Backing the Wildcats

GOVERNOR NED BREATHITT, the Commonwealth's chief executive, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and above all labels himself as a champion of education in the state. The articulate, 39-year-old former Hopkinsville attorney entered UK in 1942 with thoughts of a career in politics and government uppermost in his mind. He earned degrees in commerce and law after serving nearly three years in the Army Air Force during World War II. Governor Breathitt's background includes three terms (1953-56) in the House of Representatives and several governmental positions.

PRESIDENT JOHN W. OSWALD, who took the reins of Kentucky's state university in September, 1963, is a man ideally equipped for his position and one who is well acquainted with athletics. Dr. Oswald, at the age of 46, holds academic degrees from DePauw and University of California. At the time he came to UK, he was serving as vice-president-administration, statewide university, University of California. His athletic background includes the captaincy of the 1937 DePauw football team and selection on the Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America in 1962.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BERNIE SHIVELY, a former All-America footballer at Illinois, is the guiding hand behind the development of UK as a nationally-respected power in the field of intercollegiate athletics. Serving in a variety of posts at the University since 1927, including terms as coach of football, track and baseball, "Shive" has been director of Athletics since 1938.

ADOLPH RUPP

'Nation's Winningest Cage Coach'

For over three decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of meager raw material by a colorful figure in the Blue Grass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

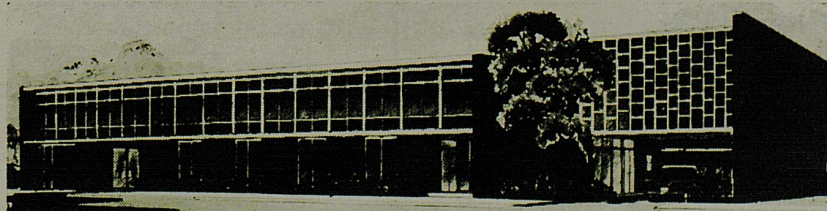

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 33 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 705 victories out of 845 starts for an unprecedented winning percentage of better than 83%.
- One of only two still-active cage mentors with membership in the exclusive 700 club—in which dues are 700 career victories.
- Selection as the national "Coach of the Year" in 1959 for the second time in his career and runner-up last season.
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats.
- A nominal world's championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the '48 Olympics and producer of more Olympic gold medal winners (7) than any other cage coach.
- A total of 21 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive cage Hall of Fame.
- Development of more All-Americans (30) and more material for the pro ranks (22) than any other coach.
- Five Sugar Bowl Tournament champions, a NIT title and seven UKIT trophies.

Assistant Coach HARRY LANCASTER

When Coach Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a respected position in the basketball world. An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he won three All-Conference nominations but considered himself a better football player. Experience, however, proved him a good student and teacher of the sport of basketball as he began his coaching career. Lancaster became an assistant on the staff of Coach Rupp in 1946 after nine years in high school ranks as a coach and principal. In the "off" season, he doubles as UK's Head Baseball Coach.

Assistant Coach NEIL REED

Youthful Neil Reed, who joined the Wildcats in a graduate assistant capacity for the 1962-63 season to study the proven coaching methods of Baron Adolph Rupp, became a full-time aide last season. In this capacity, he assists Coach Rupp in both varsity and freshman coaching assignments, put in much time scouting the Wildcats' upcoming opponents and searching out top high school talent to fill out the stable of UK court thoroughbreds. Coach Reed came to Lexington following two seasons at Wauconda (Ill.) High School as head basketball coach. For his job in rebuilding a defeat-ridden ball club, which had lost 28 straight and won only seven games in seven years, he was accorded conference "Coach of the Year" designation. Previously, Reed had coached at a junior high school in Milwaukee, Wis. The personable, 32-year-old coach is a native of Lawrenceburg, Ind., and attended high school in that city.

BRAD BOUNDS—Sophomore—Center
Bluffton, Indiana

A possible "darkhorse" in the varsity cage picture for 1964-65, Bounds could surprise with an important contribution if he makes rapid progress. He has good, rugged size at 6-5½ and 205 to make his presence felt at either center or forward. Lacks experience that is gained from game action as he missed duty in final seven games as a yearling last season due to academic difficulties.

Bounds' play in the first half of the freshman season (9 games) lent an indication of fine potential as he pitched in 141 points for a promising 15.6 average and added 83 rebounds. Scored high of 27 against IBM. One of five Hoosiers on varsity, Brad led all Indiana prep scorers in average as he registered points at a 28.4 clip two years back.

Although born in Detroit, he played all high school ball at Bluffton, near Ft. Wayne. He gained All-State honors, was All-Conference three years and set many school and league records as he produced career total of 1,666 points. Also All-Conference first baseman in baseball. Studying in College of Education with intentions of entering coaching profession following graduation.
