

THE GREEN BEAN

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY LIBRARIES' NEWSLETTER

2/8/80

No. 309

CALENDAR

- February 11 Library Bake Sale (for information call Janet Purser, GPD, 7-2639)
Faculty recital by Arthur Graham and Aimo Kiviniemi, 8:00 PM, Recital Hall, Center for the Arts. Free
- February 12 Artists-in-Residence: Papermaking. Visiting artists Pam Schmitt, Judy Bullington and Lyn Charron, Lexington Public Library, 1:00-4:00 PM.
Appalachian Roundtable: Dr. Bart Thielgus, Department of Forestry, UK, 12:00 noon, Room 206, Student Center. Bring your lunch.
Lecture-Demonstration: "The black experience through South African literature," Dennis Brutus and the Drums of Africa, 7:30 PM, Recital Hall, Center for the Arts.
- February 13 Employee Development Center program "Perception and Cognition," 12:00 noon, Room 15, Memorial Hall. Bring your lunch.
Artists-in-Residence: Papermarbling and bookbinding, with staff of King Library Press, Lexington Public Library, 1:00-4:00 PM.
The inaugural concert for the newly installed organ in the UK Center for the Arts, 8:00 PM. W. Robinson, organist.
- February 14 ACTS general meeting, 9:00 AM, Gallery, King Library North.
Potpourri 1980: Lee Pennington, Appalachian song and story, 8:00 PM, Recital Hall, Center for the Arts.
Artists-in-Residence: Origami, with Don Shall, Lexington Public Library, 1:00-4:00 PM.
- February 15 Deadline for articles in UK Libraries Occasional Papers. Lee Pennington, public poetry reading, 12:00 noon, Center for the Arts.

EXHIBITS

- Engineering Library Electric Vehicle Exhibit (February 11-March 14)
King North Railroad timetables

Contributors: John Bryant, Mary Davis, Pam Fields, Joan Gatewood, Faith Harders, Rebekah Harleston, Pat Lloyd, Terry Warth (editor), Ron Weber.

University Archives

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT THE MARGARET I. KING LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, LEXINGTON, KY. 40506
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky 40506

ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

CONVERSION UPDATE

The monographic and serials conversion project which began in September 1979 is well ahead of earlier projections. Our goal was to convert at least 2,000 titles per month to machine readable form. In the first five months the Unit has converted a total of 17,773 titles (i.e. 928 serial titles and 16,845 monographs). The serials project includes titles from the King periodical collection, while the monograph conversion includes King and the Branch Libraries. These figures do not include efforts in the Agriculture, Law or Medical libraries.

COM CATALOG UPDATE

The second edition of the COM (Computer Output Microfiche) catalog, produced in the pilot project with Solinet and Bro Dart, has been reviewed and will be distributed beginning February 8. The review group deemed the quality of this edition unacceptable for the fullest distribution and promotion.

Each Department, Branch and Associate Library will have copies and readers. The use may be limited to the staff or in some cases shared with the patrons. A full description of the catalog, its contents and deficiencies will accompany each copy distributed.

On February 20th, a representative from Blackwell North American will meet with the COM planning group at UK to review the problems with the catalog. Blackwell has been selected jointly by the University of Kentucky Libraries and Solinet as an alternate vendor. Indications are that they can remedy the existing deficiencies. The Library will not have supplements to this edition but will wait for a fully revised edition from Blackwell. Delivery dates are not firm; however, January 1, 1981 is a target.

The Library now must readdress the implications for the catalog as of January 1, 1980 in the light of this unexpected delay.

John Bryant

IN MEMORIAM

The Art Library has an "In Memoriam" exhibit for Mark Rybarski, a part-time UK student who died recently. The exhibit, which will be on display from now through February 29, consists of two weavings which Mark Rybarski made in a class taught last fall by Professor Arturo Sandoval of the Department of Art.

RECRUITMENT OF STUDENT/STAFF TELEPHONE INTERVIEWERS FOR UK-SRC POLL

The University of Kentucky Survey Research Center staff is preparing for its third UK-SRC poll. The statewide telephone survey, scheduled for March and April, 1980, will include a broad range of questions--from education to health care to government services to cultural activities.

The UK-Survey Research Center plans to employ UK students and staff as telephone interviewers and coders for the UK-SRC poll. These students and/or staff would be employed on a part-time, temporary basis. The poll will be conducted during March and April, 1980. The pay is $3.00/hour, including interviewer training, actual telephone interviewing and coding. The actual interviewing will take place weekday evenings, from 6 to 10, and weekend afternoons from 1 to 5.

Those interested in being interviewers and coders for the UK-SRC Poll of Public Opinion Spring '80 survey should contact Faith Miller Cole at the Survey Research Center, 211 McVey Hall (257-4684) anytime Tuesday and Thursday between 8:30 a.m. and 3:00 pm. or Mondays 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Interested students or staff should contact the UK-SRC staff no later than Friday, February 29.

A REMINDER TO CLASSIFIED STAFF

A reminder about the next ACTS general meeting, February 14 at 9:00 AM in the Gallery, King North. Martin May from the Training and Development Department will be the special guest. Please bring any questions you may have about this area.

FANTASY

Fantasy is the theme of the Thirteenth Annual Workshop for Librarians who work with children and young adults. It is sponsored by the University of Kentucky's College of Library Science. The event is March 7-8, 1980 at the Student Center at UK. Susan Cooper is the featured guest author-speaker. A wide variety of small group activities, book review sessions, print and non-print exhibits, and media previews are available to participants. For additional information contact: Nancy S. Little, Director, Office for Continuing Education, 258-8877.

ROSES ANYONE?

A half-dozen roses were delivered to the Library this week. They were addressed to Margaret I. King Library and the card reads: "A novice of Joe E. Varela and family." The deserving department or individual may claim the roses in the Director's Office.

BABIES! BABIES! BABIES!

To Colleen Holmes of the Director's Office, a boy Derek Edward, 8 lbs. 3 oz. To Jan Orf, Extension Librarian, TWINS, Nicholas and Brian 6 lbs. 6 oz. and 5 lbs. 4 oz.

NEWS OF FORMER COLLEAGUE

Carla Stoffle, who was a library intern here in 1967-69 (Acquisitions, Reference, Cataloging, GPD) is Assistant Chancellor for Educational Services, University of Wisconsin-Parkside. Carla is co-author of a book on documents with Rebekah Harleston, and co-author of a book on materials and methods of history research and another on political science research.

WORKSHOP

"Expanding Media Horizons" includes sessions on instructional development, television graphics, hands on small computer Demonstration, model photography demonstration (bring your cameras), political media production and tour of Health Sciences Learning Center.

The workshop is sponsored by Kentucky Association for Communications and Technology and University of Kentucky Medical Center. It will be held March 29, 1980 from 8:30 AM to 3:30 PM at the University of Kentucky Medical Center Health Sciences Learning Center. Four c.e.u.'s may be earned by attending. Pre-registration (after March 15, 1980): members $5.00; non-members $10.00. On-site registration: members $6.00; non-members $12.00. Box lunch $3.00.

Any interested participant should contact Richard Thornton, Fort Knox Dependent Schools, Building 7474, Ft. Knox, Ky. 40121 or call (502) 624-2247 or 624-6750.

COURSES ON MENTAL HEALTH OF THE RURAL AGING

To be given May 12-June 10, 1980. Registration must be done by March 1. Tuition is $24.00. For inquiries call 258-4741.

As Joyce Berry of Farmers Home Administration, USDA says: To be old and poor in the United States is scary. To be old and poor and rural is downright hazardous.

POSITIONS OPEN

LT I - Agriculture.

If interested, see Faith Harders.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Head, Science and Engineering Library, University of California, San Diego. Salary $18,312-$26,340 or $24,600-$34,104 depending on rank. Application deadline: May 15, 1980.

Head of Catalog Department & Bibliographic File Coordinator, California State University, Chico. Salary $21,864-$26,364. Application deadline April 30, 1980.

Health Sciences Monographic Acquisitions Librarian, University of Missouri-Columbia. Salary $12,000. Application deadline: April 1, 1980.

Head Serial Records Section, National Library of Medicine.

Supervisor Cataloging Section, National Library of Medicine.

Assistant Dean for Collection Development, University of New Mexico. Salary $20,000-$26,000. Application deadline: March 1, 1980.

Principal Reference Librarian, New York State Library. Starting salary $25,000. Application deadline: March 17, 1980.

State Law Librarian, New York State Library. Starting salary $23,755. Application deadline: March 17, 1980.

Public Services Librarian and Assistant Department Head, Periodicals and Serials Department, University of North Carolina. Starting salary $11,500. Application deadline: March 1, 1980.

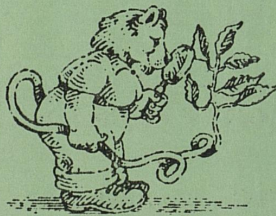

Team Leader, Near East Team, Catalogue Division, Princeton University Library. Minimum salary $13,400. Application deadline: March 1, 1980.

Assistant Life Sciences Librarian, Purdue University. Salary $13,000 or more. Application deadline: April 15, 1980.

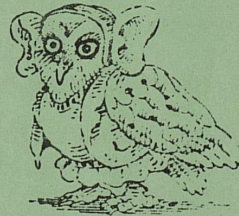

Physics and Geosciences Librarian, Purdue University. Salary $13,000 or more. Application deadline: April 15, 1980.

Head, Catalog Department, Temple University. Salary $18,000 minimum. Application deadline: March 15, 1980.

Head Librarian, Wabash College. Salary $20,000 minimum. Application deadline: March 15, 1980.

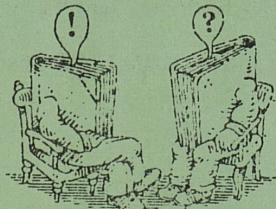

trace your family tree

hear a lecture

check out paperbacks

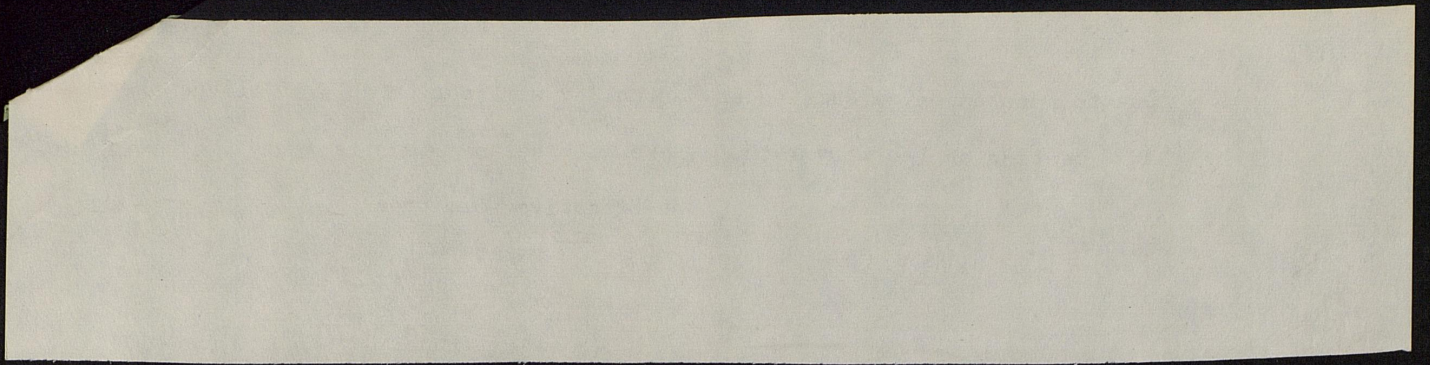

join a book discussion group

get fast answers

AT THE LIBRARY?
At the library.

Come see what's new besides books.

Due to unforeseen circumstances Martin May will not be able to attend the ACTS meeting on February 14th. There will be an alternate agenda.

The Executive Committee