Steel is Master-piece

The large force of concrete workers who have been at work on the foundation for the new University of Kentucky basketball auditorium will have finished their labors by Saturday and will be supplanted by a force of more than twenty bricklayers who will rush the job to completion as soon as humanly possible.

The foundation, which is made of grey concrete, reinforced with steel, is a masterpiece in concrete architecture in which beauty is combined with sturdiness. The outside surface is finished to have the appearance of blocks which greatly adds to the appearance of the structure.

Contracts will be let early this week for the brick and the entire building should be ready for use not later than January 1. It is understood that the first $40,000 collected by the Stadium Committee will be applied to the payment on the basketball building but other plans are on foot now to raise the remaining $15,000 necessary to meet the additional cost of the building. The Athletic Council has agreed to turn over the net receipts from the basketball games this year to the building fund. This promises to be a very profitable source of funds, for the crowds at the games this year should be far in excess of those of any previous years.

A grand total of $188,000 has been pledged to the Stadium Fund with additional subscriptions from the

KENTUCKY AND CENTRE YEARLINGS TO CLASH

Play First Game of Double-Header Here Saturday

The freshmen football team will encounter its first hard opposition of the season when it meets the Centre Lieutenants Saturday afternoon. The game will be played as a preliminary to the Varsity, Maryville struggle, but as is often true in boxing the preliminaries are sometimes as good if not better than the main bout.

Nothing definite has been heard from Centre as to the strength of the team but from all press dope they have a very strong aggregation. This game will determine the strength of the Kit-tens in the minds of the people from the outside and Coach Buchheit does not intend for them to be disappointed.

There is only one injury in the yearling's camp and that is very slight. Mandt hurt his ankle in the last game and it has been troubling him some this week, but he is expected to start at his regular half-back position in the game Saturday.

The lineup will be practically the same as that of the Eastern Normal game. Arnold has been working well in the scrimmages and will likely get a chance to show his ability against the Lieutenants. Captain Vossmeier is still showing his great spirit as well as his playing, and will be on left end to encourage his men on.

TAU BETA PI HOLDS ITS TWENTY SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION AT U. OF K.

Dexter S. Kimball, National President Will Preside

45 SCHOOLS REPRESENTED

Number of Entertainments Planned in Honor of Delegates

The twenty-second annual convention of Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, is being held at the University, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week with Alpha Chapter of the University of Kentucky acting as host. About 75 delegates from 45 of the leading technical schools are attending. Dexter S. Kimball, of Corney, the national president, will preside.

The delegates arrived Thursday morning and were shown points of interest on the University campus. Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University, and Dean F. Paul Anderson, of the College of Engineering, welcomed them at a luncheon at the Phoenix Hotel. In the afternoon a business meeting was held, and in the evening they were given a smoker at Mechanical Hall on the campus. Friday morning was devoted to business, while in the afternoon the delegates were taken on a tour of the blue grass. Tonight the formal dance is to be given at the Phoenix, and the pledging of new members will take place.

Saturday morning another business session will be held and in the afternoon all the members will attend the Kentucky-Maryville game, at which they are to be guests of the athletic council.

The word "magnanimous" has a familiar ring to those who know the administration of former President Barker. It is a characteristic attitude of alumni and the undergraduate body.

The alumni club in Philadelphia in arranging a great rally of Kentuckians October 27 when Centre meets Pennsylvania renders a generous tribute to a staunch rival and adds real strength to its own organization from getting these exile Kentuckians in the habit of working together, no matter what institution their Alma Mater.

A fine idea of the spirit of undergraduates is conveyed in the gesture of the Wildcats in pressing the football trophy to the Generals of Washington and Lee after a thrilling game. Such an act stamps this a true Southern institution. It makes for understanding and the fullest friendship.

NEW YORK CLUB MEETS

Resolutions Passed at First Luncheon on Death of Price McLean.

"The Kentucky Alumni Club of New York city, held its first luncheon of the season at the Cafe Savarin at noon, Tuesday, October 8.

"Although the attendance was not large, we were very fortunate in having Herbert Graham with us, and enjoyed discussing the news of the University.

"No business was discussed as this was only a 'get-together meeting,' but it was decided to continue the noon luncheons on the second Tuesday of the month."

"At the meeting resolutions were passed on the death of Price McLean and a copy sent to Prof. S. A. Boles, director of physical education. The resolutions received from the secretary follow:

"The news of the unfortunate accident which took from Kentucky one of her sons, was received in New York with the deepest regret.

"As secretary of the Alumni Club of New York, I want to express the sincerest sympathy of the members of this organization, to the University, the football team, and especially to the family of Price McLean, who lost his life in the service of his Alma Mater.

SHALL WE HAVE A STAR?

Professor H. C. Anderson, '97, head of the department of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Michigan, has written the Alumni office expressing his opinion that it is a bad plan to place a star in front of the names of those who have contributed towards the stadium fund as is proposed in the new Alumni Directory. In this letter Professor Anderson says:

"It makes no difference to me whether I have a star in front of my name or not. I personally think that the star is a mistake, as I know of a number of old graduates who, due to financial difficulties, have not been able to contribute and for this reason it is rather small of your committee to, in a way, humiliate such good people still further.

"Such contributions as I will make next year will not be made just to get a star in front of my name but will be made because I love the old University and feel that I should help it along."

In reply to this letter and by way of explanation for any who may have this same opinion Herbert Graham,

Alumni Secretary, has written Professor Anderson:

"The Campaign Committee never thought of persuading any alumnus to give just in order to have a star before his name and we should feel no gain for the contribution of a man brought in for such a reason. Other schools in similar campaigns have had twenty to fifty per cent of their alumni contribute. Why should we not take pride in putting on record our result if we can make it better than those others?"

Our entire committee agrees with you heartily in your objection to using 'a star' as a club to force contributions. But can't every man give something? It is the spirit that counts, whether the amount is $1 or $1,000. If you will suggest some other method to make for 100 percent enthusiasm and co-operation we shall be very grateful. There are others who have misgivings about the present plan."

Let us hear what some other Alumni have to say on this matter. The Alumni Association should dictate the way its affairs are run.

The old fellows away from the University fell this as deeply as do you boys there, I am sure.

The Greeks beat us to it!

WHEN you hear one fellow saying of another, "he's a brick," it simply goes to prove that there is nothing new under the sun.

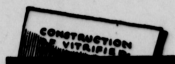

Agesilaus used the same term in praise of his soldiers way back in the days when Sparta was a name to strike fear into the hearts of its enemies.

Why have the modern and ancient world alike used the brick as a symbol of high merit?

Because it is always dependable, resists brutal treatment and never fails to come up to expectations. In other words, it delivers the goods.

Keep this truth in mind after you have left the campus. When you have pavements to select or build, make no mistake—use vitrified paving brick.

It is the opinion of the Kernel that this is one of the best steps that could be taken concerning the construction of our stadium. The stadium is to be a permanent structure and one that will give prestige and add to the beauty of the campus and to the efficiency of the institution. We realize the capability and willingness of Mr. Whipple, but we also recognize the fact that in a structure as large and as expensive as the stadium will be, safeguarding advice from other engineers and architects would not only be helpful, but would be gladly accepted by Mr. Whipple, who will welcome additional suggestions.

The main objection of the complaints seems to be that extra expense would be useless. Many engineers and architects who would assist are former students of the University, or are loyal friends and supporters who will gladly lend their assistance, perhaps without cost, or at least at a nominal charge. The Kernel is sure that the additional assistance can only be of benefit and service to both Mr. Whipple and the stadium promoters.

LAGNAPPE

The forthcoming class elections will bring with them all the handshaking, log-rolling, wire pulling and political pyrotechnics that attend every election affair in our grand old commonwealth. It is often asked if the emotions of office are worth the general pre-election effervescence. Others deplore the intensity of college politics, dislike the bitterness of the factional combats, and annually apply the bromide "Politics is Hell" to the campus elections. The Kernel admits that college politics is that. But why not? Every bit of astuteness, every bit of diplomacy, and every bit of political erudition our campus politicians can get will be but inadequate equipment in the bigger political game, which, so far as we can observe, is not infrequently played without rules or referee. The entrance of college men into public affairs is fondly hoped to be a panacea for Kentucky's political ills; yet even the Romans provided their prisoners with some sort of a weapon when sending them into the arena. The University of Kentucky might have been spared many moments of financial embarrassment had its supporters in the General Assembly possessed greater political sagacity than its opponents.

Bill Fields and Charlie Dawson are former students of the University; the next legislature will contain many alumni; Bill Bryan is silent and all's right with the world.

After viewing the terpsichorean efforts of certain Patt Hall Saturday-nighters, one can appreciate the elf-like grace of a wild steam roller on a down grade.

The library announces that it has 54,118 volumes and a seating capacity of at least two dozen.

A loyal student is one that can call the campus a thing of beauty and at the same time gaze across at the ineffable loveliness of the city dump.

The maddening thing about a freshman is that he thinks the faculty members are greater people than the seniors.

CANDIDATES RESPOND TO CALL FOR CHEER LEADERS

Fifteen candidates for cheer-leaders were present at a meeting called Friday afternoon by Cheerleader Ryan Ringo for the purpose of perfecting the cheering organization and bringing about a stronger co-operative spirit in the student body. These men did splendid work at the bonfire Friday night and at the Washington and Lee game. They will continue to officiate until the regular leaders are chosen at the annual class elections, in which they will be eligible. The men eligible include: Juniors—Moseley and Creech; Sophomores: Chenault and Goodson; Freshmen: Napier, Glenn, Mercer, Powell, Malick, Walte, Brown, Wells, Oliver, Whitehead and Capelle.

DR. A. M. PETERS ELECTED HEAD OF RESEARCH CLUB

First Meeting of Year Held Last Friday Night

Dr. A. M. Peters, head of the department of chemistry at the Kentucky Experiment Station, was elected president of the Research Club of the University of Kentucky Friday night at the first meeting of the year held in the office of Dr. F. L. McVey. The meeting was preceded by a supper in the campus cafeteria.

Dr. W. D. Vallean, pathologist at the station, was elected vice-president and Dr. Daniel J. Healy, professor of agricultural bacteriology, secretary. Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, the retiring president, in his annual report, reviewed the achievements of the numbers and papers given before the club during the year. He announced the policies to be adopted, the biography of the members, the attendance record, and the publications which are to be made. The requirement for election to the club is the publication of creditable research work.

MISS NAN HORNSBY INJURED IN FALL AT STOLL FIELD

In Serious Condition at Good Samaritan Hospital

Nan Hornsby, a student in the University, fell through the bleachers and was seriously hurt during the football game between the University and Washington and Lee last Saturday at Stoll Field. When the crowd was brought to its feet to cheer the progress of the Wildcats one of the boards in the stand gave away and Nan Hornsby, Dick Hunter and Ted McDowell fell to the ground, a drop of about fifteen feet.

Miss Hornsby was cut on the mouth and knocked unconscious; she was immediately taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital to be examined and treated. It was then thought that there were no bones broken and no other injuries except the cut on her mouth and the stun from the fall. It was learned later, however, that one of the pelvic bones was fractured.

MATRICULATION LECTURE

The Social Side of the University, was the theme of the matriculation lecture given last Thursday to the Freshmen by Dean Jewell. Miss Jewell stressed the necessity of developing the social, spiritual and educational side of life, and that through education selfishness and ignorance are banished. Being a capable speaker, Dean Jewell's lecture was interesting and convincing. The schedule for this hour presents features that are of unusual value to the freshman.

HARD FIGHT BUT CLEAN ONE

The fighting spirit displayed by the Wildcats in the Washington and Lee football game last Saturday is, in our humble judgment, the most indicative evidence of championship calibre ever shown by a University of Kentucky team. They went into the game seriously handicapped by the absence of outstanding players. They met a team that was in condition and trained to high proficiency in the game. Although they came out of the contest with honors even it was a praiseworthy achievement. Their fighting spirit and nerve carried them to an even break when earlier indications pointed to defeat.

The first game played with the Generals from Virginia resulted most happily for both schools. The best of sportsmanship and the cleanness of playing was practiced by both teams. The visitors left after the game with outspoken admiration for their opponents while our team reciprocated wholeheartedly. It was gentlemen against gentlemen in an honorable and clean contest.

The ability and prowess of the Washington and Lee team was manifest from the start; their cleanness was easily recognized but the never dying nerve and fighting spirit of the Wildcats was the most outstanding feature of the entire contest. They entered the third period facing what looked like defeat and by putting their utmost into the contest tied the score.

This selfsame spirit and nerve should and will carry the Blue and White eleven thru the hardest schedule of its history victorious and win commendation from all fanciers of clean and manly athletic sport in the south.

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS WELCOME

A recent publication to the effect that J. I. Lyle, of New York, chairman of the Stadium Committee of the University of Kentucky, had stated that consulting engineers and architects would be called in to confer with Superintendent A. O. Whipple on the construction of the University Stadium, has called forth critical comment from alumni and friends of the University. Their complaint is against seemingly needless expenditure of money, since Mr. Whipple is a competent architect and engineer.

MILITARY NOTES

The Cadet Hop committee appointed by the Military Department held its first meeting last Thursday to make arrangement for the dances to be given under its direction during the year. The cadet hops, which have always been highly successful in former years, even though given on the rough floor of the armory, will undoubtedly be events to be looked forward to with pleasure this year, when given on the smooth floor of the Phoenix Hotel ball room.

Colonel Roscoe Cross, chairman of the hop committee, appointed several of those present at the meeting to the task of caring for the details involved, so that the first dance may be given next month as planned.

Tickets will be placed on sale soon and may be obtained from any of the cadet officers and any of the company or platoon sponsors.

GENERALS AND WILDCATS BATTLE TO 6-6 TIE IN HARD FOUGHT CONTEST

Cats Come From Behind in Last Period To Even Count

VISITORS SCORE EARLY

Sanders and Kirwan Star For Kentucky, Cameron For W. & L.

Outplayed but not outgamed throughout the first three quarters, as crippled a band of Wildcats as ever assembled on Stoll Field to defend the honor of Kentucky came from behind in the final period to tie the Generals of Washington and Lee 6-6 in a game that will go down in Kentucky annals as one of the most bitter and best played contests in the history of the University. Apparently about to finish on the small end of a 6-0 count, the Blue and White grid-ders turned loose all their reserve strength in the fourth quarter and started a 60-yard march down the field that ended only after Curtis Sanders had bucked over left tackle for one yard and a touchdown.

It was a small matter indeed that the try for goal after touchdown was blocked for the Generals had missed their attempt early in the game and the contest ended with scoring honors even, but with the Cats receiving credit for one of the most courageous fights ever put up on a local gridiron. As to the Generals, one can only say that they were a band of true southern gentlemen and put up as clean a game and fought as hard as did the Cats. The contest was absolutely free from any underhand work, all of the penalties coming from offside or delay plays.

Sanders Stars

Second only to the stand of the Cats was the sterling performance of Curtis Sanders at full. "Sandy" put up a defensive game that already stamps him as one of the best backs in the south, and his work on the offensive was hardly less impressive. It was the blue-clad youth with number 10 on his back who stopped the General backs time after time when the Virginians had eluded the Wildcat forward wall, and it was the same "Sandy" who bucked over for the Cat score. The work of Al Kirwan, half-back, also was a treat in itself. The former yearling captain piloted the team with the grace of a veteran, in the absence of both Gregg and Evans, and cut in with a brilliant 25-yard run that put the Blue and White in a position to score in the last period.

The entire Cat squad that saw service in the contest performed brilliantly. Hampered by injuries the forward wall called together all its strength at the critical moment and opened up a hole through which Sanders plunged for the score.

For Washington and Lee, Hamilton and Cameron backs, and Thomas, T. Bemis, and Davis, all ends, played best. The entire General backfield worked smoothly.

The Washington and Lee score came in the first quarter. After an exchange of punts the Generals started from their own 30-yard line and, opening up a flashy passing attack, coupled with line smashes by Cameron and Hamilton, carried the oval to the two-yard line. Frew plunged over for the score. Burke, General quarter, dropped back for a drop-kick in the try for goal but failed to boot the pigskin between the posts.

The next two quarters found the ball equally divided between each team's territory but with the General line holding the Cats for downs several times. Three times the Blue and White worked within striking distance

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD TO HOLD CLASS MEET

Cinder Artists to Perform Between Games Saturday

The curtain will be raised for the cinder artists Saturday afternoon when the annual class cross country run will be held. The tape will be stretched on Stoll Field between the two games so the finish can be seen by everyone. This year's course will be over the full four miles.

At present there are about thirty-five men out but only about twenty are expected to answer the call Saturday. Coach Porter will use this meet as a means of getting a line on the men who will represent Kentucky in the big meets. As in all athletics freshmen are not eligible for the Varsity team but should a yearling break the tape Saturday he will receive the first medal.

This race is expected to be one of the best of its kind that has been held at the university. Those who are expected to finish among the first are: Hall, Brame, Butler, Gorman, Davidson, Daniels, Creech and Smith. From the last two tryouts it looks as though the race will be between Hall and Brame.

Coach Porter is predicting great things for Hall and in his opinion the winner of last year's class meet will break the state record of 22:31, which was made by Porter in the Thanksgiving meet of 1921. Brame will uphold the colors of the freshmen and from preceding trials he will be a great credit to the class of '27.

Gorman has been having trouble in getting into shape and it is doubtful whether he will start. Butler is showing up well and he is almost certain to finish among the first five. Davidson deserves a great deal of credit for his showing in the three mile tryout last Friday, and at present looks like a good bet for a place on the team.

"Fighting Jim" Server, captain of the 1921 Cats, was an interested spectator at the game last Saturday. Jim came up for the week-end and of course took in the game. When the Cats scored their touchdown Jim literally "went wild."

Our contemporaries—Tennessee—appears to have struck a snag in the person of the Georgetown Tigers. Centre came back in the second half after the Clemson had held the Colonels to a 7-7 tie in the first two periods and defeated the Southerners 28-7. Syracuse proved too much for Alabama and defeated the Crimson Tide 23-0. Tech and Florida, rated as two of the best elecons in the South, battled a 7-7 tie.

Something of a novelty will be introduced on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon when a double bill will be provided for grid fans. The freshman eleven takes on its ancient rival, Centre, while the Cats meet Maryville. Each game would prove an attraction in itself and the double bill should draw a large crowd.

of the Virginia goal only to lose the oval on downs. A few seconds before the half ended the Generals worked the ball to the Cat 10-yard line but lost a chance to score when Gregg grounded a General pass behind his own goal line.

The third period found Sauer and Frew engaging in a punting duel with the Cat center having much the better of the deal. The quarter ended with the ball in Washington and Lee's possession on Kentucky's 22-yard line.

Cats Score

The Generals attempted a pass as the last period opened but a Cat back grounded the ball. Burke then attempted a 30-yard drop kick but missed a by a wide margin. Kentucky took the ball on her own 20-yard line and failing to gain the necessary yardage in three edowns punted 40 yards to Hamilton who returned 10. Four line plays by the Generals also failed to gain first down and the ball went over. A pass Kirwan to King was incomplete. A pass Kirwan to Tracy netted nine yards more. Tracy then hit the right tackle for one yard and first down. Sanders made three through right guard. A pass Kirwan to King was good for a six-yard gain and Kirwan hit the line for first down. Hughes went off left tackle for three and Kirwan ran 23 yards for first down on a fake. Two line plays by Tracy and one by Sanders netted five yards. Kirwan attempted to pass and finding a pass impossible ran through the General line for five yards and first down. With the ball on the one-yard marker Sanders went over left tackle for the score. "Sandy's" attempted placekick in the try for goal was blocked.

The remainder of the game found the ball in Washington and Lee territory and the contest ended with the Cats threatening to score with the ball on the Generals 25-yard line.

ed to his old tackle position for the present at least, A. T. "Chuck" Rice taking the Cat leader's job at end. "Cave Man" Rice, making his initial start in the line against Washington and Lee last week, has taken possession of the guard jobs and seems to have a firm hold on it. Either Cammack or Martin will start at the other guard. Stevenson and McFarland are the chief contenders for left tackle with the latter favorite to start Saturday. Should Winn decide to give the Owensboro youth a chance to rest either Stevenson or Russell will get the call. Curtis Sauer appears the logical choice for center and King and A. T. Rice best bets for the end jobs.

Al Kirwan will again pilot the team, since Winn gave Turner Gregg another week in which to recover from injuries received in the Cincinnati game. Sanders at full and Hughes at one half with either Tracy or Brewer at the other half, complete the backfield. Either "Chuck" Rice or Sauer will do the punting, most probably the latter.

The freshman teams of Kentucky and Centre will provide the preliminary entertainment, rounding out one of the best menus set before local grid fans for some time.

FRESHMAN CHAPEL

Dean W. S. Taylor, of the Educational Department, delivered the address at chapel exercises held in the chapel Tuesday at the fifth hour. Selections by the University Trio were also a feature of the exercises.

Devotional was conducted by President Frank L. McVey, after which the trio gave a selection. President McVey then introduced Dean Taylor, who spoke on "Deciding What We Want to do in Life." In his talk, which was very interesting and instructive, he asked students to look into the future and see what they want to be that will be of service. Character of service is determined by thoroughness of preparation, utilization of time, and personal qualities possessed. One must have efficiency to get far in life, must develop high ideals and a spirit of open-mindedness and loyalty. The four great assets in life are, health, citizenship, vocation and the right use of our time. In closing Dean Taylor said, "the best equipment for life tomorrow is to live the fullest life today. The University trio gave another number which closed the exercises.

 She—"How horrid of you."

Jack—"Would you ever wear a rented bathing suit?"
 May—"It depends where the rent is."

 Judge—"Ten days."

Guest—"Here, take my valise. Are you a careful porter?"
 Porter—"Deed ah is sah. Ah ain't never broke a bottle yet."

"They're off!" cried the old lady, as she viewed the inmates of the insane asylum.

Soph—"What's the matter old bean. Why the gloom?"
 Fresh—"My roommate lost his hat."
 Soph—"That's tough, but why should you go around worrying all day?"
 Fresh—"Because I was wearing it when he lost it."

DON'T hamper your education—don't encumber your mind—by using an unruly fountain pen. Such pens are the reason the classic Duofold was created.

Look at economy through the Future's eye—see that years after college days are over you'll be using the handsome Duofold that you buy today. For its balanced swing and super-smooth motion embody youth eternal.

This Chinese lacquer-red pen with smart black tips is the countersign all the regular fellows recognize. So don't be induced to accept an inferior pen when Duofold will grade up your taste as well as your work. While you're at it, get the real thing.

Y. M. & Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Membership Drive.

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet met Tuesday evening and completed its plans for obtaining Y-members for the school year. The drive will be put on by the Student Friendship Council and will open Wednesday, October 24. This efficient organization does not intend to let a single man student on the campus escape a chance to join its ranks, and it behooves each man to take advantage of the opportunity given him. In event one of the council workers should fail to see you, go to the Y-secretary, Bart N. Peak, and enroll there.

It does not cost you anything to join. There are no fees to pay. The conditions of membership are simple, having as the one big idea the development of a pure and manly life. The card you are asked to sign merely states: "It is my desire to become a member of the Association and if elected promise to abide by and uphold its constitution and endeavor to live up to the principles for which it stands." On the back of this card the principles are set out more fully in the following statement: (1) To lead men into and develop them in the Christian life. (2) To co-operate with the Christian church and train men for service in it. (3) To promote a program of unselfish service. (4) To unite the students of this University in promoting the highest good of the University and the individuals who compose it. (5) To unite the Christian students of this University with the world-wide student Christian brotherhood.

Girls' Training Course

The Girls' Reserve Training Course, which is to be held in Patterson Hall, beginning Monday, October 22, and continuing through to the 28th, will be conducted by Mrs. Van Sant Jenkins, of the National Training Board. These meetings will begin at 3:30 and last until 4:30 on every day but Wednesday and Saturday, on which days they will start at the same time but end at 5:30.

Mrs. Jenkins is a very interesting speaker, and will be of great assistance to all girls interested in the ways and means of taking charge of high school Y. W. C. A. clubs. The program will stress the needs of girls with special adaptations to the Girl Reserve Movement; and everyone is urged to attend these meetings and become more closely affiliated with the various branches of the Young Women's Christian Association.

An Item of Interest, Girls.

Friday, October 19, the Y. W. C. A. is giving a Hallowe'en party in the recreation room of Patterson Hall. Everyone is cordially invited to don a costume and come prepared to revel in such sports and haunts as only a Hallowe'en party can produce.

Sunday night at the regular Y. W. C. A. service in Patterson Hall, Dr. Ward will speak, and special music will be furnished.

Town girls, there will be a meeting for you in the Women's League room, Friday afternoon at 3:30. Miss Marjorie McLaughlin will speak.

NOTICE!

The Catholic Club of the University will meet Sunday morning, October 21, in the Assembly rooms on Barr street. All Catholic students of the University are invited to be present for this, the first meeting of the year. The meetings will be held monthly and will follow the 9 o'clock mass. The Reverend W. T. Punch, pastor of St. Peter's church, is chaplain of the club which he was instrumental in organizing two years ago.
