

Hold a little while, and I have to go down and make my payment on the lot. I am glad to have Hazel here; I like her so much.

Your two letters came all right this morning on the regular delivery.

How queer for Johnson not to mention his wife and baby. One might think the breach of promise suit concerned him personally.

Bully for you! on the deposit stunt; you are starting the year out finely. I can congratulate you. And I surely Dearie:- It is so very late that I know you won't expect much of a letter this time. But I thought you must have a word of some sort from me.

We had a dandy good time to-day. Hazel came home with us and is going to stay until I go out to Plymouth to-morrow. She says to say "Hello!" to you for her. We expect to go out and see Bertha and
