DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY

President, University of Kentucky

Dr. Otis A. Singletary has maintained an active role both in academics and athletics since he became the University of Kentucky's eighth president in August 1969.

Great strides toward academic excellence have characterized Dr. Singletary's presidency at UK. The Schools of Dentistry and Pharmacy consistently rank among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history, and mathematics have also gained nationwide attention while the UK Library now rates among the best in the Southeast.

Under Singletary's leadership, the University of Kentucky has also become a major research institution. The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center is an established leader in research on cancer and the aging. UK's agricultural college has provided important research in tobacco and equine diseases while other University research has focused on the field of coal and other energy sources.

Singletary's involvement in athletics is as impressive as his academic achievements. A former president of the Southeastern Conference, Dr. Singletary is a member of the NCAA Select Committee on Athletic Problems and Concerns in Higher Education. He is also chairman of the board of directors of the College Football Association.

As president of the principal institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth, Dr. Singletary is greatly concerned with the University's role as a land grant institution, a "people's university" accessible to all who can profit from education.

In the 13 years Singletary has been president, the University of Kentucky has grown in enrollment to about 23,000 students on its Lexington campus and more than 22,000 students in the University's 13 community colleges.

Recognition of his service to the University of Kentucky was evidenced by the UK Alumni Association which presented to Dr. Singletary its Alumni Service Award, an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Singletary holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University. An accomplished administrator, Dr. Singletary served as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas system prior to coming to Kentucky.

He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot, and Kendall.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN

Athletics Director

the 1984 NCAA Basketball Championships. In 1985, the prestigious NCAA "Final Four" basketball championships will be hosted by UK and held in Rupp Arena.

Having graduated from the University of Kentucky with high distinction in 1954, Hagan has been a long-time advocate of a strong scholar-athlete program.

Hagan, one of the greatest players in UK basketball history, received one of his highest individual honors in 1978 when he became the first University of Kentucky player to be inducted in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

An Owensboro, Ky. native, Hagan is married to the former Martha Milton, also of Owensboro. They have four children: Mrs. Barry "Lisa" Thaxton of Lexington; Mrs. Jim "Laurie" Hill of West Liberty; Amy, a senior at the University of Alabama; and Kip, a sophomore member of the Transylvania University basketball and tennis teams.

When Terry Hall arrived at Kentucky in 1980, the Lady Kats were coming off their most successful season ever and beginning to gain national respect. They had been ranked in the Top 20 throughout the 1979-80 season and had finished the year with a 24-5 record and a berth in the AIAW National playoffs.

But the season was just a hint of the great things to come under Hall's guidance. The Lady Kats have gone far beyond respectability and into the perennial role of national contender. They have been ranked in the Top 20 every week and averaged 24 wins per season since Hall's arrival.

In her first year at UK, Hall's Lady Kats went 25-6, winning the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and reaching the final round of 16 in the AIAW National tournament. Hall was named the KWIC Coach of the Year that season.

In 1982 and again last season the Lady Kats were considered among the top contenders for the NCAA championship. The 1981-82 squad won the Southeastern Conference championship and reached the quarter-finals of NCAA play before losing to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home floor. Last year's Lady Kats were ranked fourth in the nation but fell to Indiana in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Hall's record at Kentucky is 72-19, and considering Kentucky's tough scheduling habits (10 games with ranked opponents last season AND this season), a .791 winning percentage is outstanding. Her career record is 165-79. That mark includes one season at Eastern Kentucky, five at Louisville and three at Kentucky.

Hall began her coaching career in the high school ranks. Following her graduation from Indiana State in 1966, she was named head coach at Butler High School in Louisville. In five seasons at Butler, Hall coached her teams to two Jefferson County titles and an overall record of 69-33.

Then it was on to Eastern Kentucky University, where Hall earned her Master's Degree in 1974 and was immediately named head basketball coach. The Lady Colonels went 14-6 that season and won the KWIC title over Kentucky, Louisville, Western, Morehead, Murray and Northern Kentucky.

Hall then accepted the coaching job at Louisville, where she was faced with rebuilding a program. She succeeded, guiding the Lady Cards to a 79-54 record over five years. In 1979-80, her last season at U of L, the Lady Cards won their first Metro Conference championship. Hall also coached tennis and softball at U of L.

A native of Salem, Ind., Hall earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Health and P.E. While attending Indiana State, she starred in basketball, field hockey and volleyball. She was honored with the "I" Woman Award in 1965, and received the prestigious Hillman Award in 1966 as the most outstanding female athlete at ISU.

Coach Hall on Kentucky's Style of Play: "Our style of play, or trademark, is the fast break. We believe that applying immediate pressure on the defensive team is one of the best ways to win a basketball game. Kentucky is one of few teams in the country totally dedicated to fast break basketball. Defensively, we play whatever defense we feel will exploit our opponents' weaknesses. Our main concerns are controlling the tempo of the game, teamwork, and shot selection by our players."

Coach Hall on Working With the Players: "I place a high premium on hard work and dedication to the task at hand. I want my players to feel the same way. I try to teach them that "doors of opportunity" open and close very quickly in life as well as on the basketball court. So always be prepared. In the span of a lifetime, their 4 years of college basketball is short, therefore they should work hard, be dedicated, excel, and enjoy the opportunity that exists."

Mike Kindred

Assistant Coach
Eastern Kentucky University, 1980

Mike was hired as a part-time assistant at UK in July, and then was elevated to full-time assistant in late September following the resignation of assistant coach Dottie Berry. A 1980 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, Mike served for two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, Ky., before coming to UK.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Mike graduated from Clark County High School in 1975. He then attended Morehead State University for one year before transferring to Eastern. He received a degree in Industrial Education, and then taught at Clark County for one year before accepting a job at Estill County.

In his first season at Estill, Mike helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Mike's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better, finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982 and a 19-4 record in 1983.

Mike is very active in the Big Brothers-Big Sisters program, and currently sits on the organization's Advisory Board in Winchester. He is also an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was the FCA's 10th Region representative last year while coaching at Estill County.

Joining the coaching staff at UK fulfills a life-time dream for Mike, a 26-year old bachelor who has always been a "Big Blue" fan.

ROBIN BOARD

Graduate Assistant Louisville, 1983

A former player for Coach Terry Hall at Louisville, Robin joined the Lady Kat staff in September. While at Louisville, Robin lettered in basketball four consecutive years, two of those seasons with Coach Hall at the helm. She was a member of the Lady Card teams that won Metro Conference titles in 1979 and 1981 and is in the record book for best free throw percentage in a season, which she set in 1979. Robin was also an outstanding high school player at Louisville Butler High. She helped her team to the Girls' State Tournament in 1976 and 1978. She was All-State honorable mention for three straight years and played in the East-West All-Star game in 1978. She also played tennis for three seasons and ran track one year at Butler.

Robin is pursuing a Masters Degree in Recreational Therapy at UK. She has a great interest in young people and has participated as a volunteer for Special Olympics for five straight years. She also is credited with starting two Youth Basketball Camps in 1981 and 1982 at the St. Matthews YMCA in Louisville.

A former collegiate softball player at U of L, Robin has umpired softball and officiated basketball and volleyball. She is 23 years old and single.

KENTUCKY AND MIDDLE TENNESSEE PREPARE TO DO BATTLE FOR FOURTH TIME

Records: Kentucky 6-4
Middle Tennessee 2-4
Series Record: UK leads, 3-1

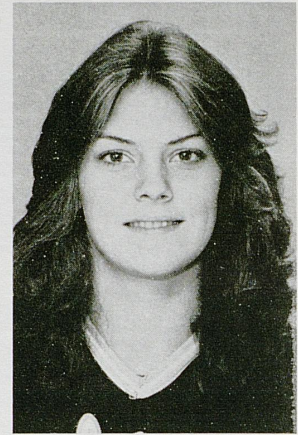

Tonight's tip off between Kentucky and Middle Tennessee State will be the fourth meeting for these two squads with the Lady Kats up 3-1 in the series. Last year, Kentucky knocked off MTSU 73-68 in Murfreesboro. The Ohio Valley conference Lady Raiders got off to a 2-4 start this season before facing UT-Chattanooga and Tennessee Tech over the weekend.

Head Coach Larry Inman is in his sixth year at Middle Tennessee after leading last year's team to a 26-5 season record, 10-0 in the OVC. The 1983-84 Lady Raiders have averaged 72 points per game this year, giving up only 66.3 per game to their opponents while grabbing 37.5 rebounds per game.

Freshman guard Kim Webb leads the team in scoring with 17.2 per game. Junior forward Jennifer McFall is second with 15.7 points and 6.2 rebounds. Freshman forward Kay Willbanks averages 10.2 points and 7.5 rebounds per game while senior center Holly Hoover adds 9.8 points and 4.2 rebounds. Middle Tennessee's only two victories came earlier in the season over Belmont and Union University in Tennessee. The Lady Raiders fell victim to Florida State, UT-Chattanooga, Ole Miss and Western Kentucky.

HOLLY HOOVER

Kentucky, 6-4, played Georgia over the weekend after a disappointing four-point loss to Nebraska last week. The Lady Kats are lead in scoring by sophomore forward Leslie Nichols with 17.7 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. She is followed closely by sophomore center Karen Mosley who averages 15.2 points and a team-leading 8.2 rebounds. Other Kentucky top scorers include junior guard Diane Stephens with 12.9 points per game and senior center Jody Runge with 10.5. As a team, Kentucky is shooting 52.3 percent from the field and 74.4 percent at the line. The Lady Kats are averaging 75.7 points per game while allowing their opponents 74.8.

SKY'S THE LIMIT FOR MELANIE WARREN

According to Lady Kat assistant Coach Mike Kindred, Melanie Warren does not understand how good she can be.

"Melanie has all of the tools and potential to be the best center in the country, but she doesn't believe in herself yet."

Perhaps the fact that Warren has been playing basketball for only three years contributes to her lack of confidence. Warren began her career as a sophomore at Owensboro Catholic High School. She played little her first year, but worked hard over the summer and won a starting job as a junior. Her improvement continued as she averaged 14 points and 11 rebounds as a senior while being named to second team All-State.

"I wish I had started playing earlier," Warren noted. "I know I've got a great deal of talent, but I have so much to improve. If I had started earlier, I think I could be much better now."

Kindred agrees.

"She's only been playing for three years and she's never been pushed. She's 100% better than she was when she first came here, but she still has a long way to go. She's learned so much, but she doesn't have the footwork down yet. That keeps her from applying those things in practice.

Practices have been one of the toughest things the freshman has had to adjust to in college.

"Practice has been the roughest thing for me here," she said. "Our high school practices weren't that hard and there is so much more contact here."

Since she is still adjusting to the college game, Warren has not seen much game action for the Lady Kats this season. That doesn't discourage her, though.

"I feel like this is my sophomore year in high school all over again. I'm learning so many new things. Most of the time I can see improvement in myself."

Kindred has also seen improvement.

"Because of her improvement, I think she deserves more playing time. That's what she needs the most because it will help her confidence. I know that the girls are really depending on her for next year."

Undoubtedly, Warren will be better prepared for next season. She plans to stay in Lexington over the summer and work on her strength, agility, footwork, and shooting.

"I think they're planning on working me to death over the summer," she laughed.

As the tallest Lady Kat ever, one of the things Warren has already been working on is dunking. Kindred has lowered a goal to nine feet to teach the 6'6" Owensboro native the basics. Kindred plans to raise the basket a few inches at a time and have Warren dunking by next season.

"I think she has the potential to do it. She can already dunk small objects like rolls of tape. Obviously, we're shooting for dunks in game situations. That could be very intimidating."

While Warren is excited about the prospect of dunking, she remains skeptical.

"I can't imagine myself dunking in games. My dad is all excited about it, though. He doesn't think about anything else."

Regardless of whether Warren ever dunks or not, her potential is exciting. As Kindred put it, "with Melanie, dunking is just icing on the cake."

COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK WILL AID STUDENTS IN CAREER PLANNING

UK's Career Planning and Placement Center is now offering extensive career planning services to UK alumni and the new director, Dr. Larry Crouch, wants the alumni to help the Center.

The alumni can help through the newly organized UK Career Communications Network made up of interested alumni who volunteer to assist students in the career planning process.

"The program gives students exposure to people in the working community and provides them with a realistic view of the world of work," says Crouch who has extensive experience in the career planning and placement field.

The Network is a cooperative program between the Center and the UK Alumni Association. "The intent of the Network is to broaden students' concepts of what people in various occupations do and to give students a chance to talk with professionals in the career fields in which they have interests," said Crouch.

UK alumni and friends of the University are asked to offer their time and abilities and to help undergraduates plan and prepare for meaningful careers, Crouch explained. "The more actual contact UK students have with successful professionals, the better career decisions they will make," he added.

Crouch says he had such a chance to meet with professionals when he was a psychology major at North Central College in Naperville, Ill. He thought he wanted to enter the health field but changed his mind after a visit to the personnel department of a major health agency.

UK alumni will find a form to fill out regarding their help to the Network on the opposite page of "The Open Door."

The Center's extension services to alumni is "for those in mid-life career change; those wanting a new position; and those who wish to relocate," Crouch explains.

Crouch explained he will conduct workshops for unemployed alumni on the UK campus or in any community where alumni desire such a workshop.

These workshops will help participants to keep a credential file, strategize career changes or assist in re-entering the workplace, Crouch said. "We wish to be of assistance to alumni and to play a creative role in their career planning," Crouch added.

Crouch says in his former position as director of career development and placement at Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania, an alumnus came to his office to inquire about a job change. She was considering paying $1,200 to a private job-finding agency. Crouch found a position for her without cost to the woman.

The Center also is expanding its newsletter of job listings for alumni, adding a wider variety of career openings, Crouch said.

Also, the Center's hours have been extended to 7 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays for full services to students and alumni.

The alumni services are one of a four-step umbrella of services offered by the Center.

These steps are:

Lifelong career planning and placement services for all alumni — by providing alumni with job search seminars, referral listings, credential services, vacancy listings, career change advising and strategies;

Career planning — through advising and assisting students to clarify their values, interests and desires and relating these interests to the job market. The Center works with the UK Counseling Center to provide career counseling when needed. The Center also maintains a large library of books, periodicals and audio-visual cassettes pertaining to careers;

Career exploration — defined by Crouch as "getting real world experience and a chance to test out one's chosen career." This experience can be gained through various UK programs including cooperative education when an employer cooperates with UK and employs a student in a job pertinent to his academic major; experiential education when the student works away from the campus for academic credit; and in professionally related summer jobs; and Placement — On-campus recruitment is being expanded with more interviews by representatives of agencies, companies and other types of employers, Crouch says.

Crouch emphasizes that interviews are arranged for students in all academic majors and that individual placement advising is available for graduating seniors and those about to receive an advanced degree. "We also have increased listings because we're now in a national recruitment network," Crouch said.

Numerous career workshops are conducted for students at the Center and at other campus locations. During the workshops, students gain experience for upcoming job interviews through mock interviews, role playing and help in setting up their credential files.

The football team captain while at North Central College, Crouch holds a master's degree from Ball State University, Muncie, Ind. and a doctorate from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Crouch also has been associated with career planning and placement at Southern Illinois University; vice president of Peoples National Bank, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; assistant dean of students/men and director of career planning and placement at Hanover College and assistant director of a residence hall at Ball State University.

He has served as a human relations consultant to several large industrial firms and the U.S. Army. He has given public presentations on career planning to professional organizations throughout the U.S.

Crouch is married and the father of two children.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound—there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band—or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available—and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat and Lady Kat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities in basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena or Lady Kat games in Memorial Coliseum, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in the 11,500-seat Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.
