OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

HANOVER, MICHIGAN, May 25 1919

Dearest boy is mine :-

I have no letter of yours to answer, dear, but will write a little to tell you what I have been doing today. It has been a perfectly lovely day! I sat on the porch a long time this morning, and then went out and visited with the twenty little white pigs, and the three baby geese - good company, too.

Well, I packed up my books yesterday, but not the Brunswick, for there is a strike in Detroit among the Am. Express Co. employees and they can't make any shipments there until it ends.

Sent home a traveling bag full of things by parcel post, yesterday. They were things that I don't really need and want to get out of the way.

Am not a little surprised at an article in this week's Public, really advocating the saloon on the grounds that if people don't have it they will have something worse. It is only
