

Chicago,

July 7, 1918.

Dear Margie:

I'm hoping you, your mother and father are enjoying Detroit just as much as I did during my limited stay, which is saying a good deal.

Got two cards from Art, one en route and the other from Camp Jackson, and we note with pleasure that the boys